

An attack was made immediately on the town with indiscriminate fury...

The execution of these unfortunate gentlemen was a sergeant of the King's county militia of the name of Dunn—a monster in the human form, whose brutality and ferocious cruelty has never been exceeded in any country—not even in France, in the worst times of the French Revolution...

The heads of the persons executed he used to carry to his own house after the execution rolled up in the fens of each, and in the course of the evening he proceeded to the town house, mounted the roof, and fixed the heads on pikes.

For a length of time the bridge of Wexford was a fashionable lounge for the bucks and blades of the Wexford ascendancy, and Sergeant Dunn was wont to gather his evening gump around him, and regale his hearers with ludicrous anecdotes of his official labors.

The insurgents made a third attempt to retake the town, and on this occasion displayed extraordinary courage; but the loss of their favorite leader, Kelly, of Killan, threw them into complete disorder, and they retreated in confusion to Carrickburn.

The battle of Vinegar hill; and the engagements with the rebel outposts in its vicinity, on the 21st of June, ended in the total discomfiture of the Wexford insurgents. Their numbers are generally estimated at 30,000 men, and the force under the command of General Lake at 20,000.

One of General Lake's first acts was to issue a proclamation for the apprehension of the rebel chiefs. Bagnal Harvey, after the terms on which he agreed to surrender Wexford being refused by Lord Kingsborough, retired to his residence at 'Burry Castle.'

Flouring Mills in New Orleans.

Flouring Mills in New Orleans.—We stated a few days since that there was a project on foot in New Orleans to build a great steam flouring mill, for the purpose of manufacturing into flour, the large quantities of wheat which can be furnished by the great Valley of the Mississippi.

The receipts of produce for export, we learn from the New Orleans papers, are much heavier since the first of September, the beginning of their commercial year, to the 10th of this month, than for the same period in 1811.

The prices of these staples, in the present deranged state of the currency, resulting from a transition from a redundant paper circulation to one of specie, and the certainty of abundant crops, inevitably, are very low.

Clear the Course.—The N. Y. Union says that Mr. Bots states in a letter published in the Richmond Whig that "every body stood aghast at his disclosures when he pronounced President Tyler a traitor to his party."

The result in New Jersey.—We subjoin from a New Jersey paper, the result of the late election in New Jersey. It will be seen that in spite of the infamous manner in which the state is gerrymandered, the democrats came within an ace of electing the members in Morris county, which would have made a tie in the Legislature.

More of Interdicted Marriages.—The principal question brought before the Presbyterian Synod, of New Jersey, convened at Elizabethtown last week, was, whether a man should be permitted to marry his deceased wife's sister. It was debated, and determined in the affirmative, by a vote of 55 to 24.

Hand-writing of Eminent Men.—It is generally believed that men of genius write in a very obscure, infirm, and eccentric characters, such as Byron, Chalmers, Jeffrey, and Bonaparte.

DAILY MORNING POST.

PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1842.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

In pursuance of a call of the Democratic Committee of Correspondence of the State, published at Harrisburg, some time since, regarding the propriety of each county electing delegates equal to their number of representatives in the State Legislature, to meet in their respective counties in convention, and elect delegates to meet at Harrisburg, on the 8th of January, 1843, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Presidency, subject to the decision of a Democratic National Convention.

The Democrats of Allegheny county are, therefore, requested to meet in the different wards, boroughs and townships, on Saturday, the 5th day of November next, at their usual places of holding their elections, and each district elect two delegates to meet in County Convention at the Court House, in the city of Pittsburgh, on Wednesday, the 8th of November, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of electing five delegates to represent Allegheny county in the State Convention; to be held at Harrisburg, on the 8th of January, JAMES CRAWFORD, Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Correspondence for Allegheny county.

The citizens of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, Birmingham, Lawrenceville and Pitt township, are requested to meet at half past 7 o'clock, and the Townships between Sand 6 o'clock, P. M. Oct 23-19

Female Rowers.—The Hampshire (Eng) Independent, gives an account of the aquatic performance of a number of women of Salts. The Independent says they had won rowing matches at Portsmouth, Plymouth and Dartmouth, and left Southampton for the purpose of contesting a prize at Havre. They were most politely received by a committee; but the Frenchmen declined the proposed encounter on even terms, and at length it was arranged that a match should take place between the Glamvilles and the English boatmen, and a subscription was entered into by the committee for a prize to be contended for by the Amazonian champions with the Englishmen, and in a few minutes 400 francs were forthcoming for the purpose. English rowers volunteered from the Grand Turk; the boats were manned and wazzan'd respectively. The race, which was well contested on both sides, was soon begun and concluded; and, amid the cheers of 20,000 spectators, the Salts women carried the day, and earned a new trophy on the bosom of the Seine.

Francis J. Grund, who was appointed to a Consulship, and was rejected by the Senate, has been appointed Weighmaster by the New Collector at Philadelphia. Grund is a German of fine talents and acquirements, and was originally a member of the democratic party, but in 1840 he was smitten with the Coon fever and became a straightwight. He started a German paper in Philadelphia, which was conducted with great ability, and it had a powerful influence in swaying the federal vote in that city. After the election, Mr. Grund applied for, and received an appointment from President Tyler, but was rejected by the Senate, under the impression, we suppose, that he retained too many of his democratic notions to make fit a tool for federalism.

POSTSCRIPT! IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT! We have delayed our paper to make room for the following most important piece of information: The Gazette says that the N. Y. American and N. Y. Tribune have given their opinions of Spencer's letter, and added: "We have not had time to read it yet, but will give our opinion to-morrow."

Democratic inj. on popular vote 2943. The late Convention there having been so corrupt this year, it is thought best to put down the majority of 1840 as the best vote.

Table with 3 columns: Name, Coos, Demo. Lists names like Bergen, Hudson, Passaic, Essex, Morris, Sussex, Warren, Somerset, Middlesex, Hunterdon, Monmouth, Mercer, Burlington, Gloucester, Atlantic, Cumberland, Salem, Cape May.

Democratic inj. on popular vote 2943. The late Convention there having been so corrupt this year, it is thought best to put down the majority of 1840 as the best vote. Good.—The Boston Post calls, "Whig gatherings Coonventions."

In speaking of the Pennsylvania Election, the National Intelligencer says of the whigs had carried Dauphin, Chester, Allegheny, Mercer, Adams, Butler, Union and some other whig counties, they would have had a majority of twelve on joint ballot. It might have added, and if they had carried all the counties in the State, their majority would have been much larger.

Mr. Taylor's Lectures. Mr. J. Orville Taylor, delivered his first Lecture on Education, at the Third Presbyterian Church in this city, on Thursday evening last. We were there but for a few minutes, but long enough to discover that we had lost an intellectual, entertaining first order, in not being a listener throughout the Lecture. Mr. Taylor has evidently bestowed much time and all the energies of his superior intellect upon the investigation of the subject of Education. Of the few remarks we heard, none were without force, and all his views were just, and earnestly expressed. He spoke in a fluent and pleasant style, well calculated to interest his hearers.

The National Forum, a leading Coon paper of Philadelphia, has a picture of the emblem of its principles, 'the same old coon,' mounted upon a rail, and seemingly in a very pleasant humor. The old fellow's happiness is produced by the fact that the Whigs have elected a State Senator in St. Joseph County, Indiana, which election, the Forum says, will secure the choice of a Whig U. S. Senator. It may be well enough to note that the Whigs have always carried St. Joseph county, and the Old Coon is grinning because the Democrats have not run him from a favorite retreat.

The Hampshire (Eng) Independent, gives an account of the aquatic performance of a number of women of Salts. The Independent says they had won rowing matches at Portsmouth, Plymouth and Dartmouth, and left Southampton for the purpose of contesting a prize at Havre. They were most politely received by a committee; but the Frenchmen declined the proposed encounter on even terms, and at length it was arranged that a match should take place between the Glamvilles and the English boatmen, and a subscription was entered into by the committee for a prize to be contended for by the Amazonian champions with the Englishmen, and in a few minutes 400 francs were forthcoming for the purpose. English rowers volunteered from the Grand Turk; the boats were manned and wazzan'd respectively. The race, which was well contested on both sides, was soon begun and concluded; and, amid the cheers of 20,000 spectators, the Salts women carried the day, and earned a new trophy on the bosom of the Seine.

Francis J. Grund, who was appointed to a Consulship, and was rejected by the Senate, has been appointed Weighmaster by the New Collector at Philadelphia. Grund is a German of fine talents and acquirements, and was originally a member of the democratic party, but in 1840 he was smitten with the Coon fever and became a straightwight. He started a German paper in Philadelphia, which was conducted with great ability, and it had a powerful influence in swaying the federal vote in that city. After the election, Mr. Grund applied for, and received an appointment from President Tyler, but was rejected by the Senate, under the impression, we suppose, that he retained too many of his democratic notions to make fit a tool for federalism.

POSTSCRIPT! IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT! We have delayed our paper to make room for the following most important piece of information: The Gazette says that the N. Y. American and N. Y. Tribune have given their opinions of Spencer's letter, and added: "We have not had time to read it yet, but will give our opinion to-morrow."

Democratic inj. on popular vote 2943. The late Convention there having been so corrupt this year, it is thought best to put down the majority of 1840 as the best vote. Good.—The Boston Post calls, "Whig gatherings Coonventions."

Swindling, Mock Auction Stalls are multiplying to a fearful extent in New York. "An Awful Burst."—A young lady named Mary Ann, recently went to a ball with a bladder tightly bowed up for a bustle. A gentleman accidentally ran against her and burst the bladder, restoring her chaotic form to its usual proportions. The report was heard all over the town.—Poor Mary Ann!

The Lynn Locomotive thinks any dog can be cured of the hydrophobia by cutting his tail off just behind the ears! We wonder if a man can be cured in the same way.—Sunday Mercury.

A Bat Story.—A foreign paper tells the toughest kind of a story about a woodman discovering a bat in the crotch of a large wild cherry tree. The tree presented a small cavity where the bat was enclosed, and was particularly sound on each side.

Vermont Senator.—On Friday, the 21st, William Upham, Esq., was chosen United States Senator, by the Legislature of this State, for a full term of six years, from the 4th of March, 1843. The vote was, for Upham, whig, 122; for Bradley, dem, 100; scattering, 6. The whig majority in the legislature, then, is 16; it was last year 35. It will be recalled that the result of the election in this State was considered by the whigs a "glorious victory." Pyrrhus would have shrugged his shoulders at such a victory.

The legislature has unanimously adopted a resolution in favor of the repeal of the Bankrupt Law.

In speaking of the juvenile duel between Midshipman Knapp and Rhian, the Baltimore Sun says that in an analogous case to this President Jackson said "Let their names be stricken from the roll," and President Tyler would do a good act by "following in the footsteps."

The "Sun" was the only morning paper of yesterday, that contained the late news from Texas.—Sun.

It was likewise the only "morning paper" that contained an original acoustic. Why don't you tell all the interesting matters that appeared in your paper of that morning, Bro. Russell?

Hon. James Buchanan arrived in Philadelphia on the 24th.

From the Philadelphia Spirit of the Times. Col. Edwards' sentence: His dog is speechless. Colonel Edwards is an extraordinary rascal, and a man of courage to boot. He was brought before Judge Kent, in New York, last Monday, for sentence, on the two new indictments for forgery upon which he had been convicted. He was handsomely dressed and looked undismayed. When called upon to speak, he arose, and with a faltering lip begged two or three weeks stay of sentence to arrange his affairs, as he had been in trade transactions with the particulars of which his relatives had no acquaintance. The Court refused.

Think not, because I am threatened, that I shall for one moment degrade myself by asking suppliant favors. I am well aware what the law imposes, I wish, however, it compelled you to consign me at once to total annihilation. I am made the victim in this charge, yet I am innocent—innocent as the Saviour of the world, or as the child unborn. Still I ask no favor. I would disdain to ask mitigation as to my fate—that man has yet to be born before whom I would bend a suppliant knee.

BOOK AND PRINTING. N. W. Corner of... THE PROPRIETORS OF THE... AND MANUFACTURERS... AND WELL CHOSEN ASSORTMENT OF... JOHNSON AND COMPANY... Necessary to a Job Printer...

LETTER PRESS. OF EVERY KIND. Books, Pamphlets, Handbills, Bills of Lading, Receipts, Labels, Circulars, &c. &c. All kinds of... Printed on the shortest notice... We respectfully ask the patronage of... Pittsburgh, Sep. 28, 1842.

Auction. On Saturday Evening the 29th... which are Can's Domestic... containing 22... with full description of their... means of applying for their... of the University—Merrill... Love—History of the... with 25... recent performances, including... initial Diagrams, &c. &c. appropriate to children and youth... Academies and libraries... The Books 4c. per copy... Oct 23

EUROPEAN AGENCY. To transact the business... conducted for many years... of October, annually, and... about the time of the... SIXTEENTH... there and... Canada, wishing to send... to their friends in the... of Water or to collect... property, or to make... &c., will have their... and full description of their... Agents in the various... in Pittsburgh, and were... by Mr. Thomas... May, Merchant, Water... H. KEENE... Oct 23—1842

NOTICE.—We have several... discharged packages... be delivered according to... Read Washington, 6... No. 11, Pittsburgh... J. M. Scott, 1 Box... Wm J Green, 4 packages... No mark, 2 carriages... U. S. Postable Post... Pittsburgh, Oct 21, 1842

FOR SALE. A farm within 30 miles... on Penn street, in the... situated on the... and a brick house with a... &c., occupied at present... and having a 200... containing and title... see 2-5

FOR SALE. A farm within 30 miles... on Penn street, in the... situated on the... and a brick house with a... &c., occupied at present... and having a 200... containing and title... see 2-5

READY MADE. AT THE THREE... No. 151 Liberty st., one door... I have a quantity of... MADE CLOTHING ever offered... try, would respectfully invite... and examine his Goods... purchasing elsewhere. His... 1200 Coats, assorted sizes and... 1842 Vest; a large... Drawers, Cravats, Stock, Buttons... other articles of winter... His Cloths were all selected by... Markets, and purchased at the... and consequently he can afford... BETTER BARGAINS than the... house in the city. Believing in... ing Home Industry" he has... institution in saying that they... spect superior to the Eastern... are offered for sale in the... Assorted gowns... In these times when... large share of public attention... proprietor of the "Three B... and pleasure in assuring... his Goods are all made of... mechanics of his own town... his rivals in trade, have... city, in another State, who... sells for one or four hundred... copers on the principle that... can do work as well as any... size to draw money from the... work, while he makes them... not with impunity them by... off mammoth work... The subscriber would... thank to his friends and country... nation extended to his... past his invitation to all... clothing of every... and sold on the description... No. 151 Liberty street

Notice. I have a quantity of... MADE CLOTHING ever offered... try, would respectfully invite... and examine his Goods... purchasing elsewhere. His... 1200 Coats, assorted sizes and... 1842 Vest; a large... Drawers, Cravats, Stock, Buttons... other articles of winter... His Cloths were all selected by... Markets, and purchased at the... and consequently he can afford... BETTER BARGAINS than the... house in the city. Believing in... ing Home Industry" he has... institution in saying that they... spect superior to the Eastern... are offered for sale in the... Assorted gowns... In these times when... large share of public attention... proprietor of the "Three B... and pleasure in assuring... his Goods are all made of... mechanics of his own town... his rivals in trade, have... city, in another State, who... sells for one or four hundred... copers on the principle that... can do work as well as any... size to draw money from the... work, while he makes them... not with impunity them by... off mammoth work... The subscriber would... thank to his friends and country... nation extended to his... past his invitation to all... clothing of every... and sold on the description... No. 151 Liberty street