FIRE!

Last night about 9 o'clock, a fire broke out in the warehouse of James Woods, on Short street, which, with its contents, principly tobacco, belonging to Atwood and Jones, was destroyed. Lee's Paint Shop, with a large lot of oils, paints &c., were also destroyed. Two dwelling houses were seriously injured, if not totally destroyed.

All the engines were on the ground and the firemen performed their duty nobly.

The Iron Steam ship which is now in progress of erection directly opposite the scene of the fire, was saved from destruction by the firemen; also the extensive establishment of Messrs Stackhouse and Tomlinson.

We hear that it is supposed that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

M'Closkey's Clothing Store!

FRESH ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS.
SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF
READY MADE CLOTHING
AT THE
THREE BIG DOORS,
No. 151 Liberty street, one door from the Jackson Foundry.

THE subscriber is just receiving at his well known establishment, the largest most varied and extensive stock of goods that have ever been offered in this city. Every article was selected by himself in the eastern cities, and purchased at the lowest cash prices, and he is therefore enabled to sell his clothing at lower rates than they can be had at any other establishment west of the mountains.

His articles are all made by experienced workmen, from the latest manufactured goods and to the most MODERN FASHION.

He feels confident that all persons who will call at his establishment and examine his stock will be satisfied that BETTER BARGAINS can be obtained at the

than at any similar establishment in Pittsburgh.

His stock consists in part of

Coats, Pantaloons, Vests, Drawers, Shirts, Cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Suspenders,

And every other article of Gentlemen's wear.

For the varied stock of clothing he is prepared to MAKE CLOTHES TO ORDER at the shortest notice, in a style unsurpassed by any other Pittsburgh house, and warranted to fit.

His stock of Spring and Summer Goods is superior to any previous importations and he has no hesitation in saying that for excellence, beauty and cheapness they cannot be equalled in the west.

The subscriber would once more return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed on his establishment, and believing that his customers had found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase clothing of every description at the lowest prices to call at No. 151, LIBERTY STREET.

feb 20—14dw THO'S HAMILTON, Att'y for Pl'ff.

TO the Honorable Judges of the Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, in and for the County of Allegheny.

The Petition of Ferdinant Hughes of the first ward of the city of Pittsburgh, in the county aforesaid, humbly sheweth, That your petitioner hath provided himself with materials for the accommodation of travellers and others, at his dwelling house in the city and ward aforesaid, and prays that your honors will be pleased to grant him a license to keep a Public House of Entertainment. And your petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

F. HUGHES.

We, the subscribers, citizens of the 1st ward of the city of Pittsburgh, do certify, that the above petitioner is of good repute for honesty and temperance, and is well provided with house room and conveniences for the accommodation and lodging of strangers and travellers, and that said tavern is necessary.

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY—East India Hair Die—colors the hair and will not the skin This Dye is in the form of a Powder which in plain matter of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest or grey hair to dark brown; and by repeating a second or third night, to a jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or a perfect black, with the positive assurance that the powder if applied to the skin will not color it. There is no coloring in this statement, as any one may easily test There facts are warranted by the chemist who manufactures it.

For sale at TUTTLE'S, 86 Fourth street, where a large assortment of Patent Medicines may always be had at either wholesale or retail.

"Don't forget" 86 Fourth street!"

Could scarcely believe it?—When I applied to Wemys at the corner of Chesnut and Fourth streets, for a bottle of Powell's Balsan of Aniniseed, I confessed myself incredulous as to its effects; but no sooner had I tried a few bottles than I became sensible it was the only medicine from which I could hope relief. It has effectually cured me, and I am not likely to have a return of Asthma so long as I know where to find so efficient a remedy.
