Wilson's pills. That so great a number of diseases, and sometimes apparently opposite ones, in which I have used these pills, should be cuted more readily by them than by any other remedy, may at first seem strange and contradictory, but why it is so is as clear to my mind as that a great many persons should become thirsty from as many different i. Causes, and yet all require that common and greatest of all bleasings, water to quench their i hirst. In conclusion, it is due the reputation of the medicine and the public, to say decidedly and unconditionality, that Pittsburgh.
