DAILY MORNING POST.

JANUARY 28, 1843.

Tippecanoe Case—Verdict of the Jury.—We are pleased to announce to our anxious readers that the jury have returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Irons, the gentleman who purchased the beef, poultry and other articles, for the great whig feast at Tuffs & O'Conner's warehouse. They award Mr. I. 787 dollars!

Apology.—We yesterday announced to our readers that to-day's Post would contain a review of the Tippecanoe case, with the remarks of Mr McCandless. Owing to our anxiety to give as full and complete a report as possible, we are compelled to postpone its publication until Monday.—Look out for a rich treat.

A screw loose some place.—We have heard of no robberies in this city or vicinity for some weeks past. This is certainly a favorable indication, in as much as this is the season when the light fingered gentry are apt to be busy in their avocation.

Ahead of all the other Dailies.—The Chronicle of yesterday gives the particulars of a Fire in Rose Township, which might have been copied from the Post near a week ago!

Reason.—The Sun states that Mr. Grant, who insulted the members of the Vigilant at the late fire, was laboring under an attack of illness, and the fear of being disturbed, by an unusual noise, induced the offering of refreshments outside the house.' This will be satisfactory no doubt.

The Post contains a report of the testimony in the Tippecanoe case. The report is very imperfect, and the reporter makes the witnesses speak nonsense. Who was the reporter? He ought to be cobbed.—Sun.

The Sun man must have been cornered when he penned this. The report was rather imperfect we confess, but our apology is, that 'the reporter' found it impossible to be present at the whole of the trial, but was there only a part of the last day having to depend on the notes of one of the lawyers for the other good things that were said and done on the occasion.

It is said that the man who was robbed on the steamer Little Ben Franklin, an account of which we gave yesterday, was not robbed at all; but adopted the highly popular mode of swindling his creditors.

The unfortunate girl whom we noticed yesterday morning as having attempted to commit suicide on Wednesday evening, has so far recovered as to be sensible of her situation. She is indignant at the persons by whose exertions her life has been saved, and declares that the next time she takes laudanum, its effects will not be baffled by a stomach pump.

Accident.—A woman slipped on the ice yesterday morning, opposite the 3d Presbyterian church and broke her leg. We did not hear her name.

The Gazette thinks favorably of W. Cost Johnson's plan of relieving the states by the general Government issuing two hundred millions of paper money, and predicts that this plan, or something like it, must be adopt d before long!

For the Post.

"CIGARS."

Messrs Editors:—It has been hinted by the friends of the Smithfield Grocer that the cigars were not of the quality called half Spanish, but that they were some of Tuttle's la Normas So that the overplus funds in the city Treasury will not cover the cost; and as the Marquis was the fortunate candidate for city council, would it not be magnanimous and just of him to appropriate the half dollar he made by conveying a man last summer in a wheelbarrow to Scott's field, to the payment in full of the Grocer's bill! I wish it to be particularly understood that this Marquis De La Fayette is not the nation's guest of old, but the city porter of late. By the by, if the Grocer had been fortunate enough to have lived in the East Ward, he might have had his cigars gratis from that coon who had his head examined on the night of the Mayor's election.

DEPARTURES.

Little Ben Franklin, Wesco', Cin.
Montgomery, Gregg, Cincinnati.
Cutter, Collins, Cincinnati.
Herschel, Allen, Brownsville.
Cella, Bowman, Brownsville.
Belmont, Poe, Wheeling.

CRIME.—Stealing a loaf of bread when you are hungry.

Honesty.—Getting in debt and going through the bankrupt law.

Degrading in the extreme.—Working at some honest trade for a living.

A Proper Pride.—Living on one's rich friends.

Doing Well.—Selling one's self for life, at a good price.

A Great Scamp.—One who is too poor to pay little debts contracted for the necessaries of life.

A worthy Man.—One who screws the widow and orphan out of their last cent, because it is justly due.

A Good Wife.—One whose power is so fairly established that her better half never thinks of disputing it.

A Bear Good Husband.—One who spends all his leisure time from home, and so don't interfere with his wife's love of solitude.

We never love heartily but once, and that is our first love; the inclinations that succeed, are less involuntary.

Religion ought to be left in her native simplicity, rather than hang her ears with counterfeit pearls.

Auction Sales.

LOTS AT PUBLIC AUCTION.—Will be sold on Tuesday the 31st January next at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the house of Wm. Greenfield, in the village on Beallsville, Washington co, Pa, thirty six building lots in that village—which is becoming a place of importance, as the great National Road from Cumberland to Wheeling, intersects the road from Pittsburgh to Brownsville. This will be a chance for Teamsters, Mechanics and others—terms of sale which will be accommodating. Said lots are about a stone's throw from the national road and in the centre of the village.

THORN'S TEA BERRY TOOTH WASH—A New Invaluable Remedy.—The extreme beauty of the Teeth, their indispensable use, and the frequency of their decay, has led to many inventions for their preservation; yet how to preserve them in a state of health an pristine beauty, to the latest periods of existence, was entirely unknown until the discovery of the above invaluable preparation. It forms a pure tincture composed of vegetable ingredients, and is possessed of the most delicious odor. It eradicates tartar from the teeth, removes spots of incipient decay, polishes and preserves the enamel, to which it gives a pearl-like whiteness, and, from its absorbing properties, possesses the virtue of giving sweetness to the breath.

As an Anti Scorbutic, the Gums also share in its transcendent powers; Scurvy is eradicated from them, a healthy action and redness is induced, which offers to the notice of the medical practitioner indubitable evidence of their healthful state. It has been examined and used by several of the best physicians of this city, who have no hesitation in recommending it as an excellent wash for the Teeth, Gums, etc.

Among the recommendations to the above are the following:

Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant Tooth Washes now in use.

Pittsburgh Sep. 15, 1842 DAVID HUNT, Dentist.

I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best deutrifices in use. Being in a liquid form, it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable. J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.

The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extremely pleasant dentifrice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.
