The ability of the government itself to accomplish this great object. has never yet been fully and fairly tried.

I have dwelt on this subject, my triends, because it has received so little examination in or out of Congress, and because it involves the most nomentuous interests to the nation and to its sitizens. In the election of Representatives to Con-gress, you are called upon to determine what her the Each quer plan shall prevail, or whether a National Bank shall be established, or whether the vhole matter shall remain unregulated and unprovided for. A respectable portion of you fellow citizens avow their desire for the incorps ration of a Bank of the United States, and he rallied under the name and banner of a dista guished statesman who is pledged to effect this object by all the political power which may be orchard of 30 bearing trees—and a spring of excellent placed in his hands.
