CHEAPER THAN EVER! READY MADE CLOTHING

AT THE THREE BIG DOORS, We. 151 Liberty et., one door from the Jackson Foundry. THE Subscriber having prepared at his establishment the largest and most varied stock of READY MADE CLOTHING ever offered in the Western coun try, would respectfully invite the public to give him ; Il and examine his Goods and hear his prices, thefur purchasing elsewhere. His stock consists in part o 500 Coats, assorted sizes and quality; 2000 pair Panta-ren 20-1y

loose: 1800 Veste; with a large assortment of Shirts. Drawers, Cravals, Stocks, Gloves, Supenders, and every other article of winter Ctothing. His Clothe were all selected by himselfin the Eastern farkets, and purchased at the very lowest cash prices. and co ntly he can afford to give his customers BETTER BARGAINS than they can get at any other nouse in the city. Believing in the principle of .. Protect us Home Industry" he has therefore had all his articles nanufactured by Pittsburgh workmen, and he has n fesitation in saving that they will be found in every res ect superior to the Eastern manufactured articles that are offered for sale in the slop shops that have recently Anchored among us. In these times when Home Industry is occupying large a sugre of mublic attention, as it plways should, the proprietor of the "Three Big Doors ' takes perutiar pride is Goods are all manufactured under his own eye, by the echanics of his own town. He does not, like some of his rivals in trade, have his Clothes made up in a distant ity, in another State, nor does he adveitise his Stork in ills printed three or four hundred miles from here. Be oes on the principle that the mechanics of Pittshurth can do work as well as any others, and lie does not eite to draw money from their porkets to support distant impoverish them by a drain to support fa off mammoth workshons.

The subscriber would take this occasion to retur thanks to his friends and customers for the unpreceden ed patronage extended to his establishment, and to re peat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase clothing, of every description, made in the latest fashion and sold on the most accommodating terms, to call at No 151 Liberty street.
