WW. & PHILIP BAKER. NO THE WISE .- His now well understood how much disorders of the mind depend for their curs one a due attention to the body. It is now understood how valuable is that medicine which will remove morbid comulations without weakening the bodily power. It is now understood that there is a reciprocal infinence be. even the mind and the body. It is now understood that arging with the Brandreth Pills will remove a melancholy, and even insanity is cured by perseveringly using them. It is now understood how much domestic happi-Plebcian. ness depends upon the healthy condition of the digestive

It is now well known that the Brandreth Pills have wred thousands of hopeless and helpless persons, even when the first physicians had pronounced them beyon all human means of relief. It is now not only well known that the Brandreth Pitlesso cure, but it is also understood how they care; that it is by their purifying effect on the blood that they restore the body to health. The value of the medicine is becoming more and more manifest, it is recommended daily from family to family The Brandreth Pills remove in an almost imperceptible manner all noxions accumulations and purify and invigo rate the blood and their good effects are not counterbalan ced by any inconveniences; being composed entirely of vegetables they do not expose those who use them to danger; and their effects are as certain as they are salu lary; they are daily and safely administered to infancy, youth, manhood, and old age, and to women in the most critical and delicate circumstances. They do not disturb r shock the animal functions, but restore their order and establish their bealth.
