the red coats of the English; but a Prus- man, the merchant, the coat sian was my horror. I devised, in all the alguarde in their that the stud ardor of my enthusiasm, how, by some fell tarelya abreast failed urch all, in swoop, I could rid my country of her ty- the had been tages to respect geuius at rants. If I could by ages of personal sla- honor withe. The house to which he had very have brought about the freedom of been conveyed was one of a friend; mod-France, her emancipation from foreign in- est, neat, retired. Its inhabitants were fluence and domination, I should have ac devoted to Carrel, and watched every cepted with rapture such a contract. Yet, movement with the most affectionate and those, sir, were moments of depression and unwearied interest. I had never seen Sec. 20 Thoplessness indred; such moments as nev- them before but I shall never forget their er return.' And then, looking round on dev to ness assiduity, and love to our muthe young and hopeful spirits who sur- tual and honered friend, rounded him. he ejeculated, with great Carrel had felt from the first that he was S MAX emphasis, 'Jamais, mes amis, jumass." - mortally wounded. His medical attendants in either house. 1.103 The effect was electrical: all present ex- sought to convince him to the contrary, and 1.1.1. cept myself, rose from their seats, and to animate him with hope. He was not, shouted 'Jamais!' 1000

$10

1-22

- 22.2

P.4. 14

- E

21.8

1.1

however, decoived by their intended kind-But this was not ordinarily the sort of ness or by their false predictions. For mainfluence exercised by Carrel over his par- uy hours he preserved an entire calmuess tisans. That influence was profligious; lof mind, and discoursed with more or but it was rather of a calm, reasoning, ess gravity as to the position of the remetaphysical character, than one of a di- publican party in France; its hopes, its dactic tendency. He was deeply read in chances, its true policy, and the measures classic lore; he was a profound and incom- it ought to persue. For a few more hours varable historian. And, as a logician, no he appeared to rally, and the public beman of his age could for a moment be pla- gan to hope that death might be averted. ced in competition with him. He was the But the change was a short one. His of the Treasury for information relative to the most gentlemanly tribune I ever met, and mind began to falter, and he evidently warehousing system. Mr Butler made a speech the nox populi to which he appealed was knew it; he made desperate efforts against in unswer to M. Adams on the question of General to the voice, not of the ignorant, but of the delerium which forced its way upon him, Jackson's fine. The consideration of the Excheeducated; not of the vulgar, but of elite of and talked sublimely even when he faller- quer scheme was resumed; Mr Underwood and science, learning, and independence. ed and fell back exhausted on his pillow. Mr Everett spoke in opposition to it. The next time I saw Carrel the events | Oh, now he strove with disease, contended of 1834 has transpired. Lyons had been against pain; demoniated now and then bombarded; St. Etienne and other places over the arch fiend; and seemed, shall I attacked; Paris liad been the scene of say with rebellion ? no, with resolution to bloodshed and rapine; martial law had decide that he could not die. Carrel was been established; and the enthusiastic re- not a religious man; unhappily, far from it. publicans, who had all acted contrary to But his last hours were not satisfactory to his counsels, had been destroyed. It has himself, or to those whose opinions on that often been said, and with great truth, that subject he had rejected. Many incoherent whereas the revolution of 1789 produced expressions, but uttered in his own loftiest disrolution of the mould rejoice at the a whole army of great spirits and master style, escaped him, which proved that the minds, that of 1830 only produced Carrel things of another world had at last pre-sed and Theirs, and both of these were once themselves on his attention. He prayed OUTRAGES OF THE KENSING. co-editors of the National. When I saw 'for a bath.' 'I shall recover in a bath.' Carrel at the last named period of 1834, his he said. Jules Clequet directed the bath heart fainted within him; net for himself, to be prepared; but it was too long before for though life had its charms, death had it came for the impatient spirit of poor Car-no terrors for him; not for his friends, for rel. Again and again he sighed for, he the details of the outrageous proceedings though he loved them dearly, he loved his demaned the bath. I am dressed in a robe of the Kensington Weavers on Wednesday country more; and he even rejoiced, when of fire.' he said; and raising himself in his they wisely, as well as magnanimously. bed he added, the fire must be quenched ! defended a cause with which he associa- Jules put out the fire."

ted all that was great and glorious in the At length the bath arrived, the water

DAILY MORNING POST. TES. PHILLIPS & WHE B. SHITE, SDITORS AND PROPERTORS MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 1843. See First Page.

TWEN FY-SEVENTH CONGRESS. JANUARY 12, 1813. No business of any importance was transacted

In the Senate Mr Huntington reported unfavor ably upon seve 1 bills for fishing bounties. Benton made another long speech against the Bankrupt law. A memorial was received from Greenough, the sculptor, asking that his statue of Washington The bill continuing in force the several acts for marks. It will be seen that the six active and "He occupied the town for two days the relief of insolve at debtore, was taken up and Banks whose statement are annexed have after this time, delivered it over again to may be removed to the west end of the capitol .-

In the House a resolution was offered by Mr. Kennedy and adopted, cilling upon the secretary

A cause for rejoicing: "Those evening bells, those evening bells, How many a tale their music tells On the last day of the year at midnight, the bells in Columbus, Ohio, were ringing to an nonnce the death of thirteen of the Banks of that state. Few states have suffered more from a flue tuating and unsound currency than Ohio, and it dissolution of the primary cause of all their pecuniary embarrassments. TON WEAVERS-ATTEMPT ON THE LIFE OF THE SHERIFF! The Pennsylvanian of Thursday gives evening: The weavers of K nsington on Monday, des.

royed a parcel of material in the houses

Court,

ond advent.

tellectual!

From Texas.

part of yesterday and w day in arranging and maturing a Bill to ro Gen. Canalizo. This latter sent off by House for the last two days. No election threats from the military until driven from on last Sunday evening; and the dise will take place for some days. To BE.

Baltimore Banks .- The Baltimore A- News has arrived from the west coast of merican contains a detailed statement of the occupation of Montercy (a town in the affairs of the Bauks in that city and re- California) by Commodore Jones of "U of $1,248,000, while their aggregate of pears that he took the town in consequence notes in circulation is only $7,06.556 -- be- of news that he heard of war being declaing nearly two dollars in specie for one in red by the U.S against Mexico. circulation.

years, is anticipated.

insolvent laws of the State of Marsland Santa Anna's creatures. have been entirely repeated and annulled by expected to declare itself in favor of the the passage of the bankrupt law, and that a new revolution against the Congress. discharge under them, granted under applications a ade since the bankrupt law went into effect, will not avail to exempt the person of a defendant in whose favor it has been granted from arrest upon a capias ad satisfaciendum issued out of the Circuit

Progress of Miller Insanity -In one of

baming of a Death of Francis S. Key, Eng. form a con With feelings of the most profound r nilar move we announce the death of Francis S. -State of Tuebla, headed Esq., an event which occurred in this day in arranging and maturing a Bill to re-duce the price of the public printing. A Bill has been agreed upon and passed to-day. It reduces the prices twenty five per cent, and the number of Journals fifty per cent. To-motrow morning, the Bill will be sent to the Senate. There has nothing else of importance been before either sidfering themselves to be (since, without contact, and the senate. There has nothing else of importance been before either sidfering themselves to be (since, without contact, and the senate. There has nothing else of importance been before either sidfering themselves to be (since, without contact, and the senate. There has nothing the senatives of the people, and that they contact to the senate before either sidfering themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either sidfering themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before either themselves to be (since, without contact to the senate before themselves to be (since, without contact the senate before the senate before themselves to be (since, without contact the senate before themselves to be (since, without the senate before the senate before themselves to be (since, without the senate before the senate before themselves to be (since, without the senate before themselves to be (since, without the senate before themselves to be (since, without the senate before on last Wednesday evening, at half pa be sent to the Senate. There has nothing would continue in their duties, without mourning to a large circle of attac else of importance been hefore either suffering themselves to be frightened by friends. He was attacked with pley purely military movement, and secretly his life in the short space of three days.

an aggregate of specie funds in their vaults the authorities. Upon explanation, it ap-not state—and pursued his profession the . The Mexican General-in-chief of the forces against Texas gives information of News has just reached us from Albany a body of 3,000 Texans having marched profession. that the ice in the Hudson is broken up. _____ from Bexar towards the Rio Grande. He writes that he awaits them. and, of course, The snow has entirely disappeared, and a assures the Government that he will not flood, such as has not been seen in many let a man of them escape. Thiogs may go the other way, however.

Canpeachy still holds out against this The Bankrupt Law-Important Dis Government. A reinforcement of 6 hunussion .- The Circuit Court of the United dred men left this on the 15th inst., for States, Chief Justice Taney and Judge the above place. This is quite an unpop-Heath on the berch, have decided that the gent Analy and another the Republic, except glowing strains, which would have how The garrison of this city is momentarily

CIRCUS AND THEATRE, In front of Captain Broadhurt's, On Penn Street.

G. R. WHITE & Co.

Market street

1N the Orphan's Court of said County

the matter of the administration account

E. Estep, Surviving administrator of Jo

tors. By the Court-THOMAS FARLEY, CI'F.

ROBERT WOODS,

ROBERT ROBB

seph Estep, dec'd, And now to wit: January 5, 1843. On 4TH NIGHT OF THE ENGAGEMENT OF THE FRENCH HERCULES, MONS. GUILLOT, Le Lion Hero, who is re-engaged for 2 nights only. Monday Evening, January 16, 1843.

Mr. Key was born on the 1st of Au 1779, at Terra Rubra, his patrimonia. tate, in Carroll county, but, which, at time formed a portion of Frederick ct ty. At the time of his death he was i sixty fourth year. He settled in the for a number of years. Two or it years since, he removed from the D.s. to his native place, and combined the suits of the agriculturist, with those a

Mr. Key is well known as the au of the spirited and beautiful National S - The Star Spaugled Banaer --- and, j had no other claim to the admiration respectful remembrance of posterity, done, would make his name to surviv long as Ameri an freedom shall his The enthusiasm of the patriot, comb with the inspiration of the poet, ena him to express the love of country the purest men of the most renownedd of the land of eloquence and song

FOR SALE .-- The Storehouse and Los Diamond alley and the Dlamond, in the corn Piltsburgh For terms apply to M Dafzell on the p es, or John Soyder, Cashier. Rec 30-1 Pittsburgh Lard Oil Manufacto from him. Carrel was a man of good society, of Beianger, the, songester; and there was and if possible, subdue the rictous and disorderly his manner, his air, his gait, that all ap- and there was Arago, the astronomer, and; early hour the Sheriff with a large posse collected proached him with pleasure and left him in one word, all that Paris could send forth at the Commissioners' Hall proceeded to a small poltronn, who urged on others to aggres. was modest, the rites were simple. Flow armed with clubs, stones and fre arms, as soon a sion and then placed himself behind a ers, tears and words of homage and love, the posse approached thom, they were assailed by shield. His conversational powers were ottered faltering accents and in broken a volley of stones and several discharges of fire of the first order, and his patience towards sentences, were the offsprings made at his arms. A number of the pulice were struck and inferiors proved the sweetness of his dispo- shrine, and men of all parties mourned and injured. Amour them the Sheriff who was sesition. I have heard him listen with kind | said, 'We have lost a brother.' Reader ! ness and attention to the absurdi les of men if ever you visit Paris, go to the small kept possession of the place up to 11 o'clock. Eight who were really unworthy to become his hamlet of St. Mande, and throw a few flowlacqueve, and so long as he believed them ers on his bonored grave.

100 cution, and even death, which rivetted the ed by the French government to be con- the magistrate.

to be honest men he would repress his sa- A large Man - A person named Lewis Cornetire. But how great were those powers of lius, used at Milford, Pike county, Pa., on Monsatire when he perceived that his oppo-neute or his supporters were d shonest. Then would he indulge in his keenest, his interview of that village has furnished the following as his dimensions, taken by his physician, after he was haid out—Height 6 f.2 i., circumference of waist most withering criticism; and those who 6f. arm, above ethow 2 f. 2 i, body 8f. 2 i, heard or read them, felt that the critic was wrist 1f. 3., thigh 4f. 2 i., calf of leg 2.7 i., ankle ly increased in Allegheny County, and many of not indulging in personal ill-humor, but 1 f. 7 i., weight, when dead, 6851 lbs., and pre-was only insisting on consistency and vir- vious to his sickness he had weighed 720 lbs. 01 ue in public men. A Sign .- We shall run Mr. Clay for the Pre- incrman. But alas! one day it was whispered in sidency, if he is nominated by the National Con-

Paris that Carrel had fought a duel near vention .- [Ohio State Journal. St. Maude, and that he had been despe- Aye, do, and the democracy will run him for rately wounded by Emile de Girardin, the Salt River with such speed that he will be there was frozen to death on the 31st ultimo. He had Lashand of the fair, beautiful, witty, and a day in advance of his shadow.--[Portland A-accomplished Delohane Gay The attraction accomplished Delphine Gay. The city | was all consternation. Chateaubriand wept like a father-for he lowed Carrel as a tatives comprise 65 members, of whom 37 are child. Royer Collard, with his gray hairs tarmers, 14 awyers, o physical states, o metchands, child. Royer Collard, with his gray hairs tarmers, 1 blacksmith, and 1 tanner. The farmers, 14 lawyers, 6 physicians, 6 merchants, and his venerable aspect, heaved a sigh so Senate comprises 16 tarmers and 4 lawyers.

as no ordinary being. The great and the age, the youngest 25. Oldest member of the Sengood of all parties rushed to the office of ate 57; youngest 31. the National, of which he was the directing spirit. The news was too bad to be believed. 'No, Carrel cannot die,' said Ar- fall of rain, there was a loud explosion of thunder fore seven o'clock, lest evening, during a brisk ago; 'that cannot be.' And really it seems preceded by vivid lightning .--- [Madisonian. ed to all to be impossible. Young, ardent, Was this the explosion of Butts' Grand Im-enlightened, philosophical, pulite, well edpeachment humbno? ucated, learned, handsome, with a giaut head, but a yet more giant heart; no-no-Armand Carrel could not die! But he did: and his last years were melancholy indeed. He had fought a duel against his real con- to the expediency of passing some law to victions, because he had not fought for a confiscate the estates of traitors and eneprinciple, but with a mere man: For what mies to the republic. The latter would did it matter to the world, to truth, to Fiance, to any one, what were the notions of Emile de Girardin; and, save his sweet the bible. and yet splendid wife, who would have shed one tear over his grave? But how one of the great spirits of the day, one of together by an election fracas.

the luminaries of the age, one of those bright burning comets which occasionally visit our monotonous globe. And the world could not spare him. When I heard the news that Carrel was | twelve years is 28,700.

wounded. I hastened to the spot where the sad event had transpired; all Paris The neat proceeds of the Catholic Fair, Seemed to be proceeding in the same die recently held in Savannah, Geo, amount-land he loved so well. But his heart faint- was conveyed to it, and Carrel, unaided, the househ ld furniture. On Tuesday afternoon, • ed for what he regarded the cause of pro-gress.' He thought that cause comprom-ed, and would have fallen had not his named Hickey and took some material partly ised by the headstrong ardor of some, and friends caught him, and assisted him to worked, from his toom; dragged it across the by the foolish and absurd plots and plans of tho bath. "I am in a robe of fire," said also assaulted and beat his w fe, and transled up, others. Carrel relied upon, and appealed the rest and the plane of the bath. others. Carrel relied upon, and appealed this great spirit as he was placed therein; on one of his children. A warrant was resterday to, the higher portion of the middling clas but in a few moments he sunk back, his laken out before Alderman Potts of the Norther ses, and to the men of his own age and hed reposed on his chest, and he appeared Libertics, and placed in the hands of Nathan Lustanding. Carrel thoungt that France could to be approaching his last moments. Oh! kens, constable of the 6th ward, N L for the arbe reasoned out of error and reasoned into with what tearful and broken hearted any Thos Lynch. The constable in attempting to rest of one of the perpetrators of the outrage named wisdom. Un loubtedly his writings con- liety did his friends watch him Once more take him was most outrageously beaten by a large tained some of the ablest defences of what his spirit made a desperate effort. "So my body of them and only escaped their tury by jumpare styled 'popular principles,' ever yet bed!' he exclamed, and he was soon con-presented to the world; and there was a veyed thither. But his mind could nolong deliberateness a trankness a decision. a triumpher mertality triumphed over intell. deliberateness, a trankness, a decision, a triumph, mortality triumphed over intel. the office that he hid called out for vitriol to burn manliness, and a preparedness to defend lect, his reason was at the mercy of his the material. During the whole of yesterday af them, at all risks and perils; and in spite of, body, and heaving a deep sigh he expired. ternoon there was considerable excitement in the nay in the teeth of, imprisonment, personal transformed the structure of the remains of Carrel were not allow. district, the rioters having threat used to burn or the remains of Carrel were not allow. tear down the prosecutor's house and also that of attention and secured the respect even of veyed to Paris. He had died without the The shortf was in the ground and desired them those why, like myself, different most walls, in a small hamlet, and to that cem . to desist from their purpose and go home, to which try his ashes were conveyed. There was they gave but little or no local. Ho took meas

"most gentlemanly habits, and of easy and Hugo, the dramatist; and ther was David, spirit that prevailed. constitutional politeness; when he entered the sculptor; and Chateaubriand, the PS-114 o'clock P M.-During last night the the room there was a charmfulness about Christian piblosopher, statesman, and poet; excitement in Konsington was intense. At an interest with regret. He was no ranter, he was no of t lent, wit, and genious. The grave where a large body of the others were posted, 17th ult. verely wounded about the head and breast. The police gave way and were dispersed. The rioters or ten of them were taken to the watch house.

The Sheriff was conveyed to his lodgings at the Merchant's Hotel, where he lies in an exceeding ly precarious situation.

Effect of Temperance. - Brooke county, in Virginta, has not a solitary tavern in A-[Balt. Sun Since the commencement of the temperance reform, the number of solitary (averns have great) the bar rooms in the city have an aspect of solitude that would be pleasing to the oyes of Zim-

Frozen to Death - The Greensburgh Argus says that a young man by the name of McGrew le't Adamsburgh somewhat intoxicatud, and perished from the effects of the cold. He was deat

ARKANSAS.-The Arkaneas House of Represen- and dumb.

A Difficult Surgical Operation .- Dr. deep, that it was evident he regarded him The oldest member of the House is 60 years of ation upon a patient who has been afflicted with a malignant tumor, in size somewhat larger than a hen's egg, located upon the Thunder and Lightning .- A few minutes be- under jaw. In order to reach it, it was necessary to lay open the jaw, so removing the skin, and dissecting from the point of the chin nearly to the ear. Afer this was accomplished, and the arteries carefully secured, the operator applied the saw, and effective men) had marched for Mexico, that portion of the jaw-bone to which the and, when last heard from, were within a tumor was attached was successfully re-

The Moyamensing Weavers.—A large A party of volunteers from Victoria, un-body of weavers of Moyamensing; met in stroved the Mexican settlement of New and finestone on it. It the about 8 miles from Pitcheller and finestone on it. It the about 8 miles from Pitcheller En.

different was the case of Carrel! He was was recently in the Hands of a mob, brought should be held, (which was fixed for 1st an people residing in its vicinity. evening,) the result of which we have not Many planters were turning their atten- with all kinds of over stores, can walk through the wet tion to the culture of sugar and cotton with streets with thin shoes, and have their feet kept perfectvet learned.

> There is a rumor afloat that young Spen. cer who fled from this city about a year since, to Texas, when first heard from was on board the schooner Antonio.

the school districts of Hillsborough, New REE Hampshire, the whole population have become believers in the doctrine of Miller,closed their district schools, and taken their children home to get prepared for the sec-Mons Guillot, the Lion Hero, will then appear in his wondeeful feats as the VENICIAN BALANCER. The Lion will, by the force of his wet and jaws alone su pend in front of him, several inches clear of the ground Winter Dundyism .- The St. John, New a table having three men upon it. Brunswick Herald says, some of our young blonds of the city, are covering their out.

weighing 200 pounds ward man A la Miemae, blanketed and mocchus, the God of Wine, or the Drunken Clown .casoned. They want nothing but the Topagon in which to draw the belle Squaw, to time on his treth. Promenade of Achilles, a feat never attempted by any nake them perfect Indians. How very iner performer, viz. attaching over 200 lbs. to his hair ad sustaining that enormous wright several minutes. TRIUMPH OF HERCULES, or a lift of 2.00 weight THE GUN CARRIAGE, or Young Greek's Exced Who shall be Governor of Massachu-setts depends on the contested seats in the House. Who shall be Governor of Massachu-

In the New Orleans papers we have la-Song Mr. Barry, tor accounts from Texas-Galvoston dates Mr. W. Nichols on 3 lionses as Colossus of Rhodeso the 26th, and Houston to the 24th; but these does not appear to be much news of hy Mr. Haudin. MONSIEUR GUILLOT, THE LION HERO, WE Mr. Camayel, minister from France to then exhibit his wonderful strength in a fair pull a ain the Republic (f Texas, had arrived at Gal. two Horses and break a rope after it has defied the veston, on his way to the seat of Govern-sirength of two Horses. THE COMIC WALTZ -- The Lion will extend him self upon the earth, and rise from this position with two Mr. Reily, late minister to the U. States, menattached to his aboulders, without assistance of his bands or arms, and waiz with them around the Arena.

eached the seat of Government on the To conclude with a FAVORITE FARCE The President of the Republic had is-For Rent, sued a proclamation abrogating, after the THE dwelling house, known as the Ciinton Collage, 15th of Fubruary next a furmer providence. I stinated on the lower bank Allegheny city, fronting 15th of February next, a former proclama-Bank lane, possession given on the 1st day of April next tion exempting from duty French wines mported into the country. jan 16-d3w

The Congress transacted no business $10 Reward. importance. The Senate has passed a STO'EN from the stable of the subscriber living three commended for its cure, have never derived any the subscriber the during on annotice articles. Smiller west of Brownaville in Washington co. on the rial leads until i used some of your train valuable sidered its vote by which a bill was pass . The a ove reward will be given for the horse and ed abolishing the tariff of duties, and de, thief, or for dollars for either delivery of the to the subscription of the to the to claring the ports of Texas free, and post by suspected that the horse was taken in that direc poned the further consideration of the sub- 1 jan 16--3w. JOSEPH BUFFINGTON ject to the 30th December. It was suppo-To Let.

sed that the bill could not pass. The sed that the bill could not pass. The House by resolution, had again instructed Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire be rented low to a good tenant. Possession given on the Committee on poreign relations to sugart herenied low to a good lenant. Possession given on the into the expediency of annexing the Re-public to the United States. Orders has at Also, a dwelling iouse in Allegheny eity containing also been introduced to inquire into the ex-quire as above. Jan 14-31, pediency of confiscating the estates of trai-Warren of Boston has performed an oper- i tors and enemies to the Government, Bud ALLEGHENY COUNTY, ss. to establish a Sabbathor day of rest throughout the Republic. On the 18th ultimo a Messenger arrived at Washington from the Wacoe village, with news that the representatives of 21 above named account referred to auditors to adjust and tribes of Indians had arrived at that place, distribute the funds-Che. Von Bonhorst. Robi, Woods where they were awaiting the arrival of and Lobi. Robb, Esqs. auditors. commissioners to conclude a treaty of The Auditors above named will meet at the office of

The army (numbering eight hundred 20th day of February 1843, at 3 o'cleek F. M., for the purpose of their appointment ian 14-3t.

few miles of Laredo, which town they hoped to surprise, as it contained but twen-ty or thirty Mexican soldiera. A party of volunteers from Victoria, un-body of weavers of Moyamensing, means a stroved the Mexican settlement of New and linestone on it. It the about 8 miles from rules the market house, in the south western section of the Destrict, where they agreed in consequence of the settlers having re-office at Harris' Intelligence office, No 9, 5th street, or of the subscriber on the premises. Dested wanifested hostility to the Tex-office of the subscriber on the premises.

LADIES OVER SHORS .- The Ladies can now do away Many planters were turning their attengood promise of success.

From the Madisonian. Revolution. . (Extract from a letter received in this city.)

/ Oil, warranted to burn at any temperat jual to the best winter strained Sperm Dil, wi s offensive quatities, and one third chenper, ulactured by the subscriber at the old stand, Thi nearly opposite the Post Officejan 4.1845

> R. Fee's Writing Acaden SMITHFIELD St, between Fourth st, and Dia alley, and hearly opposite Mr. Barker's watch Ladies Class from 2 to 4 P. !

Terms reduced to suit the times-Persons wish mier will please call doring Class hours jan 4-8 hhds. N. O. Sugar, this day received per stemmer Vork, and for sale by J. G. & A. GORDO dec 10. No. 12 Water of BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

I will sell for cash or harter, FIVE HOU Three of them are brick and two frame, frames are well calculated for business poines; t close to the Court house. They will be still togeth parately to suit purchasers. For furth ignire on the premises of jan 7 1843-11M JAS, MORRIS

Headache! Headache! Dr. BRODIE'S ANTI DYSPEPTIC FILL A P.E. now known to thousands as a most extraor ry remedy for this affliction as wall as the in the fact of their curing DYSPEPSIA. Will auffering only ask among their friends if they have cnown of the positive effects of said Pills, and H not hear them more warmly praised (and deser no) then any other, then let them not buy them. hese few remarks, all faury or Imagination is exclu and nothing will be said of the'r merits at any but what can be fairly proved by respectable membe

c community. Read the following certificate given by a respec citizen of Allogheny city, and nitested byshoe of the es of the Court of Common Piras of Allogheny et Autzoneny Ciry, January 9, 154

DR. BRODIE. Dear Sir-I have for a number of years past her icted with a severe and almost constant Bendack rising from derangement of stomach and bowels an

J. B. TURNER. I am acquainted with Mr. Turner, I have no h tion in certifying that I consider the statebrase.

perfect and entire confidence. HUGH D For sale, Wholesale and Retail at the Brod BUGH DAVIS Establishment Pittsburgh Pa; and by all authorize gents throughout the Union . Af'e'r city Jan 9 1845 Mn 13-- 1y

CORN-On hand, a few hartels old yellow t which will be sold low, apply to jan 7 ISAAC GRUSE, Liberty 1 BUCK WHEAT'-Received from Harniony 15 barrels Buckwheat Flour, mitable ISAAC CRUBE In store, Family Flour, a superior article for take rung subscriber has just received his autout supp CIIS. VON BONHORST. Landreth's Garden Seeds, consis wing kinds-ali of the last years aron & marra

NE,	Egg Plant,	Parmip,
	Eudive,	Peas,
	Kale,	Permer,
	Pumpkin,	Biochali.
$\gamma = 2^{-1} + 1^{-1}$		Berneak
delon,	Rhubarh,	Cathlenge
•• `	Salasfy,	Carrot.
um,	Cautiflower,	Silleon,
•	Celery,	Olra,
C.F.,	Curlos Ciera	Ogien,
•	Cucumber,	Partiery
	Mustard, (white a	ad brown)
A.

Together with a variety of Pot & Sweet here and how ly dry; can wear light shoes without having their corns seeds;

palo them; and cau have their shors wear twice as long as ever, if they will use the ceebrated Ottor Taxin, which ers and others will be received and promptly slicad will make leather water proof, and render it as plable and soft as kid. It's an article well worth their notice, fan 11

To LET.—These two stories of the offender. Why is x drunken man like an Indian? New from Mexico (city) to-day is very interesting. Gen. Gutierrez, of the State of Recause he is in gin. New from Luis, has pronounced for the disards. New from Mexico (city) to-day is very prime article of a very prime article of a

ien alne

Mingh. Nasturti

Tomato Tornip, Sec. Sec. de

87 Orders for Seeds, Shrubs; Trees, &c. from Barde

Ro. 184 Liberty, Land of What and one which they will all value highly, as soon as they

A bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives of Texas, to inquire inmoved seem to have been established long ago, by

The town of St. John, New Brunswick, to remain quiet until another meeting peatedly manifested hostility to the Tex- jan 13

Emigration in the United States. - The annual number of emigrants arriving annually into the United States for the last Pretton; the poor, the wealthy, the trades- led to $3,000.

Because he is in gus. San Luis, has pronounced for the dissolu-ISAAC CRUSE, Liberty st. Jan 5 3w