WILL Y MORNING POST. MARCH 21, 1843. Jefferson's Birth Day .- We are pleas-Be to see that exertions are making to get and the nations of those papers that they have up a celebration of the Centennial Birth and well chosen assortment of Day of Thomas Jefferson. We hope that those engaged in it may go at it with energy, as the occasion is worthy of the best efforts of every American, of whatever party LETTER PRESS PRINTIN he may belong to. Don't forget Professor Bronson's Pamphiets, Lecture to night, at Concert Hall. He nightly draws crowds of admiring spectawhere ladies and gentlemen could spend Printed on the shortest notice and most reasonable to We respectfully ask the net could spend tors; and we think that there is no place an evening mere pleasantly. The Rev. W. Smiley, of Kentucky, who was on the cutter at the time of the explosion, has been preaching in this City and Allegheny for a few days past, on the uncertainty of human life. We think that during last week, there were more rows, fights, drunken sprees and secidents in Pittsburgh, than during the whole of the past twelve months besides.
