Hogshead .- An old lady named Smith. who died in Bridgeton, N. J. on the 28th ult., was a lineal descendant of the Roval Family of Sweden; whose great grandmother, Elizabeth, was compelled to fly Iil. from her native country when but sixteen years old. She was concealed in a hogshead on board a ship at Stockholm before the vesselsailed for America. She brought many valuable treasures with her across the water, which were also concealed on board the ship: but after the vessel had sailed over the Atlantic she was wrecked on the Jersey shore. This lady, with a few of the crew barely saved their lives. Inher destitute condition, on the shore of a vast wilderness, as New Jersey then was, she fell in with a hunter by the name of Garrison; their acquaintance grew intimate and ripened into love. She married him, and by him had ten children.— It is said that her younger son, William, was born when she was in her 55th year.
