INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION

Will C. H. Little of the N. Y. "Social Reform Unity" give us some information n relation to the present condition and orospects of the Association over which he presides. Please address to the "Exa change Company, Pittsburgh, Pa."

The social system of the benevolent and philanthropic Fourier, has been commonced in New York. Mr, Whitley is President and Horsce Greely, Esq. of the Tribune, is Secretary. Mr. Forrest the actor, is a large stockholder. The way he Association will prosper will be a caus ion to ignorant mountebanks and charle; ans, who so much leve to ridicule all things having a tendency to promote human progress.—Chambersburgh Times.

The theories of Fourier and his diciples are now practically illustrated, and large tracts of land, to be put to that purose, have been purchased, and are part y tenanted. Looking at the changes taking place in the tastes, habits, and septiments of the people, we are somewhat startled, and can hardly determine whether zing process. Who knows but we have for centuries been living in a state of savage contentment, and that the era of civilization is dawning in indication of the rapid approach of the milledium? Fourier associations are spreadiby
