POSTECLIPE. MAGNIFICENT TORCH LIGHT TEMPERANCE PROCESSION!

Last night the Uncle Sam and Vigilant Engines together with the different T. A. Societies of Pitts burgh and Allegheny, paraded through our prin cipal streets, with music, and banners inscribed with appropriate Mottos. We regret that we are unable to give a detailed account of this grand Procession to-day, though we think it might be maperfluous as all appeared to be eye witnesses to its splendor.

The Uncle Sam (glorious Duger!) led the van. This engire was splendidly decorated; it bore two sera. transparencies with the following inscriptions: "U. S. Temperance Company."

"Temperance Gals for us." "In Memory of King Alcohol."

drinks." its large and brilliant transparencies, on which, among other devices, we noticed the following:

"Pledged to Reel out our Arguments." Extinguish the Flames, then put out the Fire. In Monday's Post we will give he full particulars of last night's proceedings.

A Fight -- We learn that yesterday A. W. Wylie, Fsq., licked a man named John But'er most effectually, some place down town. The quarrel originated at a wedding party, but we have not heard the cause of it. We are proud to say that Mr. W. has maintained the honor and dignity of our ci'v, as he is a native here and the poor 'used up' belong to Washington. 'Pitisburgh forever.' Last night there were more people astir than we have ever seen at night before. The novelty of a Torch Light Procession brought out old and young, of both sexes.
