B. DONAGHY.

CAUSTIC or the Knife was formerly resorted to in all cases of burns, scalds and wounds, where mortifiction was apprehended. The necessity for such sharp practice exists no longer. The Magical Pain Extractor, from Comstock & M'Carden Lane is a far more efficient preventive of mortification than the actual cautery or nitrate of silver. The application of this wonderful compound instantly removes the local pain, and if the wound, scald, burn or bruise has not injured some vital organ so as to render cure impossible, it will in a very short space of time restore the part affected to a sound and healthy state without leaving the clearing behind. This preparation is also a certain remedy for inflamed eyes, cancerous sores, ulcers, broken breast and sore nipple and all erysipelatous and eruptions of the skin. Its success as a cure for the piles is unparalleled and the vouchers for its curative properties are from the most respectable and enlightened sources.—Herald.
For sale at Tuttle's, 86 Fourth street.

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY—East India Hair Die—colors the hair and will not the skin This Dye is in the form of a Powder which is plain matte, of fact may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest or grey hair to dark brown, and by repeating a second or third night, to a jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble, keep his hair any dark shade or a perfect black, with the positive assurance that the powder if applied to the skin will not color it. There is no coloring in this statement, as any one may easily test. These facts are warranted by the chemist who manufactures it.

FRANKLIN HOUSE, PHILADELPHIA.
THIS elegant establishment has been in operation during the last nine months, and notwithstanding the general depression of business, it has met and sustained the approbation of the public and yielded to the proprietors a full compensation for their labor and attention. Its location being in Chestnut street, in the immediate neighborhood of the Post office, the Exchange, Banks, the Steamboat landing, the most business part of Market street and the places of amusement, it presents to the business community or those visiting the city on pleasure, all the facilities and comforts so desirable to the travelling public. Its arrangement, also, enables the guest to regulate his expenses, and to live in a style of elegance or economy suited to his notions or disposition. The facility of procuring meals at any hour, and of getting that which the appetite craves, is also a saver of time which the business portion of the guests know how to appreciate. The proprietors, therefore, solicit the custom of their old friends, and promise a continuance of their exertions to make them comfortable.

The attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. Kirby.
"I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, and agrees well with my stomach, and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can freely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. BETTER BARGAINS THAN EVER AT THE THREE BIG DOORS.
THE subscriber would respectfully inform his customers and the public generally, that notwithstanding the unprecedented sales at the Three Big Doors, during the present season; he has still on hand the largest and most varied assortment of elegant CLOTHING that can be bought west of the mountains. The public may rest assured that all articles offered at his store are manufactured from FRESH GOODS, purchased in the Eastern markets this Spring, and made into garments by Pittsburgh workmen.
In consequence of the multiplication of slop shops in our city, filled with pawn-brokers clothes and the musty, cast off garments of former seasons, from the eastern cities, the public should be cautious to ascertain the character of the establishments in which they are invited to purchase, before they part with their money. The articles offered at several of the concerns in this city, are the mere offals of New York and Philadelphia slop shops, and sent out here to be palmed off on the Pittsburgh public. Purchasers should be on their guard against these impositions, and they may rely on the fact that no establishment that advertises eastern made Clothing, can give as good an article or as advantageous a bargains an can be had at the "Three Big Doors."
The public will please remember that all the subscriber's garments are made in this city, by competent workmen, and not gathered up like the goods now offered by the "birds of passage" from the shreds and patches of eastern slop shops. It will always be his endeavor to maintain the reputation that the "Three Big Doors" have obtained for furnishing a superior style of CLOTHING in every respect, and at prices below those of any other establishment.
He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at the lowest price to cash at No. 151, LIBERTY ST. PROSPECTUS!
For publishing a new Daily Paper in the City of Pittsburgh, to be entitled the
DAILY MORNING POST.

THE Subscribers having made arrangements to merge the American Manufacturer and Pittsburgh Mercury into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the title of the Daily Morning Post.
The leading object of the "Post" will be the dissemination and defence of the political principles that have heretofore been maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the advancement and success of those doctrines.
Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, candid history of passing Political events, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, and brief notices of all matters and occurrences that come properly within the sphere of a Public Journal, to make their paper sufficiently interesting to entitle it to the patronage of the public, irrespective of party considerations.
In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the business community with the latest and most interesting COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE from all parts of the country, and to have prepared such accounts of the Markets and the State of Trade as will be advantageous to our Merchants and Business Men in their several callings.
Terms.—The POST will be published on a large imperial sheet of fine paper, (manufactured especially for this Journal) at the unusually low rate of FIVE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. It will also be sold by news boys at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy.
Advertisements will be inserted at the lowest rates charged by the other daily papers of the city.
☞ TWENTY active lads are wanted to sell the Post, who will be engaged on the most liberal terms

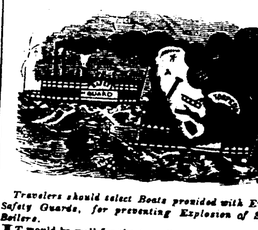
FOR SAFETY.



Travelers should select Boats provided with Evans's Safety Guards, for preventing Explosion of Steam Boilers.

IT would be well for the traveling community to bear in mind that their security depends entirely upon their own encouragement of boats that have or may be at the expense of procuring the above apparatus. And that every individual making such selection is contributing towards a general introduction of an invention admitted by all men who understand the principles of the Steam Engine, to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters [illegible] to have certainly, in the hundreds of explosions that have already taken place, their almost daily occurrence, and the thousands of lives that have already been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a Safety guard Boat, and in every case to give it the preference. They have went to an additional expense that your lives may be secure. Ought you not therefore to meet them with a corresponding degree of liberality, and by your preference show that you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrifice of human life. They do not charge more than other boats; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and in many cases superior; and as there is one leaving Pittsburgh every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so comfortely in your own power to avoid those disasters.
All boats marked thus [o] in the List of Arrivals and Departures, in another part of this paper, are supplied with the Safety Guard.

DAILY MORNING POST

From the N. Y. Aurora.

JOHN A. BRYAN,

Now Second Assistant Postmaster General, is a gentleman with whose talents and character we desire his fellow citizens, throughout the country, should be more fully acquainted. He was formerly a citizen of this state, held several important offices under its government, and, some fifteen years ago, was member of the legislature from one of the western counties. Shortly after this, he emigrated to Ohio and took up his residence at Columbus, the capital of the state. It is not now, if it ever was, an objection to a man that he has been a distinguished champion of republican principles, as the editor of a leading public journal. If it were, none but men of meagre intellect and grovelling aspirations would unite themselves with the press, and it would consequently sink into insignificance and cease to be, as we claim it is, the palladium of public liberty. It is therefore not a profession which should be shunned, but rather one which invites those who seek distinction by the exhibition of high mental and moral powers, to embrace the facilities it affords for a direct and constant communication with the people. Sensible of such an advantage, Mr. Bryan, upon his settlement in the state of his adoption, took charge of the leading democratic press of the state as its editor, and soon became so eminently distinguished as a political writer, and exhibited endowments of such superiority, that he was selected by his political friends as a candidate, and elected, by the legislature, to the most important office in its gift—that of auditor of state—corresponding in its responsibilities and laborious duties with the comptrollership of New York. In this station he acquitted himself with distinguished ability, and at the end of his first term of three years, was re-elected by the unanimous vote of his democratic friends, and with the entire approbation of the people whose interests he had so faithfully and ably sustained.

During the whole of his career in Ohio, his unyielding devotion to democratic principles made him more perhaps than any other man, an object of attack by his political opponents; but he was on all occasions more than a match for his adversaries, and able to sustain himself and the cause he had espoused against all opposition,
