DATER MORNING POST. FEBRUARY 16, 1843. Butiles Ravigation.

During the last weak of ten doys the weather has been so excessively cold and disagreeable, that everything appears dull and discouraging. The rivers have been closed above and there has been so muchice below that navigation was for the time and well chosen assortment of entirely suspended. Yesterday, however, we observed several boats making ready for departure. They appeared to be getting good loads. The river is high and there is a certainty that it will remain so for some considerable time. Fire was last night discovered in an old | Pamphlets frame house in 4th street, which was soon extinguished by the Vigilant Hose. The evening's entertainments wound up with a Stage, Steamboat, and Canal Boat Bills, with appr fight, in which the members of two companies Printed on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms sought sevenge for grievances received on a for-AT OCCASION.
