DAILY MORNING POST. JANUARY 4, 1843.

Canal Commerce. - A comparative statement of the shipments to and from this ciy. in the year, 1841 and 1842, compiled from the Collecter's Books, will be published in to-morrow's "Post,"

Lard Oil. It will be seen by his advertisement that M Edy has commenced the manufacture of Lard Oil in this city. Mr. E. is an enterprising and industrious mun, and will no doubt carry on the new business with spirit and success. What is a very important matter in the art cle of Lard Oil, Mr. E. marron . t to burn in any temperature .-Those of our citizens who take pride in supporting some manufactures, will, without doubt, patonize Mr. Edy in his new enterprise.

New Mail Arrangements.—A contract has been acres of Land attached to each, ntered into by the Post Master General for car. rying the Mail from Baltimore at d Washington city, and south of those places, to this city, by way of the Cumberland Rail Road. It is in ended to accomplish the distance to thirty-four h urabing one day sooner then we have heretofore received Washington news. Mr Wickliffe descrives great being delivered at this point at a less cost than in the Laucaster bank, dis community. The improvement is a very impordant one.
