DAILY MORNING POSTA

From the Richmond Enguirer. Reply to Mr. Botts.

Sins: In an article above the signature THE Subscribers having made arrangements to merge the American Manufacturer and Pittsburgh Mercu- of 'John M Botts,' which appeared in the ry into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily 'Richmond Whig' of the 10th inst, and to ry into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the title of the Daily Morning Post.

The leading object of the "Post" will be the dissemination and defence of the political principles that have here tofore been maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the advancement and success of those doctrines.

Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, this a daily "Richmond Whig' of the 10th inst, and to the truth of which Mr Botts has made solther truth of which Mr Botts democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, candid history of passing Political events. Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, and brief notices of all matters and occurrences that come property within the sphere of a Public Journal, to make their paper sufficiently incresting to entitle it to the patronage of the public, irrespective of party considerations. respective of party considerations.

In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the businesss community with the latest and most futeresting Community in the latest and most futeresting Community with the latest and most fu red such accounts of the Country, and to have prepared such accounts of the Markets and the State of Trade as will be advantageous to our Merchants and Business dession since last fall, will either sustain

Advertisements will be inserted at the lowest rates following in reference to myself: When it shall have been charged upon me, by the most eminent and honorable members of the Bar, and mude a matter of record, that I have obtained by fraud a Bond from an idiot ward, and that charge shall be sustained by the high Court of Chancery n Virginia, I shall be perpetually enjoined and restrained from ever realizing the unfortunate young friend, who looked up to me as his friend and second father, then it will be time enough for me to shrink from such a controversy.' Now Mr Botts has made seference to the record in the suit of Blakely vs Tyler, which he says he has had in his possession since last fall, and avouches the truth of the fore. going statement, by way of making it more oath. The public, doubtless, are willing to believe all that Mr Botts, says since he has sworn to it, and declares also, that what he has thus solemnly affirmed, is sustained by the record. He has, in a few words declared under outh, that I obtained a bond by fraud of my idiot ward, a confiding and unfortunate young friend, who looked up to me as a second father, and that bond thus obtained, was perpetually Travelers should select Boats provided with Frames enjoined by the high Court of Chuncery. Can you believe, sire, that there is not you not therefore to meet them with a corresponding tween us for come years anterior to the burgh, where they manufacture and seeing Pittsburgh every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so completely in your own power to avoid those disasters.

All hoats marked thus [*] in the List of Arrivals and of any sort. Mr George Blakely, his Departures, in another part of this pater, are supplied brother-in-law, was his guardian, and I had nothing to do with him or his. I need not add that, no such bond as that above described by Mr Botts ever having been in existence, all the rest of his statement is equally fabulous—and yet that statement is made under oath, by a person who challenges the belief of all; and that, too, with a record in his possession for the space of six months, which he avouches to sustain + these allegations. I will notitrust myself to speak further in reference to this. I rather pity the man, who can be so far misled by intemperate passion, as to interpolate statemente as facts into a transaction, otherwise perfectly innocent, in order to injure another. If I had obtained a bond of an idiot ward, who looked up to me as his second father, by fraudulent practices, then, indeed, should I be the wretch I was not born to be.'

I will give the public an account of the transaction, which led to the suit of Blakes ly vs. Tyler, as nearly as my memory will enable me to do it. If I fall into an error my answer in the case can be readily turned to, in order to correct the inaccuracy. The suit originated more than twenty years ago in the Chancery Court of Willismsburg, and was transferred some years afterwards to FOWLER'S PATENT BED- the Chancery Court at Richmond, where it had lingered ever since, until tired of the contest, I compromised with some of the parties, and finally settled with others the whole matter in dispute. It grew out of the following facts: A few days after iny return from Washington, in the year 1819. where I was then serving as a member of the House of Representatives from the Richmond District, I was waited upon, in my character of an Attorney at Law, by Philip J Lightfoot, then fully of age, and his fathersin law, Willian Hall, to consult with me in relation to the affairs of the said ANUFACTUREDat Wes. Levauran's Cabinet Shop | Philip J Lightfoot. Lightfoot had made a where a general assortment of Furniture may be had at reduced prices for cash.
