EVANS'S CAMOMILE PILLS.—ABRAHAM J. CLEMER, residing at 66 Mott street, New York, was afflicted with Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form. The symptoms were violent headache, great debility, fever, costiveness, cough, heartburn, pain in the chest and stomach always after eating, impaired appetite, sensation of sinking at the stomach, furred tongue, nausea, with frequent vomitings, dizziness towards night and restlessness. These had continued upward of a twelvemonth, when, on consulting Dr. Wm. Evans, 100 Cintham street, and submitting to his ever successful and agreeable mode of treatment, the patient was completely restored to health in the short space of one month, and grateful for the incalculable benefit derived, gladly came forward and volunteered the above state

Removal.
THE subscriber has removed his Fashionable Tailoring Establishment to the Monongahela house, 3d door from first st. on Smithfield st. where fmould customers and all others, who may favor him with a call may depend on having their work done in a superior style. From his long experience in the business in this city, and in many other fashionable cities in Europe and America, he feels confident that he can give satisfaction to all who may please to favor him with their custom. By strict attention to business and superior workmanship he hopes to merit and receive a share of public patronage. He will keep on hand a supply of goods and trimmings suitable for the customer trade which will be sold at very reduced prices.
B. DONAGHY.
N. B. The subscriber being well aware of the extent that the ready cash system is practised on the public in this country, by advertisements; particularly by persons who may justly be called intruders on the trade, who never served an hour to the business, and who know so little about it that they could not crook a sponge cloth, and they are barefaced enough to advertise themselves as tailors a la mode, and by the aid of old certificates, cuts, puffs, &c. &c such as are generally used by quacks to sell their medicines, they often succeed in palming off on the unsuspecting, customer some old trash for the genuine imported article. Such people's advertisements are only calculated to gull the public and are no more entitled to credit than the fictitious yet laughable publications about the great Gull-iver among the Lilliputians, which I presume almost every schoolboy has read and laughed at. I would suggest to those who wish to have their clothes made in first rate style to make a little inquiry and they will find that this is the place where they can be accommodated;
J in 7—3m: B. D.

☞ Those la mode Monsieurs, or rather Mon-tagues, who have opened an 8 by 10 piece shop lately, and who evince such envy and dislike to long or lengthy advertisements, are informed that the above (fulsome, as they term it) has no reference to them whatever. The person alluded to is their present employer, an Algeo-rine, who keeps a slop shop in this city. The count ('tis said) is highly pleased with such tokens of loyalty from his piggy subjects, and no doubt will reward them by giving them a few BUZZARDS to make. Such exquisites of rank with whom none can compete, had better Scull themselves into nothing some other way, as a little precaution might prevent an explosion. D.

TO THE PUBLIC, and particularly to my former patrons of this city:—Having retired from the practice of Medicine, I may be permitted to say, that it has fallen to the lot of but few persons to have enjoyed so liberal or large a share of obstretrical practice as my own has been for the last 30 or 40 years.
The experience of that long period of active life, and the fact of my having been twice, since 1830, associated with Dr. R. A. Wilson, in the practice of medicine, (in both a period of five years,) enables me to judge fully of the merits of his pills.
So convenient, so efficient, and yet so safe, did I esteem these pills, that for the last five years in my practice for the cure of chronic diseases, of whatever name, and those of females in particular, I have used more of them than all other medicines.
Like every other medicine, this must fail in some instances, but in my hands there has been less disappointment and more satisfaction in the administration of this one remedy than of all others; its good effects sometimes quite astonishing me.
If my patient required a safe aperient medicine either before or after parturition, the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted.
If a dyspeptic acid condition of the stomach, combined with costiveness or inactivity of the liver, constituted the disease of my patient, the pills were just the thing I wanted.
If I treated a case requiring an emmenagogue, the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted.
If palpitation, headache, flushed countenance, or other difficulties, indicating a disturbance of the circulatory and secretory systems, annoyed my patient at the 'turn of life,' the Wilson's pills were just the thing I wanted.
Thus, without respect to the name, a disease might happen to wear at the time I have had it under treatment, particular indications or symptons arising, were always most promptly and most happily met by the Wilson's pills.
That so great a number of diseases, and sometimes apparently opposite ones, in which I have used these pills, should be cured more readily by them than by any other remedy, may at first seem strange and contradictory, but why it is so is as clear to my mind as that a great many persons should become thirsty from as many different causes, and yet all require that common and greatest of all blessings, water to quench their thirst.
In conclusion, it is due the reputation of the medicine and the public, to say decidedly and unconditionally, that the Wilson's pills are the only combination I have ever met with in my long course of practice, that really possesses anything curative or specific for sick headache.
Yours &c., DR. MILO ADAMS.
The above Pills designed particularly for the sick Haed-Ache, Dyspepsia, Constipation of the Bowels &c., prepared by the proprietor Dr. R. A. Wilson, and for sale, wholesale and retail, at his dwelling in Penn street, below Marbury. Oct 1

DR. GOODE'S Celebrated Female Pills. These Pills are strongly recommended to the notice of the ladies as a safe and efficient remedy in removing those complaints peculiar to their sex, from want of exercise, or general debility of the system. They obviate costiveness, and counteract all Hysterical and Nervous affections: These Pills have gained the sanction and approbation of the most eminent Physicians in the United States, and many Mothers. LOOK AT THIS.
The attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

PROSPECTUS
For publishing a new Daily Paper in the City of Pittsburgh, to be entitled the DAILY MORNING POST.

THE Subscribers having made arrangements to merge the American Manufacturer and Pittsburgh Mercury into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the title of the Daily Morning Post.
The leading object of the "Post" will be the dissemination and defence of the political principles that have heretofore been maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the advancement and success of those doctrines.
Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, candid history of passing Political events, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, and brief notices of all matters and occurrences that come properly within the sphere of a Public Journal, to make their paper sufficiently interesting to entitle it to the patronage of the public, irrespective of party considerations.
In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the business community with the latest and most interesting COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE from all parts of the country, and to have prepared such accounts of the Markets and the State of Trade as will be advantageous to our Merchants and Business Men in their several callings.
Terms.—The Post will be published on a large imperial sheet of fine paper, (manufactured especially for this Journal) at the unusually low rate of FIVE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. It will also be sold by news boys at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy.
Advertisements will be inserted at the lowest rates charged by the other daily papers of the city.
☞ TWENTY active lads are wanted to sell the Post, who will be engaged on the most liberal terms

THE LITERARY POST.

The Dentist's Arm Chair.
A PARODY.

I fear it! I fear it!—and who shall dare
To chide me for fearing that dark arm-chair?
I've dreaded it long, and with fearful cries—
I've bedew'd it with tears, and embalm'd it with sighs;
Fear shoots with a thousand pangs through my heart,
Not one will yield, not a tremor depart;
Would ye learn the spell? my JAW WAS BROKEN there!
And a horrid place is the dentist's arm chair.

In childhood's hour from my teeth I've scream'd
But of the dentist's power I never had dream'd—
My mother—she charm'd away every fear,
With threat'ning words and a blow on the ear;
She scorn'd that her child such a coward should be,
And said that there ne'er was a ninny like me;
And she taught me—but what, I cannot declare—
Though I learn'd not of her to dread that arm-chair.

I sat, and I dreaded it day after day,
As my teeth grew black and began to decay;
And I almost died, when I learn'd to feel
The jaw-breaking pain, inflicted by steel.
The rack and the scaffold cannot have the power
To equal the torture of that fearful hour,
When I learn'd how much my temper could bear
As they held me fast in that dark arm chair.

'Tis past! 'tis past? but I think of it now
With a quivering lip and a throbbing brow;
'Twas there I kicked! it was there I cried,
And my shame will come like a lava tide,
And they said it was folly and deem'd me weak;
As the scalding drops flowed down my cheeks
But I fear it, I fear it, and never can bear
The thoughts or the sight of that darn'd old chair.

A few days ago, a young woman in service at Lyons set out to walk to Bourgoin where her parents resided. On her way she was overtaken by a young soldier, traveling the same road. They joined in conversation, and a mutual confidence took place
