The very fact that more than two hundred men engaged in this expedition is evidence that it is not intended merely to rob the Santa Fe traders, for fifty men would be sufficient for that purpose. We have little doubt that this force is intended to take possession of Santa Fe. Gen Houston, about ten months ago, when he issued his proclamations announcing his intention to invade Mexico, granted a com- Two. PHILLIPS & WM. H. SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETOR mission to Col Warfield, of Missouri, and authorized him to collect a band of voluns teers among the Rocky Mountain hunters and backwoodsmen of the frontiers of Texas and Missouri, for the purpose of overturning the authority of the Central ists in Santa Fe. The recent intelligence from the western burders of Missouri in tice, at Mr. Little's Tavern, to determine duces us to believe that the armed force on the time when the Convention to nominate the borders of Missouri has been collected by Col Warfield or his friends; and, instead of being a band of robbers, is merely a band of Texan emigrants, who are autle in Santa Fe. And as they are probably ere this beyond the territory of the U nited States, and within the limits of Tex as, troops of the United States, wilbe un
