aily morning post MARCH 6, 1843.

Dreadful Calamity .- An old woman wears of age, whose name we did not learn, (though we think it is Ramsey) who lived on Girty's run, about a mile from the river, was on last Friday, tournt so badly by falling into the fire that she expired immediately. On one side she was burnt to the heart! The husband was lying in bed drunk at the time. He saw her in the Books. fire got up and pulled her a short distance from the hearth and then went to bed again.

- Robbery, -A house in Coal Lane occupied by Mr M'Carty, was entered on lastFriday night by some person unknown, who helped himself to all the money he could find and some articles of clothing, and then decamped. Mr M'C. and some An Ordinance changing the place of holdother persons were sleeping up stairs and heard the noise of the robber rifling the house, but thought it] was better to let him take their property than their lives, and so the election for the Overseers of the Poor be held at the Columbia bk & Bridge co. they made themselves as comfortable as the nature of the case would allow. DON'T BE MISTAKEN. Some people think that our Community Scheme is something like that of Owen or Rapp. This is a great error, and we would $10,00 earnestly urge men not to condemn us on such grounds, before they have become For through tickets, apply at our office at the corner thoroughly acquainted with all the details of the Scheme we advocate. People are proze to form opinions of things at first sight and then become prejudiced and refuse to listen to reason. In a matter preg-
