DATEY MORNING POST

JUNE 1, 1842.

See the Theatre bill for to-night .-Joc-ko-Set appears in a new drama. -Miss Cohen also appears in two dances.

The last five or six mornings have been so cold that several persons have put up their stoves again. They might as well let them stand, for from appearances, winter will be here before the summer is over.

That poor crazy girl was in the streets again on Tuesday, followed by crowds of boys, who appeared to take great amusement in her wild behaviour. Has she no friends? We are informed she has, and that they hold sufficient property in her right, to provide her a comfortable home in the Insans Asylum. If this is so, they must be Doors open at 7 o'clock, Performance to comatrengly callous not only to the comforts of the Lower Boxes, 50 cents | Second Tie, 37 cents poor girl, but to the estimation in which the pub.
