DAILY MORNING POST.

MARCH 8, 1843.

Oratory and Music.-Mess. Bronson and Nash, who have obtained much celebrity as teachers in the above sciences, and well chosen assorting propose to commence a series of lectures on next Thursday evening at the Fifth Presbyterian Church. Readings and Recitations.-Mr G. W. Jameison, a deservedly popular actor, and Books great favorite with the Pittsburgh play-Pamphlets ghere, gives an entertainment on Friday Handbitls evening. See advertisement.

The

Bill Heads,

priate Cuts,

The weather here for a week past has looked much better than it felt. Any persion who has traveled much can youch for U.is.

The Workingmen of this county have goi out a call for a public meeting to be teld at the new Court House to-morrow for the purpose of taking into consideration the expediency of forming an association.

The Vigilant .- That 'spike" is out at last. The long agony is over on the subject of the Vigilant, as we are informed by the smiab's captain of the "old organ-"ization." They have concluded to give up the orgine to the Mayor, when their old enemies; the "new organization," will get peaceable possession; they won't be roped in this time, we presume.

Steamboat on Fire .- An alarm was raised yesterday alternoon by a partition in the cook house of the R. Clayton catching fire from the stove. Not much damage done.

The Two hundred Million Scheme .-
