Like every other medicine, this must fail in some in stances, but in my hands there has been tern discussion ment and more satisfaction in the administration of this one remedy than of all others; its good effects somet quite astonishing mr.

If my patient regulared a safe apericut medicine enber ore or after parturition, the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted. If a dyspeptic acid condition of the stomach, with contineurs or inactivity of the liver constituted the disease of my patient, the pills were just the thing wanted. If I treated a case requiring an amount ileon's pills were just the thing I wanted. If palaitation, headache, flushed countenance, or other ulties, indicating a disturbance of the circulatory and seriefory systems, annoyed my patient at the start of life,' the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted. Thus, without respect to the name, a durant wish ppen to wear at the time I have had it under treat

Vilson's pills. That so great a number of diseases, and sometimes ap parently opposite ones, in which I have used these pills, should be cuted more readily by them than by any other medy, may at first seem strange and contradictory, but to call and examine. A handrome fit als why it is so is as clear to my mind as that a great many persons should become thirrty from its many, different auses and vet all require that common and greatest
