OUR ABSOCIATION.

The Industrial Association of this city, there yet in embryo, bids fair at present to beer will be laid before the people. In the medit line $10.00 we deem it a fitting opportunity to present in this Pittshu'g to Relay house, $10,00
Thence to Washington 2,00
Thence to Washington 2,00 13.00 upon which the Association is to be founded. The grand object of the contemplated Association is to secure to all its members the necessaries and comforts of life, which they can enjoytheir bodies not worn down by excessive toil and heir minds unharrowed with dread of the fatures The plan of the organization, so far as we baderstand it, is this; Suppose , for the sake of illustration, that 100 men, with or without families, join toge het and each one puts into the common fund 500 dollars. This would be amply sufficient

Still, thed vidends will be equal, se no intefest will be allowed on the capital of the rights mount bers. As soon as the Association becomes ables the original capital paid in will be refunded whatever the amount may have been, without came eusation for its usc. To-morrow some other features of the Scheme will be noticed.

Religion in Association.

The only obstacle that appears to be in the Scheme of Industrial Association, is, that men will quarrel about their religious opinions. In a social community where only one sect is tolerated, bitter and unrelenting animosities will be the inevitable result. But in our Scheme all opinions sep 20-1y are tolerated and none enforced—each to visit our city, when it may be in the power of the in stitute to engage their services.

Coal in 1: tian alone.

Under such a discipline we cannot cone ive now any bickerings can exist on the subject of religion. A man of true intelligence will not quarrel with a friend or neighbor, merely because he does not believe as he himself does; & we assume that there will be none but truly intelligent men in the Association, as bigoted ignoramuses will not abandon the present social system or any other until the great mass of the neople take the lead -the ignorant are always behind in great reforms.

We lay it down, then, as certain, that the harmony of the Association will not be endangered by wrangling on religious sub
