Liabilities of Stockholders .- The prin ciples of individual liability, says the N. JAMES BUCHANAN, Y. Evening Post, has been recognised in the Legislature of Massachusetts. In the Senate, a motion was made to amend a bill of incorporation, by adding a section ansking the stockholders individualy liable Tas. PHILLIPS & WM. H. SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS for the debts of the corporation. It was opposed by the Whigs, and adopted by a vote of twenyt three to nine. The same principle came under consideration in the United States Senate, when the bill to recharter the District Banks was before that body. An amendmen, was proposed, which put the stockholders on the same rooting as the partners of unchartered coparnerships.
