G'Connell's History of Ireland .- The Sexton of St. Patrick's Church has received ed a few copies of Casserly and Son's edia tion of O'Connell's History of Ireland, and they are now for sale at the Sacristy of the Celebrated Play Church. This is the most powerfully written book of the day, and the amount of labor and research that was necessary in its preparation of its contents shows the de- LA JEUNNE CANADIENNE will dance an orivotion of its author to his country.

Theatre.-Since the engagement of Mr. Eaton the houses have been unusually good. He is still a favorite with the lovers of the drama in this city; and he deserves the warmest support of all who have a taste for good acting. To-night he appears as Sir Edward Mortimer, in the Iron Lower Boxes, 50 cents | Second Tie, 37 cents Chest. This is one of his master pieces, and should ensure a large and fashionable audience, particularly as the whole piece is strongly cast. La Jennne Canadienne, the celebrated danseuse, appears to night. O' Monday morning at 10 o'clock, a large lot of Dry This ennouncement will be received with and Bleached Muslins, superior Prints., and a lot of accurred the same for my son.
