CURE OF A CANCEROUS SORE. Fing Sino, January 21, 1843.

Doctor Benjumin Brandreth... Honored Sic: Owing to you a debt of gratitude that money cannot pay, I no induced to make a public acknowledgement of the benefit my wife has derived from your invaluable pills. About three years this winter she was taken with a pain in her ankle, which soon became very much inflamed and ankle, which soon became very much inflamed and swollen, so much so that we became alarmed, and sent for the doctor. During his attendance the pain and swelling increased to an starming degree, and in three weeks from its first commencing it became a running sore.

She could get no rest at night the pain was so great.

Our first Doctor attended her for six months, and she received no benefit whatever, the pain growing worse and the sore larger all the while. He said if it was heal ed un it would be her death, but he appeared to be at a to suffer the most terrible tortures. We therefore sought her aid in a Botanical doctor, who said when he first saw it that he could soon cure the sore, and give her Expensers and Builders are requested to call before at once.
