Their wondrous power is o'er! We cannot be persuaded. To try their spells once more. Our wisdom now is scotting What our fathers deemed & boonj Yet for the parted glory That framed the dreams of old. Where are the fairy legions That peopled vale and grove, And overspread carth's regions With strange etherial love? The flower neir beauty haunted Are blowing gaily still; But time hath disenchanted The meadow and the rill. There's not a child who listens When their magic tale is told, Where is the high aspiring That the star-watcher knew, Born of the pure desiring For the holy and the true? The faith that never halted Heaven's starry page to read,

And framed a dream exalted Unto a Prophet's creed, Who now would seek the planets, The future to unfold? Who, as the grave astrologer, Revive the dreams of old?

Where is the kindred spirit, With weary endless quest, Still hoping to inherit Easth's riches, and be blest? No more beside his fornace The alohymist may bend, No more in lonely sternness His secret labors tend.

The worlds bright clouds of morning Have melled in her noon.

The dreams of old have faded,
