The Mobile Herald of the 27th ult. Bare:

On Wednesday night, about 9 o'clock, the steamboat Gen. Gaines, when a few miles above the city, ran into a flat boat belonging to Capt. McCullough, from the Cahawha river, with 259 bales of cotton, and damaged her very severely. A large part of the cotton was lose. At the time of the accident the Gaines had in tow a large barge freighted with goods, which, we understand was sunk. The boat herself was materially injured by the shock, and had part of her wheel house carried away.

Some fourteen boats arrived on the Miami canal, yesterday.
