From the London Sunday Times. The Mysteries of Sasuage Making in Lon-

THE Subscribers having made arrangements to merge the American Manufacturer and Pittsburgh Mercu-ry into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the tille of the Daily Merning Post. The leading object of the official principies that have here to fore heen maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the devocement and hurcess of those derivers. Every nation it has been observed, posnose at sugar, a Neopolitan delights in his cresting to entitle it to the patronage of the public, ir and nothing more delights your genuine respective of party considerations. In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the businesss community with the latest and most interesting Community, and to have prepa-red such accounts of the Narkets and the State of Trade as will be advantageous to our Merchants and Business

Terms. — The Post will be published on a large imperi-al sheet of fine paper, (manufactured especially for this Journal) at the unusually low rate of FIVE BOLLARS a red cap, a remarkably greasy flannel per annum, payable in advance. It will also be sold by jacket, and immensely thick overhaul news.boys at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy. Advertisements will be inserted at the lowest rates charged by the other daily papers of the city. Charged by the other sale dealer in beef and pork sasuages, black puddings, saveloys and young Ger-
