crofula; King's Evit, attended with swellings, and ulcers.

Eyes and Loss of Sight, to a frightful extent has been cured. Ermales pining away by reason of secretions, broken callessing, and betracted menses, (monthly courses, even when attended by a corfus, handless conditions). have been readily relieved. Dyspensia yields without a struggle to its mild yet powerfull action upon the stomach. or Cough, Rheumatism and Fistula it never fails to cure, The tincture tends directly to excite a healthy action in he stomach, liver, Jungs and kidneys-to purify the blood and other fluids, by expelling every particle of morbid matter from the system, and therefore never falls, (with its accompaniments,) to prove a valuable remedy for the diseases for which ealomel has been invariably used. Old sores or ulcers or any chronic affection; ami for the calonel disease it is an infallible remedy.

This remedy is perfectly vegetable, mid, agreeable, and safe for persons of any age, either sex, or in any condition; acknowledged by those who have tried it, to e the best known family medicine. The justly celebrated Tincture creates a craving appetite, and the patient is left at liberty to indulge it,—indeed he is particularly requested to do so. The use of this medicine will change his complexion from a pallid to a fine blooming one. After using this Thecture for weeks, a person of any age may eat any thing that a child of ten years of zge, in full health, could eat with.
