

The members of the Trades' Union will be gratified to learn that an important communication was received by last night's mail, from their Cincinnati friends.

Theater.—The entertainments for tonight, are the richest, most varied, epicest and most attractive that have been presented this season. They are for the benefit of the deserving stage manager, Mr. Gunn. Don't forget to read his bill.

The entertainments of to-morrow evening are for the benefit of the widow and orphan children of the late C. H. Eaton.

We thought so.—The wicked attempt to fire Dr. Gazzan's row turns out to be a hoax. We cannot help wondering, however, that after the dreadful breeze kicked up by the Age about it, it should end in smoke.

The "friends of union" held their primary meetings on Saturday evening, and we believe strong resolutions were adopted at all of them, condemning a union with the blue-ones.

The Whig Convention.—This body meets today at the new Court House.—There will be a great deal of boring by the candidates already nominated and their friends, to have their names placed upon the new ticket, but with what success we cannot say. What may be the result of their deliberation to-day we cannot conjecture, and moreover care very little.

We have frequently experienced dull times for news, but never did we see such a dearth as at present. It is true that everything is full of life and activity around us, but no accidents occur. Queer times are these: No person is fool enough to commit suicide now, while business is reviving; no elegants, nor funny marriages; no mad dogs, nor hawthorn this season; no showers of blood, fish, nor paying stones, no, no, nothing; except, indeed, the Railroad and the Trades' Union. These two institutions have monopolized public attention and seem likely to keep possession.

Our readers grumble at us, but we can't help it. We might manufacture news; but once we attempted it and the grumbling was louder than ever now. Our "news machine," in consequence, was thrown aside. We might say a great deal about the weather, but that, unfortunately, is a subject that every person has studied as much as ourselves, and perhaps more; and all our recent attempts at doing items about it have proved abortive.

We are in a quandary and without hope of relief, until the politicians get a little warmer. Then we will endeavor to do up something in the excitement line.

The fountain in the Park, New York, has been turned into a goose pond. Two unhappy looking geese are put in and taken out, daily, for the amusement of a large number, who stand by and look at them paddle in the dirty mud puddle.

The saying that "knowledge is wealth," puzzled the lady who asked "why, if it were true, so many literary men were poor?"

The police books of New York are filled with descriptions of lost property.—The increase of crime is that city is really alarming.

The Borough of Chester, Pa. is about decaying death and destruction to the extent race having passed a law that effect.

A man was recently returned to his wife and family, in Louisville, Ky. after an absence of 20 years, during which he had been campaigning in South America.

Eggs are selling in Cincinnati at four cents a dozen. Cheap.

The Louisville Journal states that Dr. Charles Stuart, exhibited to the editor 500 skeins of sewing silk manufactured in his family. It is of various colors, and pronounced in all respects a superior article. The dying was done by his wife, and the colors are bright and fast.

The New Orleans Treasury Note robbers were carried through Mobile on the 24th ult.

It is said that Dowden, the young man charged with the embezzlement of the cancelled Treasury notes at Washington, will probably succeed in establishing his innocence.

The people of Missouri think that St. Louis will yet be the greatest city in the Union excepting THE COMMERCIAL EMPORIUM.—N. Y. Sun.

They won't say that when once the Pittsburgh Railroad is completed.

Fraternizer in Cincinnati.—The Cincinnati Times of the 3d says. A "Fourier Association," we learn, was organized last evening in this city, and a Committee appointed to draft a Constitution, &c., &c.

Harrington, the actor, well known in this country, was, on the 21st ult., accidentally shot on the stage, at Reading, England, wounding him so severely as to cause his death.
