FOR SAFETY.

From the Liverpool Chronicle of April 8: THE LONDON MILLINERS. The aristocratic lad es why muster in London

ry into one journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the tille of the Daily Morning Post. The leading object of the "Post" will be the dissemina-tion and defence of the polkical principles that have here tofore been maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the advancement and success of those doctrines. Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly device and success of those doctrines. Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, candid history of parsing Political events. Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, and brief notices of all mat-ters and occurrences that come property within the subart of a Public Journal, to make their paper sufficiently in-creating to entitle it to the patronage of the public, ir-respective of party considerations. respective of party considerations.
