

THOUGHTS FOR THE THOUGHTFUL.—By old Humphrey, 1 vol. 12 mo. This is a very pleasant and interesting little work, full of "wise sayings and modern instances." For sale by T. Carter, Market street, between 34 and 4th.

A Profession.
The Brickmakers who struck on Monday for cash payments and against the order system, marched in procession yesterday through our city, and made quite an imposing appearance. They numbered about 130 persons, and were preceded by a band of music. A general determination seems to be manifested among all classes of operators, to resist and crush this most unjust system by which they lose a large portion of their honest earnings. This is as it should be, and we think will be persevered in, until the grievance is finally abated.

Theatre.
We learn by the bills, that this evening is set apart for the benefit of Mr. Latham. The pieces are "Paul Pry," the "Vermont-er" and an amusing farce called "Pay to my Order." From the nature of the attractions and the merit of Mr. Latham, we have no doubt but he will be greeted by a crowded house. His inimitable impersonation of the inquisitive Paul, a few evenings since, kept the audience in a continued roar of laughter, and all who saw him on that occasion, will be gratified with this second opportunity to witness the richest representation of the mishaps of a busy-body, that was ever given in our Theatre. "Marble," our course perfumes in the "Vermont-er," and Miss Melton will also appear in some favorite parts, which with the assistance of the other members of the Company, will form one of the most attractive bills of the season. We hope that Mr. L. may have, as he richly deserves, an overflowing house.

When will Mrs. Flynn re-appear in a question that has been asked by many of the patrons of the Theatre, during the past week. For the gratification of the public, & the interest of the Manager, we hope it may be soon. Many who have been delighted with this lady's acting, have expressed a desire to see her in the part of Pauline, in Bulwer's beautiful play of "Lady of Lyons," and if it would suit the manager's arrangements we are certain he would do it to please a favor, & at the same time secure a crowded house, by attending to this suggestion.

Pitt Township.—The Chronicle has a notice about a very useful improvement (the foot walk) now in progress in Pitt township, but it has given the enterprising people of that district, only half the credit they deserve. The Chronicle says the path is to extend only to the Toll Gate, while the fact is that it is to be continued about twice that distance. It is to terminate at Soblo Bridge. The funds necessary to complete it are already subscribed, and the work is rapidly going on. It is now finished as far as the Toll Gate. This walk will be of great advantage to people who live out the Fourth Street Road; and no doubt be a material inducement for those who desire cheap rents to seek dwellings in that direction.

Dr. Collier has been challenged to a discussion upon the subject of Animal Magnetism, by a Dr. Harding, of Philadelphia, and will meet him, of course, in Prov. Chon.

In this Harding the Pittsburgher who favored the citizens of Pittsburgh with his performances last fall. If so, how did he get the prefix "Dr."? By the bye, there are some people in this city who would like to hear from him.

The New York Aurora says that "they get up false alarms of fire in Boston and then knock down the watchmen who interfere to stop such noisy and unpleasant fun."

We are at a loss to find out the notions of our cotemporary, so far as fun is concerned; we always thought he failed on correct and sound fundamental principles, and never thought that he was of a reckless disposition as to gather meretricious from what we consider serious violation of our laws.—Boston Times.

"Violation of laws," pish! Who cares for laws that interfere with the sports of the lovers of fight? Our police are too good natured to interfere.

The Turks.—We saw a couple of fine looking Ottomans going down street yesterday.

The American republishes an extract from a letter from Harrisburg, which appeared in the Post of Saturday, and in which it was written at home. We have only to assure the public that the letter was written at the place where it is dated, by a gentleman well acquainted with the matters of which he speaks.

VERMIFUGE.

SHINN & SELLERS' VERMIFUGE.
Warranted equal to any now before the public. No harmful effects, or will be without effect a trial. Worms frequently infest children, and consequently great disturbances in the system, and should be prepared with great care, and of the best materials, and it is to be feared that many of the worm medicines in use are totally destitute of the qualities. The Vermifuge now in the market that can be procured, and it is gaining for itself a reputation which entitles it to a large share of public patronage. The efficacy of this one of its greatest enemies is fully attested by the accompanying Certificate.

The following certificate is from the Rev. C. C. Cook, pastor of one of the Methodist Episcopal churches in Pittsburgh, December 14, 1885.

Messrs. Shinn and Sellers—I gave your little daughter, a few weeks since, and she is now the healthiest child I have ever known. I have never seen her again, and she is now the healthiest child I have ever known. I have never seen her again, and she is now the healthiest child I have ever known.
