Occasionally one goes away, but his place is soon supplied by a new one fresh from the "big house," and thus a full band is kept up, regularly organized for plunder. The only remedy for the cvil is an efficient police.

Fighting -Trials of strength in the rough old fashioned way are quite common in Pitraburgh and vicinity just now. The duliness that pervades the community generally, and the loafing part of them particularly, has made a vacuum which must neces sarily be filled up by that species of exgreat affir to kick up a fight, and so they
