Beyond all doubt Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrnp of Wild Cherry is the most valuable medicine in this or any other country. I am certain I have witnessed more than one bundred cases where it has been attended with complete success. I am using it myself in an obstinate at tack of Branchitis, in which it proved effectual in a ex ceedingly short time, considering the severity of the case I can recomend it in the fullest confidence of its superior irtues; I would advise that no family should be without it; it is very pleasant and always beneficial-worth double and often ten times its price. The public are as sured there is no quackery about it. B. Jackson, D. D. Formerly Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church

CERTIFICATE.—The following letter from Major Generat Sundford, as to the qualities of the External Remedy, speaks volumes: NEW YORK, Feb. 9, 1842.

Dear Sir-Will you oblige me with another our excellent Liniment? It is certainly the best of the ikind I have ever seen. It has cured entirely my knce, about which I was so uneasy, and I have found productive of immediate relief in several cases of external injury in my family. A few evenings since, my onnest child was seized with a violent attack of Croun which was entirely removed in twenty minutes, by rub bing her chest and throat freely with the External Rem. edy. I think you ought to manufacture this Lin for general use, instead of confining the use of it, as you e lieretofore done, to your particular acqu Yours truly, C. W. SANDFORD.
