IX MORNING POST.

FEBRUARY 3, 1843.

Robbed,-We learn from the Sun that Mr. L. T. Uptin was robbed of a pocket book containing $15 and other valuable papers. A man named Lawrence, who is said to be a brother of the Lawrence who some years ago fired a pistol at General Jackson, was arrested on suspicion.

The Chronicle, in its impotent ravings about the City Printing, sets down our circulation at 300. We would just remark that our regular subscribers exceed that number, exclusive of our daily sales! The Chronicle says its own circulation is 1500. Will any one believe that a paper with such a patronage, would be so anxious to obtain a hundred dollar job, as to bid 33 per cent. lower for it than any of its competitors.

Mr. Washington's Lecture. The hall of the Wirt Institute was filled with a large and intelligent audience on Tuesday night last, on the occasion of the lecture of Reade Washington Esq. Other engagements prevented our attendance, but we are assured that the efforts of Mr. W. were entirely worthy his eminent talents, and that his lecture was fraught with instruction, and evinced great research and depth of thought. It was received with unequivocal marks of favor and satisfaction by all who listened to it.

Where did he stop .- An innocent look. ing countryman, but poorly clad, without money and without friends,-and about half tore, (we mean spiritually, as well as literally,) was seen wandering about on Wodnesday afternoon, begging for a nights' shelter in a store, shop, or any place out of 30th day of January, A. D. 1843 the cold, which was denied him. If he 'did'ut go home till morning,' we would not give much for all that's I ft of him now, as that was the severest night that has been expenienced here for some time.

Snow .- There is about as much snow on the ground as would do for Queen Mab's sleigh-if she had one.

"Them Cigars."-The controversy has closed. What comes next?

If any person has lost any spoons they can call at the Mayor's office.

More rumors .- It is rumored at Hard risburgh that if Judge Parsons goes to A N ORDINANCE relative to the H harf Master. Marietta bk. Demand Philadelphia, Col. McClure of Cumberwill succeed to the station of Secretary of thousand dollars, he and is hereby altered so that he shall specified in the station of Secretary of thousand dollars, he and is hereby altered so that he shall specified in the station of Secretary of thousand dollars, he and is hereby altered so that he shall specified in the shall specified in th the Commonwealth.

Another rumor at the same place says that James Madison Porter, Esq., of Easton, a brother of Gov. Porter, is to be Secretary of War, in place of Mr. Spencer, who goes abroad-after the 4th of March.
