NIA-LAN SCHOOL.-The Trestees of the Westers University of Penesylvania announce to the public that they faire established a Lew School in conpanet that the University, in which will be taught nection with the University, in which will be taught Mancipal, International, and Constitutional Law in all 45 heir uranches.

The mode of instruction will be by recitations, lectures error nd occasional moot courts, as in similar institutions. The year will consist of two terms of four and a half months each.

The first term will commence on the second Monday November next. The tunion fee is $37,50 per term payable in advance WALTER H LOWRIE, Esq.; a member of the Pitisburgh lar, has been chosen Professor. The trustees take great leasure in announcing that they have been able to se are the services of one so well qualified for the statio ty reason of his legal acquirements, and particularly o one so highly esteemed as a scholar and a gentieman The annexed recommendation will furnish satisfaction all his qualifications as Professor. The trusters having been induced to institu e this school from a view of the serious disadvantages attending the studies of law, in the office of practising lawyers and a so the very obvious advantages which Pittsburgh pos. esses over most other places in the West for the establishment of such an institution -Here is a most industrions popu'ation. The student will see around him examples of industry and energy, and very few temptations to indolence and idleness. He may become arquainted with business in all its forms. Our Courts are sitting par nearly all the year round, and there is perhaps no place in the West where a greater variety of cases and princi ples arise for discussion. The Committee are desirons that all persons wishing to AND. avail themselves of the advantages of this school, should pa do so immediately by calling and leaving their names at ine office of Walter H. Lowrie, Esq., on Fourth street or hy addressing him by letter, post paid, so that all sta s may commence at the opening of the term, or as ROLINA early thereafter as possible.
