The Somnauth proclamation has been discussed in both Houses, and both have refused to pass any censure upon it, the Lords by a majority of 83 to 25, the Commons by 242 to 157. What an outcry would the sanctified Tories have raised if this had been the proclamation of a Whig Governor General, sheilded by a Whig Government! On Monday the Lord Chancellor expressed his conviction that the law respecting criminals pleading insanity requires no alteration, and in this opinion Lords Brougham, Cambell, and Cottenham concurred. On Tuesday their Lord ships refused to grant an inquiry into the operation of the new corn law, by a majority of 200 to 70. Lord Monteagle deliv-.ered a splended speech, which was unanswered and unanswerable.

In the Commons on Monday, the Registration of Voters Bill made considerable progress. It effects a little and but little, improvement in the present system.

On the 15th, in the commons, Mr. Gladstone, in answer to a statement from Mr. Gorgan, that a great deal of American salted meat had been imported into Liverpol through Canada, said that if it had been done it was contrary to law, and the decision of the government.
