41 following, by an inspection of the annexed pabecause the extensive flats in our pays and sound a imit of the passage of vessels of light draugh per A, and the accompanying model. Bth. They cannot be suck by shot from cannon of water, for most part, beyond gunahot range o

affoat, nor can they be destroyed by fire. 7th, By reason of their light draught of water, tant service of a rapid, economical, and safe trans-(Theyer exceeding sixteen feet in the largest class portation, through canale, shoal waters, and over verset) all of our Southern harbors (to nine of flats, from the lakes to the seacoust, from depot to which our larger ships can now have access) will depot, and slong the entire line of our Atlantic be rendared wailable and open for protection or seaboard, of heavy ordnance, and ordnance stores. troops, scamon, anchors, chain cables, ships

8:1. This floating force, possessed of celerity tanks, provisions, and all the munitions of wa and cartainty of movement, can, with the rapidity that it may be necessary to assemble with desof an express, be concentrated at any given point patch at a given point, as well as coals for the use of attack, and the expendituro necessary to its of steamers, &c.

entire creation will cost the country absolutely The present available usefulness of these little less than the fixed detences for Hampton road and vessels will be found in the facility and despatch the depot at Norfolk alonet they will afford in the transportation of seamen,

These positions conclusively established, as we previsions, ordnance, and other weighty stores. regard them to be, illustrate the incalculable ad- such as anchore, cha n cables, iron tanks, blocks, Vantages, in point of usefulness, efficiency, and en rigging, Sce.-the freight money on which, pair conomy, which this system presents over our yearly by the Government, will more than build, The Steam Engine has been called the present means of defence, whether employed in equip, and defray all the expense of said steamers. protecting our commerce in the remotest quarters Besides this, their saving to the Government in of the earth, or used as a defence for our fire sides and homes from foreign invasion. All of which is respectfully submitted. conomy with which they can supply vessels

WM. W. HUNTER, Licutenant of the U. S. Navy large amount of money. February 26, 1843.

tion of the sea.

a battery. 3. By means of the shield deck, the vessel is insignificant cost, if any, for repairs; 21, a guar our maratime coast was alone exposed to rendered a life boat, and cannot be sunk by shot. anty against destruction by fire; and, 3d; an al 4. This vessel can out manosuvre all others, by most entire security from the risks of stuking. the operations of naval war, the narrow reason of the lateral or horizontal action of her paddle wheels, which enable her to turn on the will be almost nothing, because it could not concontre of a circle. She can, therefore, at any sist of mile than four persons. When it is desi- gable streams shutting out vessels that were time readily give or avoid a raking fire; and for red to use the vessel, an assistant engineer and propelled by canvass and the winds. Now the same reasons, can, in a narrow channel-way, three men should be detail d from the depot for the men should be detail d from the depot for cross the tide: and thus, by a vibratory movement, performed, this crew will resume their regular steamers, and our vulnerable extent of terway only her length in breadth, command her po to the wharf, where she may remain without the ritory is thereby more than trebled. The long her fire at pleasure. She thus is equal to a mat rial of which she is constructed is not perishline of batteries of the same weight of metal, as able. great in extent as the navigable long h of the channel.

starting bars of the engine.

ery being noiscless, she is fitted for surprise. 7. Having neither wheel houses, guards nor will be directed to proceed to the Dismal Swamp purposes in question. It is in this view weight, and that of the paddle wheels, which float. ing, because it will be abundantly supplied by the that we ask the attention of our readers to 8 The simplicity of hor machinery, the conse-guence of her paddle wheels and their cases being other purposes would be of no value. When in the communication of Lieutenant Hunter of understand thes will the sities and their cases being other purposes would be of no value. When in the communication of Lieutenant Hunter of understand thes will the sities and towns of the new start and the site of the made to serve air pumps and condensers, and thus the canal, a cock in the side of the vessel is turn the United States Navy, on the proper modcombining the atmospheric auxiliary power, and ed, and she will soon take in 25,090 gallons of el of a war st amer. The advantages of the low pressure engines tresh water. The cock is then shut, and the little Lieutenant William W. Hunter's war

FOR PRESIDENT. Subject to the decision of a National Convention. DAILY MORNING POST THS. PHILLIPS & WM. H. SNITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETOR WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1843. See First Page.

Wat Steamers. The application of steam to the purposes of man has changed the state of the world, and altered the relations of civilized society. finest present ever made by science to the towing national vessels to and from sea against arts. Through its instrumentality steam adverse winds and currents, and the facility and has become a universal agent, and whether with water and provisione, will suve yearly a we consider its applications to purposes requiring the utmost delicacy of manipula-The material of which they are constructed, he ing imperi-hable' and iscombastible, will render tion, or demanding the exercise of the most In enumeration of many of the advantages of repairs for many years unnecessary. The waters tremendous power, there is not one over Hunter's steamer over all others. 1. The machinery and puddle whols are en- to distinct sections, render t er a life boat; for, als which it is likely to exercise a more contirely protected from shot and the irregular ac- though shot or other injuries may cause one sec- troling influence than that of naval warfare are obtained these three important ends: 1st, an country are at once involved. Formerly The cost of maintaining and paying her crew channels and torauous courses of our navi- it abounds, and the inspiring lesson it the same reasons, can, in a narrow ensures way, inree men should be octail a from the upper ner they are open to the movements of the war corrupt-to kindle holy ambition, not to this (Saturday) forenoon, during its sessition, modifying it as may be necessary, and pro- cost of attendance, because, as before stated, the naval powers of Europe have already applied this powerful auxiliary to their fleets. It can val of all." If it is desired to supply speedily a ship-of-the line (in Hampton road, for instance) with 100,000 5. This vessol requires no rulder to direct her gallons of water; the manner in which it will be change in the mode of naval warfare, the course, being steered by the throttle valves and done by this vessel is this, which will at once ascendency and power must abide with the starting bars of the engine. The action of her paddle wheels and machin-consequent upon its use: Her crew (viz, the as-nation that shall keep in advance in the estant engineer and three men from the depot) applie tion of this tremendous agent to the smooth!"

Prof. Lovering .- It will be recollected

Rhode Island .

W. W. HUNTER,

Lieut United States Navy.

Navy Yard, Washington city.

Another Wonder in the Heavens-A AMES BUCHANAN Bloody Sickle .- The 'People's Friend' of April 1st, published at Covington, Ia., says:--"We have been credibly informed that a lady in this place of unimpeachable tract from the Keystone will show, is litcharacter, saw ,a bloody Sickle' suspended erally true. Heretofore they have been in the heavens one night this week. Have ing occasion to get up out of her bed to > attend to her children, who were indisposed, about the hour of midnight, she looked up and was viewing the planetary region, and behold this extraordinury phenomanon rivetted her attention.-This year has certainly been one of the most remarkable that the history of the world offending citizens. Seriously, this outrage has on record."

The Patrician's Daughter .- This play as been produced at the Chatham, by Forrest and Miss Cliffon. It is a new play, and judging from the manner in which it was received it will rank among the brightest gems of stage literature. A correspondent of the N. Y. Post, in a critique says:-"We like this play, and Its character is most wholesome, and its influence cannot be otherwise than salutas ry. The republicansentiment with which teaches, render it peculiarly adapted to us as a people, and remind us that the true office of the stage is to ennoble, not the floor of the House of Representatives inflame demoralizing passions. The of-

says that there has been a growing deficiency in the wheat crop in Lower Cane- county, came up to him with the Gazette da during the last twelve years. This is in his hand, and asked him if he was the attributed to the importation of American author of a certain article personal to Mr.

Longfellow, Mullen, Seba Smith, Another Fraces in the Legislature. To say that the Philadelphia members Payson, Ann S. Stevens, Duct. Nichols, are butchers and dog fighters, is no longer | Doct. Payson, and several others of respectability in the literary and political a figure of speech, but, as the following exworld. This is an honor which but few of even larger cities can rival.

called butchers to indicate their meat-axe dispositions, but now they appear in the Legislature with all the implements of their trade upon them, and fancying themselves in the shambles-which, by the bye, would not require any great stretch of the imagination-they commence running their "long knives" into the bodies of un-is one of the most disgraceful we have ever heard of iu the course of legislation, and it must cause the deepest sorrow to every Pennsylvanian for the degredation that such scenes are calculated to inflict upon the state. The proposition to appoint a committee to inquire into the facts, speaks but little for the morality of the other members. The duty of the committee should have been to drag the assoswe thank Mr. Thorne for bringing it out. sin from the hall and to place him in the hands of those whose duty it is to guard and punish such ruffiane:

From the Keystone. Personal Recontre. We regret to state that a personal Re contre of a serious character took place on sion, the particulars of which, so far as fice of the man of genins, when he is made we could ascertain them, are something the organ of such sentiments, is one which like the following: Mr. Bratton, the Edmust command the admiration and appro- itor of the State Capitol Gazette, came into the House about ten o'clock, and was Canadian Wheat.-A Canadian paper standing near the fire place on the left of the Speeker's chair, when Mr. Edward McGowan, a member from Philadelphia breadstuffe, and that most cordial hater of when Mr. McGowan. Mr. Bratton replied he was, riage, between a white man and an India is when Mr. McGowan struck him with his woman, is void; that a civilized man is inunderstand that 'all the cities and towns of Mr. McGowan seized a chair, and struck age, and that their offspring is illegitimate. Canada are crammed with American beef Mr. Bratton a blow over the head with it. and cannot inherit. A very extraordinary and pork free of duty' to the great injury Some little scuffle then ensued, when Mr. decision certainly.

named Geo. Beardsley, who is now at Trenton, N. J. State Prison, and putting out arge quantities of counterfeit money. She was the head of a gang who could raise any amount of money to buy her out. Lynn .- During the year 1842 one mill. on pair of woman's morocco shoes were

A Woman Escaped from Prison.-The

N. Y. Sun says that Ann Foster, convicted last summer of forgery and sentenced 7

years, made complaint that she was slek

and got into the hospital, and from there escaped last week, Wednesday, in her own clothes that abe had when she went there

She was in the habit of hiring houses in the country, where her and an accomplice, manufactured in this town. A woman was put up for trial in Baltimore, for whipping a Dutchman; and the Dutchman, in testifying to the facts, said with the tone and air of an injured innocent, "Mish'er Shquire dish here woman, mit three or four other womans more whip me very nice; -she did." Poor, abused fello w.

A case of Isfanticide, perpetrated according to the appearance of the body as ong ago as last autumn, was revealed at Trenton, N. J., on Wednesday. The body was found in the cellar of an old muse, recently occupied by disorderly persons, wrapped in a window curtain and laid in a knife bot, c vared with stones and di t, a few inches below the surface of the cellar floor.

Can't Marry a Syunw -Oie of the U. S. Courts has deviled that a Choctaw marriage, between a white man and an India n gives a vast available amount of tonnage for the instead of requiring the lab r of the whole crew steamer over all others, are enumerated in transportation of fuel, and reduces the actual of the ship for a day, with the wear and tear of weight of the engines full three fourths below that cordage and water casks, to hoist in these 25 000 his communication made to the committee of those at present in use.

gallons of water, as well as the wear and tear of of the Senate and House (I Representa-9. The power of the engine being imparted in boats, spars, sails, rigging, &c., the engine of the a line with the keel, and not at right angles to it, steamer works a force-prine, to which is attached tives of the United States, which we puba time with the very and not at right day to be show the shore-pump, to which is attached which the shore base of the ship's water casks or tanks. Jish this morning. They are numerous, soap, can be palmed upon the poor man Bratton. The dirk was immediately aken writer of fiction. You have long been aer at the junction of the contres of gravity and one grinde of a few chirs, the 25,-er at the junction of the contres of gravity and 000 gallons of water is placed in the ship's water and so strikingly important, that they for pure friendship. - Whig paper. motion, and, consequently, at the point where it tanks; and the steamer, in all weather and against promise to place the navy of his country in most available to propel; and the propellers, act any tide, when boats could not perform the ser-in mon a continuous resistance, being always sub vice, will reptat, with certainty, the operation, unmerged, the vessel and machinery are subjected til the vessel is watered, whilst the crew of the world. The application of steam to useful to less wear and tear than that consequent upon ship may be otherwise employed in preparing for the ordinary action of the paddle wheel, which is ] applied to the surface of the water with the me-It is a truth, that the cost of wear in rigging highest order. The improvements of Lieuchanical power of the hammer, and in subject to chanical power of the hammer, and in subject to and water casks, in the operation of hoisting in tenant Hunter have placed him in the high-the gravitating influence of the water in emerge the tenth part of her water, together with the wear and tear of the ship's boats, ours, suils, &co est position of a public Benefactor, and ing from it. 10. As a cruising steamer, using her sails to used for the conveyance of the same, would more have reflected honor on the state of his naprolong her supply of tuel, her wh els subject her than pay the whole expense of watering the yesto scarcely any perceptible diminution of speed, sel by the plan proposed, to sny nothing of the livity. We are proud to claim hin as a because they are muinly within the body of the loss of time, labor, exposure of the crew, and de- native Pennsylvanian. We are gratified vessel, and when disconnected from the engine, tention of the vessel. By the same means, the vessel, which might be otherwise kept from her to know that the nation has availed itself of final, and, consequently, revolve readily of them-cruising ground by adverse winds and tides, may the talents of Lieutenant Hunter. That The propeller becoming more effective by be towed to sea at comparatively no excense. I the denser resistance of its increased submersion, This same service, as it is now performed by privite the war steamer, Union, is now fitting out all. the vessel may be laden to the extent of her great- vate steamers, costs twenty times as much, and is at the navy yard, at Washington city, un. est capacity of displacement, whilst other steam-ers cannot be laden beyond the dip of their paddle towed, because these steamers are not suitably der his direction and control, and that one constructed for such service, and their commands of the Revenue Cutters, about to be conwheels. This advantage, in fact, doubles the re-

12. When built of tron, her propellers acting below the floating ice, the is perfectly adapted to executing this service. the uses of an ice breaker. The foregoing statements are the most confi-

an officer of distinguished merit, will be 13. A vessel thus propelled cannot, in a heavy den'ly submitted for your consideration, from the sea, broach to or bring by the lee, unless through tact that I have already performed a part of the built on the plan of his improvement. the grossiest negligence, because the propellers being in the centre of the vessel, disconnected and tal s.eamer the Germ,' propelled on the plan de-lateral in their action, the vessel can readily be scribed. And I take this occasion to state that, brought out of the trough to head the sea. The in the course of my experiments with her, she has that some time since Prof. Lovering of Bos. ordinary steamer is ever liable at such a time to run throu h ocean, lakes, rivers, and canals, over ton was publicly whipped by her brother these dangers, because then her paddle wheels 10,000 miles, with a crew of three persons, and at the total and with cannot be disconnected.

not be disconnected. 14. This vessel may run along side a wharf, have the sati-faction further to acquaint you that board, or tow, in a sea-way, with entire protec. I have taken the first vessel (viz, the 'Germ') hy tion to the propellers, inasmuch as they are under steam power from the Atlantic scabourd to Lake lumbia. The Boston Bulletin says :-- The the the projection of the vessel's wales. Erie, and thence back to her starting point in Mr. Lovering, whose name was on the Co-The ordinary steamer cannot co these, because North Carolina, and, in so doing, have practically her paddle wheel shaft would interfere to unship shown that, as soon as the work of enlarging the lu nbis's pasenger list, has resided in Paris the wheels and the wheel houses of themselves Erie canal through the State of New York, new would unfit her for the service. in progress, shall be completed, armed steamers

15. In a gate of wind, it would never be at- of 200 hundred tons, of this construction, by rea- of Edwards & Co. The bona fide Profestempted to heave to an ordinary steamer, unless son of their peculiar adaptation to canal havigas sor' is now in or about Boston, and it is she could display in proper position more canvass tion (they causing no injury to the banks) may, at than the surface of her wheel houses, which is al- the pleasure of the Department, be despatched ways impossible, whilst this vessel can be have from the Atlantie to Lake Erie. to with perfect safety, either under canvass or un. I take pleasure in developing those fasts, which der her lee wheel. Through a head son she may appear to me, in a military and o her points of be driven with nearly the same velocity as thru' view, valuable to our country.

smooth water, because the propellers are in eith-Respectfully, your ob't, servant case equally efficient, being always submerged. Not so with the ordinary steamer; at such times she always has one wheel too deeply immersed, Hon. A. P. UPSHUR. whilst the other is revolving almost entirely in the air, and the impossibility of disconnecting them, in consequence of the irregular action im-

Miller .- The N. Y. Express says that parted to the machine, renders them both, at such a letter was received in that city from a time, not only useless but extremely dangerous. WM. M. HUNTER. Bro. Himes, dated Albany, N. Y., March

Lieutenant United States Navy. FEBRUARY 26, 1843.

Sra-By your direction. I have the honor to sent on express from Brother Miller, that whiggery alone can rejotce in, but it must submit the following statement, exhibiting in des he was sick, and confined to his room. On chill the heart of every republican.

tail a plain practical way to economize visitly in the receipt of this intelligence, I went im-Proscription on a large scale -On Fri the expenditure of money and time in the dis- diately to see him, and if need be, to min- day evening a meeting of the hands em-charge of several duties indispensable to the natisfier to his wants. I found him at the ployed in the High street Furnace and

25. who says:

A small iron steamer of light draught of water house of Deacon Dubois, in Rock City, Machine Co., was called by the agent .-with submerged horizontal metal propellers, should about 6 miles from Ballston Spa. He has Three of the company appeared, viz: Isaac be appended to each depot; her dimensions adap- the erysipelus, and is deeply afflicted other- H. Holden, Zelotus Holden, and Henry tei to the ready passage of locks in canals, with wise, being worn down by his incessant Gardner. Isaac H. Holden (the sgent) power for to the ready participation is least labors for the past four months. But he is ir formed them that he came to discuss no cone hundred tous. This manuer of propulsion is labors for the past four months. It think he is formed them that he came to discuss no ascertained to be, beyond all question, perfectly not in any danger at this time; I think he question, but to state what the company adapted to the navigation of canals as we'l as the will get up in a few weeks." had concluded upon. The agent then son, and for the service of towing and despatch, The Chartists .- The London corres- put the following proposition: 'We, the se well as for the uses of an ice-breaker. Such pondent of the Journal of Commerce in a company, have come to the conclusion a vessel can be built entirely of iron, complete for operation, for $25,000; and, when it shall be desir late letter says, "the Chartist trials are now that all those who vote for Carpenter can proceeding at Lancaster. Feargus O'Con- have no more work; and, those of the hands able to use her for purposes of assault, lookout, surprise or signal, a heavy pivot gun will be moun nor and fifty-seven others, who formed that have no vote, but who aid or use their readinces for this service at the depot to which the Chartist Executive, are indicted for influence for Carpenter, must expect to be having conspired together, by large and served the same" He would give them In the event of hostile fleets in superior force tumultuous assemblies, to produce some (the hands) until Saturday night to con-occupying parts of our bays and sounds forming fundamental change in the constitution of sider upon it. A vote was taken by the the country. It is expected that the pro- hands that they were willing to labor for the common navigable highway between distant points of our country, this small steamer may with safety pass beyond the range of their guns, ceedings will continue over a week. The the best interests of the company, but they defence will be an attempt to fix upon the should vote for whom they pleased.-

master manufacturers the guilt of having Twenty-seven out of thirty that were pres-+Cost of Fortress Monroe, at Old Point ing the purposes and designs of the Anti- they were willing to take their dismissal of Colonial Agriculture.

-----

Hallucination.-Too imagine that a wife and children,' will commend a vote. how ver, struck the bone and bent round.

to make a lasting impression. We have held to bail in the sum of one thousand purposes has put in action talents of the hopes from this symptom of returning dollars. reason, that the scenes of 1840 may never We regret most sincerely the personal be re-enacted.

Connecticut.

Our victory Glorious and Complete. In recording this brilliant triumph we will not stop to give the detai's but sum up the grand result thus: - We have elected every Member of Congress-four in ate. We have about Thirty-five Majority in he House of Delegates.

We have Sixteen Majority in the Sen and far between.

bill has passed both Houses giving out all Governor Cleveland's plurality in 122 the public printing and binding to the lowto uns is 1595-scattering, 1083. As it est hidders. It is supposed the Abolitious requires a majority of all the votes ists of Philadelphia will get the jub.

ca-t, the election of Governor will devolve probably upon the Senate and House Sentinel says: -- "Unless Armenius James of Delegates, when he will be elected certain.

for trifling with a lady's affections, and with A Strike.-The Montreal Transcript whom it was said he had sloped in the Costates that an extensive strike for higher wages, took place a few days since by the laborers on the Lachine Canal.

several years, and is a partner in the house An Old Society. - The London Society of Ancient Britons, lately celebrated its 120th Anniversary. The Society supunderstood that he intends shortly to lead ports 200 children of Welsh parents. to the altar the very same lady who was Curious Bill of Mortality .- The recently defended by her brother. 'Fruly Charle-ton (S. C.) board of health reports the course of true love never did run week, one while and ten colored. What takes off the darkies so rapidly? The following paragraph shows the means used by the Algerines of Rhode Is-

Eye, says that this interesting Thief of the land to defeat the people. The N. Y. Sacs and Foxes, with some others of his Couries, and the Advocate of this city, call a triumph secured by such means a tribe, have been taken to England on a "glorious victory." It is such glory as speculating expedition. According to the Quebec Morcury, the failures a Quebec and Montreal, during day is the Jew's.

the past year, were for an amount equal to five millions of dollars.

Great Compliment to New Jersey.-At. a meeting of the citizens of Southwark, last week, it was generously resolved, that in consideration of the handsome con. duct of the Woodbury Jury in the Mercer Federal Union !!! Agreed nem con.

He is not Dead.-The boy whose throat was cut in New Orleans, by some villian. is not dead. He is recovering. He is heir to a large estate.

phia is closed. It will not be re-opened

Escaped .- Two prisoners confined in productive of literary men than any stbhe New Bedford jail, on Monday last, er of its size, in the United States. Among knocked the turnkey down and made their a list, we mention N. P. Willis, John McGowan drew a dirk knofe; Mr. Bratton Sir E. L. Bulwer - The ran behind the Speaker's chair, where Mr. Boston Times has been permitted to pe-McGowan followed and struck him across suse a letter from this distinguised author shake of the hand or an enquiry after the the shoulder with the dirk. The instrument to a literary gentleman in Boston, in whi ch Bulwer says-'With the last page of the Or that a sycophant's preparation of soft which, doubtless saved the life of Mr. Last of the Barons, closed my carear as a from Mr. McGowan; and Mr. Deford mo- ware that my graver studies have been We hope the coons have discovered ved a committee to inquire into the facts gradually unfitting me for the task of the 'Remancier.' The light of other days is this by experience, as it will be very likely and taken before Aldermon Snyder, and of the case, Mr. McGowan was arrested faded,' and my fancy no longer kindles at a spark as in happier hours of yore. I difficulties which have occurred during the present session, and hope an era of better feeling will yet arrive.

Carrying out Whig principals .- Webb bidding in the shape of a tame dove, Mormon miracles are like angels' visits in Splendid finacering, that ! ther parts of this wicked world-few TUST received from the publisher at Cincinnati, 4 opies of that excellent and useful Historical work the American Pioneer, published in monthly Nos at $2 a year. The first 12 numbers bound in the present vol. unie at subscription price, for sole, and sufscription thankfully received, at HARRIS' General dgency and Inelligence office, No 9, Fifthst, DISSOLUTION. A very Modest Hint.—Chapman's Sentiuel says:—"Unless Armenius James calls and settles either with us or his late partner. we will tell all about his stealing south the same with either of the partners h ore the 1m six yards of cloth which we left at his of May next. A. MURPHY.

In retiring from the Grocery business I cheerfully r "Glorying in their Shame."-The ibe late concern. T. APPLE82. of the late concern. Gerrymander' is the name of a new whig

> A Murphy having taken his ron, J. R. Murphy, late rtnership with him, the business will in future be can lucted at the old stand, under the firm of A. Murphy & ion, who will always be useful with every article y will sell very low for A. MURPHY & BON, in the Grocery line, which they will sell ve ap 12-3t Liberty st, foot of 5th

> SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES. MR. J. W., Mrs., and Miss BAKEWELL respectful-Quarter will commence on Monday, April 16. Bis weeks notice will be required before the removal of pupil ap 12-31

FOR sale on accommodating terms 100 bbls good Louisville Lime, 300 doz. all sizes vindow Sash, 100 boxes all sizes window Glass, 30 reams for cash or approved burles to suit consigners. ISAAC HABRIS.

J. W. BURBRIDGE Water st beiween Wood & Bmith'd.

REGULAR ST. LOUIS PACKET. MASSACHUSETTS. Isnan Bennett, Master, Will depart for the above and in-ermediate ports on Wednesday the 12 inst. at 10 o'clock A. M. For freight or passage apply on hoaid, or BIRMINGHAM & CO., No. 60 Water st. ap 10

FOR ST. LOUIS AND MISSOURI RIVER.

The substantial and well known Steam ALGONQUIN.

Hiram Rounts, Master, will depart for the above and intermediate parts on Wednesday, the 12th last, at 16 or to BIRNINGHAM & CO. apr 10. No 60 Water st. N. B-The Algonquin has certificates from the Mutuat as was yours, Mr. Chron., when the ladies Insurance, Western Marine and Fire Insurance compan. saved you from being thrown overboard, es that they will insure on her as cluss No 1.

CARRIAGES AT AUCTION. By SAM L FAHNESTOCK & CO., corner of The home of Genius .- Portland, Maine, Wood and5th streets, on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock a city of not more than 18,000 inhabitants one superior (nearly new) two horse family carriage harness, of Boston manufacture and probably not that many, has been more One single horse York wagon with harness

WHISKEY.

50 BBLS 5 years old copper finified Bananger

gyptian's, Friday is the Turk's and Saturap 12

Our escape "unhurt" is not as fortunate paper in Peoria, Ill. "Equal and exact justice" with a Vengence !- We find in a report of the sen-queer genius. His daddy was a Whig tences by a Court recently held in Turonto, that a fellow who stole a horse and a

The State Capital Gazette says: A

sent to the penitentiary for three years! he deaths of 11 persons in that city last Beautiful Combination .- The editor of the Grant County Herald (W. T.) is 2

Kish ke Kosh .- The Burlington Hawk and his mammy a Dutchman, poor chap who sto'e a pair of bools, are

Curious fact .- Sunday is the Christian's day of public worship, Monday is the Gres cian's, Tuesday is the Persuan's, Wednesday is the Assyrian's Thursday is the E.

Isaac E. Holmes, a democrat, has been re-elected to Congress from the city of Charleston, S. C .- [Providence Express. Mr. H. is truly a democrat, but not one of your kind.-[Providence Chronicle. If he's of your kind, Mr. Chronicle, we think he's not much - Pittsburgh Post. You are rather severe upon us. hut as case, the State of Jersey be taken into the you give us the only evidence which your paper has ever afforded of any thinking. on your part, Mr. Editor, we shall let you.

pass unhurt .- Providence Chronicle. as you were going to the clam-bake.

The Chesnut street theatre, in Philadeluntil September.

am too wise to jeopardize what little credit I may have won already, and therefor . bid farewell-a mouraful farewell, it may be, to the light labors and flowing dreams of the novelists. Mormonism. The Cincinnati Erquirer says that since the cat eat up JoSmith's Holy Ghost, which used to descend at his

of the New York Courier and Enquirer. who paid off debts to the amount of $200. 000 by means of the bankrupt law, lately purchased a splended mausion in New York city, for which he paid $18,000 .-- wrapping, letter and writing Paper; 40 dox corn broems and wisps, 500 pleces paper hangings and borders to suit.

AMERICAN PIONEER.

Agt and Com Mercht, No 8, Fifib at. ap 12

FAMILY FLOUR. 30 BBLS Superfine while Wheat Flour, Just received from Valley Mills and for sale by

Total......League Nesl, Brooks, Colesworthy, Ingraham, J. W. BITTE escape. ・木 コブ Wales between Wood and Su ۰. O