METTERNICH AND EUROPE.

VIENNA, -

Continued.

Here my phantasy suddenly left me and I again was alone at the bal pare. The Polonaise was a ver and the fast dances began. My heart several times wavered powerfully at the view of the beaut mean while altered into a playing room. Whist In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the business community with the latest and most interesting Community with the latest and most interesting Community in the latest and most interesting Community with the saven from all parts of the country, and to have prepared such accounts of the Markets and the State of Trade savening counts of the Markets and the State of Trade savening force in succession from her incautious force man, the King of Trumps with the Acc. This ceiving that she was in the saloon at Metternichi every one was silent however, and I, who was standing behind her, took good care not to laugh! Cards and dice are instruments of the d-1 the learned reverend gentleman preaches from the: pulpit. The States of Germany are a pack of cards, numbering 38, in the hands of the German onfederation; Austria has all the Trumps and the lead; Russia, the invited 'Dumme' sits behisd hand; Austria, Prussia and Bavaria continually play clubs; Russia spades; Baden and Wirtumberg formerly gave in hearts, but for several months they no longer get one trick from Prussia and Austria, and the Russian Dumme'has at leat taken all their hearts with spades. Louis Phillip might have assisted them in the beginning by making Hearts Trumps again; but he is too greet a friend of Caro (dog.) 1 am curious to know, how the game will come out; as every single German State sticks in the mire, (Schlamm) they will; teking them all together, be (Schlemm) in the di

Taking apart the diplomatical and political and considering the company personally, I must say, that such a crowd of good hearts seldom assemble Travelers should select Boats provided with Evan's together, I refer, however, chiefly to the Austria Safety Quards, for preventing Explosion of Steam ans, considered as men only, the Austrian proper-Safety Guards, for preventing Explosion of Steam Boilers.

It would be well for the traveling community to beat in mind that their security depends entirely upon their own encouragement of boats that have or may be at the expense of procuring the above apparatus. And that every individual making such selection is contributing towards a general introduction of an invention admitted by all men who understand the principles of the Steam Englie, to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters. You have celetainly, in the handeeds of explosions that have already taken place, their almost daily occurrence, and the thousands of lives that have already been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a Safety guard Boat, and in every case to give it the preference. They have went to an additional expense that your preference show that you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this aw you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop the laudable endeavors to st ly speaking, not including the Bohemian, Hungadegree of liberality, and by your preference show that you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrifice of human life. They do not charge more than other boats; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and in many cases superior; and as there is no leaving Pittshurgh every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so commetely in your own power to avoid those disasters.

The Austrian degree of liberal time in the country. The high nobility too have, some beart, but, from political reasons, there are many afficiency exceptions. Familie, for instance, like the noble Lichtensen in Vienna are nasty, sordid individuals; I shall refer to them again. The Austrian convold those disasters. Ali houts marked thus [a] in the List of Arrivals and hearts are followed by the Hungarian, but great despotism of the Hungarian nobility towards a subject is terrible. I heard many Austrian farmers righteously remark : "I wish we had a constitution; but, should the Hungarian be proposed, I would rather have none at all!" This excepted there are many good, hospitable men in Hungary; the misery of the peasants might perhaps have already been corrected, if the better Hungarian noplemen had fair play. But I forgot the ball al-

After suppor the dancing immediately commenced and even the Diplomatists also danced To see satiated Diplomatists dance, afforded me new pleasure. It appeared to me as if I should run after them, to tack upon the corner of the coat of each individual his piece of the Girman father and, mercly to have the pleasure of seeing some States dragged about the Palace of Metternich. To see a young Diplomatist, who wears an order, because he did perhaps once pick up the rightcap of the minister—dance a Gallop-ade, is the drollest thing you can see. His whole turning and hopping has such an easy heavinete; ron virtuousness and, I might say, is so legiti mutely jack pudding like, that you can read al-leady on the point of his shoes; I am destined to tand still in motion and my business is, to be a little something by much nothing. The ball dress fits him so tight, that it is inaccessible to any draught of air and the forced seriousness in the young, insignificant face looks like a burnt crust on a piece of Pumpernickel. I imagined to be suddenly transposed to a hen house, where young chicken sit upon old eggs, without being ble to lay any themselves. Supper had made the ladics warm; the dance now made them sweat and a thick ministerial vapor began to fill the sea loons, I thought it time to be off.

Mr. Jaudoni The N. Y. Tribune says, - Among the passengers by the Great Western was Mr faudon. Some of the papers have stated that the object of this gentlemen's visit to Europe was to enter into negotiation with the foreign holders of Pennsylvania bonds. in connection with the late act of the Legislature of that State authorizing the sale of the Public Works for bonds. We apprehend that in this they are entirely in error, and that the business which has sent Mr his financial ability is to well known to
