

DAILY MORNING POST
MAY 24, 1942.

Workingmen's Meeting.
The Workingmen's Committee appointed to devise ways and means to publish a newspaper, will meet this evening at 7 o'clock in Room 21, at the residence of John Ferral.

The Allegiance Mob.
The Mayor is making good progress in ferreting out the perpetrators of the outrage last week; new and important evidence is being secured every day, the names of the guilty will soon be brought to light. None of those whose names have appeared in the papers have been found, except the one who entered bail for his appearance at Court. The city police, aided by the Washingtonians, who have an interest in the ark, will most assuredly bring all the offenders to justice.

ACCIDENT.
On Monday last, while a young man named Wm Marshall, was engaged at work on the Iron Ship, a piece of sheet iron fell from above on his head and made a very bad gash, which will confine him for some time. The accident was caused by the carelessness of persons at work at the top of the ship.

Great fears existed in Allegheny on Monday, lest another attack should be made upon Frank Johnson's Band. The Greys were ready for an attack, which the mob knew, and which no doubt prevented a collision.

"The Daughters of England," one of the most interesting works of the day, from the pen of Mrs Ellis, has been received and is for sale at Berford's. Price, only 12c cents.

Graham's Magazine.
The June number is received at Berford's. It is a rich number, and the embellishments are unusually fine.

Rain.—There was a heavy shower yesterday afternoon, accompanied by thunder. It grew so dark about 4 o'clock that we had to light up. A slight rise in the river may be looked for.

Theatre.—Don't forget that Connor appears to night in one of his best characters, Richieu. It will be seen by the bill that Mr Pickering makes his first appearance as Barnaby. With such an entertainment you anticipate a good house.

Accident.—A gentleman named McKeg (we believe) while travelling the Scobean will turn up, like his buggy partner and himself, his wife and child considerably injured. The horse taking fright at some object on the road, ran off, which caused the accident. The recovery of McKeg, we are told, is doubtful.

Starting.—Who robbed our office on Sunday morning, was yesterday fully committed to stand his trial. He will no doubt go to the Penitentiary again. A few more stolen articles have been found by the constables.

The Treasury Note robbers have been taken to New Orleans, from Washington, when they were arrested.

There is great competition in the Hudson river. Prices of steamboat fare has been reduced to a large extent.

The Philadelphia Freeman had two rows on last Wednesday night.

More than half the accidents that occur to children are occasioned by the negligence of parents.

General Tom Timms says that when last in Washington he had a game of marbles with President Tyler and beat him.

The latest news from England gives the gratifying intelligence that business is still improving in that country.

A company of enterprising young men left Newark, N. J., for the Territory of Florida on Saturday, via New York.

Commercial News.

8 feet water in the channel.
The Express Mail left New Orleans on the morning of the 10th inst., with 64 cabin, 35 way and 2000 passengers.

The Steamer Ione was engaged about 4 miles from Boonville on her last trip up the Missouri. A portion of her cargo was damaged, but the leak was soon stopped and she proceeded on her voyage.

Na-hville, May 16.
The Cumberland is falling slowly; there is a slight water on the shoals, for the largest class of boats.

All boats marked thus (*) are provided with Bona's Life Guard.
