DAILY MORNING POST.

JANUARY 27, 1843.

EXCITING QUESTIONS!

Who threw the first water at that fire?

Who is the author of "Old Tips Big Broom?"

Notwithstanding the person who put the spike in the chamber of the Vigilant has never been discovered, the intense excitement has died away, and the minds of our citizens have once more become satisfied.

But no sooner had this calm become general through all the ramifications of society, than others equally exciting are brought forward. "Who threw the first water," seems to have stirred up a kangaroo of no uncommon magnitude. The Vigilant boys claim that honor positively, so does the Allegheny and, so does the "Duger" We can not award it to one, without giving offence to the others, and above all, we are afraid of the Duseresse. They're an awful set.

The next and most important question on the carpet is: 'Who is the author of 'Old Tip's Big Broom?' For several days past the public mind has been deeply agitated on the subject. In the District Court on Tuesday, and Wednesday, the ingenuity of Messrs. McCandless and Baird was baffled in their efforts to cheit from the witnesses, any information that might lead to the discovery of the great unknown. Mr Saml Hubley did not know—neither did John Lucky! Nor did any of the numerous witnesses who were examined on the occasion. It is probably useless for us to enlarge upon the subject—it will remain a mystery, until a whig is found honest enough to pay Mr. Irons for his share of the viands furnished at the celebrated jubilee.

Robbery on board the S. B. Little Ben Franklin.—We are informed by the clerk of the Little Ben Franklin, that a man named Sanders, a Virginian, was robbed on the passage up, of the enormous sum of five thousand dollars. Immediately on the discovery of the robbery, all the passengers and hands on board were shut up in the ladies' cabin and searched, but no money was found. It was supposed that a man who landed at Marietta was the robber, as he had ample opportunity to take the money. Mr Sanders left Wheeling in pursuit of the supposed robber.

It appears that Mr. S. and the person alluded to were very intimate, (though strangers to each other,) and had made up a plot to cajole a lady passenger into their room, through the window. They did not, however, effect their purpose.

No Mail.—The Mail from the east did not arrive yesterday, and of course we have no New York or Philadelphia papers.

THORN'S TEA BERRY TOOTH WASH—A New Invaluable Remedy.—The extreme beauty of the Teeth, their indispensable use and the frequency of their decay, has led to many inventions for their preservation; yet how to pre serve them in a state of health an perfect beauty, to the latest periods of existence, was entirely unknown until the discovery of the above invaluable preparation. It forms a pure tincture composed of vegetable ingredients, and is possessed of the most delicious odor. It eradicates tartar from the teeth, removes specks of incipient decay, polishes and preserves the enamel, to which it gives a pearl like whiteness, and, from its disinfecting properties, possesses the virtues of giving sweetness to the breath.

As an Anti Scorbutic, the Gums are restored in to transcendent health, scurvy is eradicated from them, a healthy action and redness is induced, which offers to the notice of the medical practitioner indubitable evidence of their healthful state. It has been examined and used by several of the best physicians of this city, who have no hesitation in recommending it as an excellent wash for the Teeth, Gums etc.

Among the recommendations to the above are the following:

Having tried Dr "Thorn's" Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant Tooth Wash we now in use.

Pittsburgh, Sep. 15, 1842 DAVID HUNT, Dentist

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentifrices in use. Being in a liquid form, it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable. J. F. THRUETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extreme ly pleasant dentifrice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.
