Coroner's Inquest.

Yesterday Coroner Chambers held an inquest on the body of a man named Hugh Reeney, who died in a most wretched state of disease and destitution in the yard of Smith's Hotel, 5th ward .-The following is the verdict and report of the Jury. ALLEGHENY COUNTY, S.S.

An Inquisition indented taken on the 10th day of July 1843, before me, John Chambers, Coroner of the county aforesaid upon the view of the body of Hugh Rooney, then and there lying dead in yerd of Mr. Smith in the 5th ward, upon the oathe of George Stewart, Dr. Haslet, W. Mathaws, James Robb, W. Gates, Alex. Robb, John Bates, Daniel Peace, John Stewart, John Hays, Joseph R. McG nais, and Arthur Tiernan, good Commonwealth, how, when, where and after what manner the said Hugh Rooney came to his death, do say: That the said Hugh Kooney came to his death by exposure and want of care while laboring under the Influenza and Dropsy, and not otherwise. In witness whereof, as well the aforesaid Coroner as the Jurors aforesaid, have to this Inqui i ien put their scals, on the day and year, and at the place first above mentioned. The Inquest Jury eannot permit this occasion to pass without expressing their decided disaption of the general conduct of the Querseers reduction of salaries of public officers has received the of the Poor of the city of Pi tsburgh, in reference approbation of large majorities of the people, the under to distressed strangers, and that, in the opinion signed would not should be be so fortunate as to be cle of this Inquest, the Overseers of the Poor of the led, in any manner attempt to resist this salutary re city should be residents of the city, in order that they may be found when their services are required. The Inquest are fully convinced that the Overseers of the Poor are highly censurable for their conduct in reference to Hugh Rooney, de ceased, inasmuch as they had legal notice of the distressed condition of the deceased, at least twenty-four hours before his death, yet they suffered him to perish like a beast in the yard of a public Worse and more of it. We have frequently felt it our du'y to notice the crowds of loafers that a semble particularly on Sunday evenings, at the corners, and whose chief ing of the stockholders is appointed to be noiden in amusement consists insulting ladies who are passing to and from church. But has Sunday night it was really outrageous. A crowd of the most tion of seven managers, treasuret, secretary and such other officers as may be necessary, and for other purpo ses, as is directed by law. ty, gathered at Fahnestock's corner, and ladie and respentable men were compelled to leave the pavement and take the middle of the stre t. The police are very active in picking up inoff nsive creatures whom they find lying in the gu ters; but we are of opinion that these equads of loafers are more intolerable and annoying than a'l the bloats in town. Will the constables attend to this?
