

Yes, and the north easternmost part of our State, not forgetting the unalienable rights of Wolf Hollow, and its staple production in particular. Is this any longer to be tolerated? No, sir, rather let us be explicit: The dark gores of the Rocky Mountains, where corn whisky is not to be found, and where the light of civilization penetrate, they are so far down; rather let us submit to become lightning rods to the snow-headed summits of these bluffs of the Pacific, than be melted like thin cakes of ice by the fire of this aristocratic cooking stove."

An Instructive Lesson.
The Girard Fund.—In compliance with the will of Stephen Girard, the treasurer of the trust bequeathed the city, has just made his usual annual exhibit. Of the two million appropriated to the construction and maintenance of the Girard College, $931,898 has been expended—the unexpended balance of this fund ($1,368,000) is in United States Bank shares, and State and city stock, the market value of which does not exceed $675,000. So much for the college fund. The $500,000 appropriated for the improvement of the eastern front of the city, is invested in various stocks, the value of which has shrunk to about one-half of their par value, and during the year yielded but $22,011. The $10,000 appropriated by the testator for the purchase of fuel for poor householders, is invested in Schuylkill Navigation Company loan, and is worth about $5,600, though it yielded, during the year, $405. The stocks and loans comprising the residuary fund, the market value of which amounts $525,755, would not now command in the market 50 per cent. of that sum, and during the year paid nothing. The amount of receipts into the treasury during the year past, from all sources is $245,273. The expenditures were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Total balance in the treasury: 34,592 86.

Singular.—The Edinburgh Medical Journal gives an account of a case in which a man, reduced to an almost dying state by his hæmorrhoids, was cured, and restored to health, by means of transfusion of blood from the veins of a goat. It may be added that he has done nothing ever since but sing "Oh, Nannie, wilt thou gang wi' me!" He will probably take to kidnaping as a profession.

Mr. Dim and his matches.—An exchange tells a good story about Mr. Dim and his matches. It appears that Mr. Dim was seized with pain the other night, and got out of bed to look for his hot drops. From the usual place on the mantel-piece he took up what he considered a row of matches, and one after another he snapped them off without effect, and as he threw down the last, he gave vent to his vexation by exclaiming: "Damn it, these matches won't go." His wife now came to his assistance, and upon the other end of the mantel-piece found some matches, and having obtained light, the first object which met the astonished eyes of both was the head of her best tortoise shell comb, with every tooth broken out, and thrown upon the floor. As Mr. Dim looked at the comb, Mrs. Dim, who was working by his own misgued hands, cast a reproachful look at him, and retired to her bed without uttering a syllable.

A monstrous skeleton.—The Ozark Standard (Springfield, Mo.) says: "We have now in our office a jaw tooth of an animal dug up near Warsaw, in Benton Co., that weighs fourteen pounds and a half. The tusks found at the same place, and supposed to belong to the same monster, are about thirteen feet long. According to the best calculation that can be made, the skeleton, when completed, will be 40 ft. in length and twenty-eight feet high. We understand that it is the intention of the proprietors to send the skeleton to New Orleans."

The celebrated Capt. Deymer.—The publishers of the London Quarterly announce in a card, that Mr. Dickens did not write the articles on the American Free.

Fire in Bennington.—On Thursday, the 29th ult. the tannery of Daniel Conklin, in Bennington, Vt., was destroyed by fire. Loss, $5000 dollars—partially covered by insurance.

True dignity arises from consciousness. Think of this, ye tyrants.

JAMES BUCHANAN, SECTER TO THE EXECUTION OF A NATIONAL CONVENTION. DAILY MORNING POST. SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1843.

State Convention.

This assembly of the friends of Mr. BUCHANAN, contained representatives from almost every county in the State, and we hope the harmony and unanimity that marked its proceedings, will convince all who have had any doubts on the subject, that the democracy of Pennsylvania have not yielded a jot to their desire for the nomination of their distinguished fellow citizen as the next Presidential candidate.

The primary organization of the Convention was effected by calling the Hon. D. D. WAGNER, of Northampton, to the Chair as President pro tem., and JOHN SCHWARTZ, of Berks, JOHN N. PURVIANCE, of Butler, BENJ. H. BREWSTER, of Philadelphia, and WM. L. DEWALT, of Northumberland, appointed Secretaries.

A motion was made to appoint a committee of one from each Congressional District, for the purpose of choosing officers of the Convention. At the afternoon session the committee reported through their chairman, C. H. Page of Phila, the following officers:

President.—William Bestly of Butler.
Vice Presidents.—Frederick Smith of Franklin; H. B. Wright of Luzerne; D. D. Wag ner of Northampton; Thomas Stinson of Juniata; J. G. Montgomery of Columbia; Samuel Hays of Venango, John B. Steiger of Montgomery; R. H. Hammond of Northumberland; J. Schwartz of Berks; Ephraim Banks of Mifflin; A. P. Moberwell of Clarion; More Connell of Lancaster; F. A. Rohrer of Westmoreland; Joseph W. Duncan of Bedford; G. Christmas of Chester; Wm. Bigler of Clearfield; T. B. Town of Philadelphia co.; Abel M. Griffiths of Bucks; S. M. Leiper of Delaware; Jonathan Large of Allegheny; Geo. Snyder of Adams, and James Page of Philadelphia city.

Secretaries.—John Green of Berks, H. H. Laughlin of Crawford; Benj. H. Brewster of Philadelphia; John N. Purviance of Butler; C. B. Mathews of Bucks; David Lynch of Allegheny; Wm. L. Dewalt of Northumberland; J. C. Mitchell of Cumberland; and James Macmanis of Centre.

The full proceedings of the Convention will reach us in a few days, and as they will not doubt be interesting matter to our readers we will endeavor to give them an early publication.

A wealthy pauper.—The Northampton Courier says, that Capt. Wm. Smith, who for the last ten years has been an inmate of the Northampton Almshouse, has just claims against the Government for French captivities, prior to 1800, to the amount of $10,000. In 1798 and '99, he commanded at different times, 3 vessels, in the cargoes of which he was interested to the amount of $10,000 prime cost—all of which vessels were captured by French privateers, and with their cargoes confiscated. The French Government made compensation for these damages more than 40 years ago, and the money was used in the purchase of Louisiana. Capt. Smith has sent a petition to Washington for relief, which is dated at the Northampton post house.

A Revolutionary Soldier.—Happening says the Phila. Chronicle, to stroll into Independence Hall, yesterday, we observed among a number of persons who were present, an aged man with an odd cockade in his hat. Upon enquiry, we learnt that this was one of General Washington's Life Guards, and that his name was Stephen Beard, and that he is 99 years of age. He stated to us that the cockade he wore in his hat, was given to him by General Washington himself. The old veteran resides on the Lancaster Turnpike, a few miles from the city.

"Grahamism."
Graham, known as the "bran bread" lecturer, recently delivered a discourse in advocacy of his favorite doctrine, in New York. "He showed," says the Sun, "that comparative anatomy does not prove that man is a meat-eating animal, and that his tastes are no evidence of the question—Cows and sheep have been taught to love highly seasoned food, containing meat, and the lecturer related with much grace the artificial habits of a favorite cow, which it appears he had taken some pains to educate. He declared that she became so humanized that she turned from her hay with ineffable contempt. He repudiated emphatically the popular opinion that Grahamism meant a bran-bread diet, and nothing else. It included abundant exercise, plenty of outdoors, well aired beds and apartments, the use of stimulants, and the avoidance of all stimulating foods and drinks, which may excite the spirits or sink them proportionably below their natural level.

A fire caused by Journal.—We learn from the Portsmouth Journal, that on the 30th ult. a grist-mill at Newcastle, N. H., was destroyed by fire. In the storm on that day, says the Journal, the strong east wind caused the tide to rise to an unusual height, and surrounding the mill, cut off all communication with the land. The water at 11 A. M., coming in contact with a barrel of lime, set it on fire, and soon the whole building to the water's edge, was in flames. About 50 bushels of grain or meal were consumed.

We think it is by Chesterfield the advice is given: never to hold any one by the button, or the hand, in order to be heard out; for if people are unwilling to hear you, you had better hold your tongue, than them.

The Quebec Mercury says that despatch relating to the choice of a location for the seat of government, was brought by the last steamship, and rumors adds that the choice being left to the provincial government, has fallen upon Montreal.

It appears that the bill for abolishing capital punishment in New Hampshire, although it passed the House of Representatives, failed in the Senate.

Francis T. Shunk.—The late Greenburgh Argus contains a well written communication urging the claims of this gentleman for a nomination for Governor in 1844.

Moyamensing Weavers—More riots!
On last Monday about three hundred journeymen turned out and paraded the streets with fire arms and other weapons, intimidating those who have been working under the prices demanded. In some instances they destroyed property, and damaged webs in the loom, by throwing vitriol on them. They were kept out of the city property by the timely police arrangements of the Mayor. Their complaint is that their wages are not sufficient to support a single man, not to mention a family; that they are paid for their labor in orders on a storekeeper, between whom and the employer it is said there subsists an understanding to charge exorbitant prices for their commodities, and to divide the same; and lastly, that having earned their wages, they are compelled, even for this kind of payment, to wait for the space of a month. If this be true, they are certainly subject to great hardships, but this is no reason why they should wreak their vengeance upon those poor fellows who are compelled by their necessities to submit to it.

Capital punishment has not been abolished in New Hampshire, as was lately stated by several papers. Those who made the statement thought that a vote on a portion of the question, was the main question itself; that was not the fact. Some papers cravans can still be worn in the granite state, by those who are by law entitled to indulge in such a luxury.

Good.—The resolution introduced by our indefatigable member, Mr. KARNS, in structing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress, to use their exertions to have the fine imposed upon Gen. Jackson by Judge Hall, in 1815, reiterated, passed in the House of Representatives on the 10th. by a vote of 65 to 29.

Congress.
We learn from the Globe of the 10th that in the Senate the Judiciary Committee reported back the bill to indemnify Gen. Jackson for damages sustained by the discharge of his official duty, with an amended motion, altering the title to "A bill for the relief of General Jackson," and another amendment, (an entire substitute for the bill) placing the bill on the principle of a bill, or consideration for military service. Mr. Walker made a report against the contents of a majority of the committee. In the House of Representatives, Mr. Butts of Virginia moved articles of impeachment against President Tyler. The proposed impeachment was vetoed by the House—for the most part, by Democratic votes.

It is well for the President that there is a sufficient number of Democrats in the House to save him from the furious vengeance of the unprincipled leaders of the party that elected him, for there is no indignity or infamy that they would not inflict upon him for defeating their dishonest schemes.

Democratic State Convention.
The Democratic State Convention, friendly to Mr. Buchanan, held an afternoon session yesterday, and in the evening brought its labors to a close. The proceedings are lengthy and well got up. A resolution carefully worded, complimentary to the administration of Gov. Porter, met with an obstinate opposition from a few of the Delegates. Mr. Brewster, from Philadelphia made a speech in opposition to the resolution.—He was followed by Mr. Furney of Lancaster, who spoke with eloquence and effect in defence of the State administration. The yeas and nays were called for—and the resolution was adopted by a vote of 90 to 12. With three or four exceptions, the opposition came from Philadelphia.

Massachusetts.—The yeas, by a resort to the "broad seal policy," that has of late years been so useful to them in cheating the people, succeeded on Saturday last in electing Mr. D. P. King, Speaker of the House. Mr. K. received 176 votes. The Senate elected the Rev. Mr. Rogers, Chaplain.

Sale of pees.—Fourteen thousand dollars were realized the other day, from the sale of the pewen in the new Trinity Church at Buffalo, N. Y.

Earthquake.
A slight shock of an earthquake was felt at Columbia, S. C., on the night of the 4th inst., about half past 9 o'clock. The population of Rome, in 1841, says a journal of that city, amounted to 158,868. In 1832 there were only 136,269 inhabitants. Many men have been capable of doing a wise thing, more a cunning thing, but very few a generous thing.

Attempts at reform, when they fail, strengthen despotism; as he that struggles, tightens those cords he does not succeed in breaking.

Foundation.—The water rose so high in the Schuylkill, at Philadelphia, on Sunday night and Monday morning last, as to inundate the wharves above the dam, doing considerable damage.

The Penna Reporter says:
The Convention is in point of numbers and ability, one of the most respectable bodies of the kind that we have ever witnessed. The old, steadfast and unwavering friends of democracy are numbered among its members, and the zeal which they manifest in favor of the claims of the old Key stone and the nomination of her favorite son, is a sure index of the feeling of the great mass of the party on this interesting subject.

Massachusetts.—The yeas, by a resort to the "broad seal policy," that has of late years been so useful to them in cheating the people, succeeded on Saturday last in electing Mr. D. P. King, Speaker of the House. Mr. K. received 176 votes. The Senate elected the Rev. Mr. Rogers, Chaplain.
