FRANKLIN HOUSE, PHILADELPHIA.

THIS elegant establishment has been in operation during the last nine months, and notwithstanding the general depression of business, it has met and sustained the approbation of the public and yielded to the proprietors a full compensation for their labor and attention. Its location being in Chestnut street, in the immediate neighborhood of the Post office, the Exchange, Banks, the Steamboat landing, the most business part of Market street and the places of amusement, it presents to the business community or those visiting the city on pleasure, all the facilities and comforts so desirable to the travelling public. Its arrangement, also, enables the guest to regulate his expenses, and to live in a style of elegance or economy suited to his notions or disposition. The facility of procuring meals at any hour, and of getting that which the appetite craves, is also a saver of time which the business portion of the guests know how to appreciate. The proprietors, therefore, solicit the custom of their old friends, and promise a continuance of their exertions to make them comfortable.

BETTER BARGAINS THAN EVER AT THE THREE BIG DOORS.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his customers and the public generally, that notwithstanding the unprecedented sales at the Three Big Doors, during the present season; he has still on hand the largest and most varied assortment of elegant CLOTHING that can be bought west of the mountains. The public may rest assured that all articles offered at his store are manufactured from FRESH GOODS, purchased in the Eastern markets this Spring and made into garments by Pittsburgh workmen.

In consequence of the multiplication of slop shops in our city, filled with pawn brokers clothes and the musty cast off garments of inferior towns from the eastern cities, the public should be cautious to ascertain the character of the establishments to which they are invited to purchase, before they part with their money. The articles offered at several of the concerns in this city, are the mere offals of New York and Philadelphia slop shops, and sent out here to be worked off on the Pittsburgh public. Purchasers should be on their guard against these impositions, and they may rely on the fact that no establishment that advertises eastern made Clothing, can always good an article or as advantageous bargains as can be had at the "Three Big Doors."

The public will please remember that all the subscriber's garments are made in this city, by competent workmen, and not gathered up like the goods now offered by the "shreds of passage" from the shreds and patches of eastern slop shops. It will always be his endeavor to maintain the reputation that the "Three Big Doors" have obtained for furnishing a superior style of CLOTHING in every respect, and at prices below those of any other establishment.

He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at the lowest price to call at No. 151, LIBERTY ST. JOHN M'CLOSKY.
☞ Observe Metal Plate in the pavement. ap 26.

NEW YORK DYER.

OSEE HIMES, would respectfully inform his friends and the public in general, that he dies Ladies' dresses, Habits and Mantels of every description, black—and warrants them not to smut, and to look equal to new goods. He dyes fancy colors of all descriptions on silk and carpet yarn. Also, cleans and restores the colors of gentlemen's clothing, so as to resemble new goods.

Mr. H. flatters himself that he can please the public, as he has done an extensive business in New York for twenty years. All work done on moderate terms at his establishment in 5th st, between Wood and Smithfield near the Theatre.

CERTIFICATE.

☞ This is to certify that OSEE HIMES has done work for us, which has fully answered our expectations, and we consider him a competent dyer.

The attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

"I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can freely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersburg.

ABSOLUTE HEAL ALL.

10,000 TRIALS, and all successful prove DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR inestimable. It not only cures quicker, but gives no additional pain, nor leaves a scar. Fire is positively rendered harmless. ($10 has been offered six months to any person returning an empty box, and saying that all agony on anointing is not extracted in a few minutes, yet not one from thousands of trials since has claimed the bonus.) Parents anxious to guard against generous injuries, and save time, fortune and life, and prevent their offspring from being disfigured by burns, or even small pox pustules, (it possessing the enviable power to replace the cellutary organs destroyed,) can do so by obtaining this inimitable salve. Many deeply burnt cases in the city can be seen, and one entire face burnt over and wounded three distinct times in the same spot while healing, yet in no case can be traced the least cicatrice or mark! For all kinds of burns its rapid soothing effects are too important; even sore eyes, all inflamations and broken breasts would be unknown. The toilet and nursery, for clearing the skin of pimples, removing chafe, etc., will find it indispensable. One using only will forever establish the sovereign HEAL-ALL quality. After this notice, heads of families allowing torture for months, and ultimately distorted features, can never wipe away reproach, justly uttered by a disabled child, for neglecting to triumph over fire.

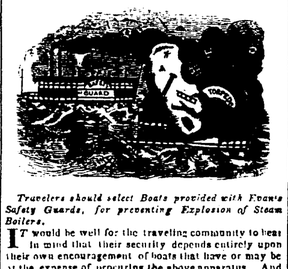
FOR SAFETY.



Travelers should select Boats provided with Evans's Safety Guards, for preventing Explosion of Steam Boilers.

IT would be well for the traveling community to bear in mind that their security depends entirely upon their own encouragement of boats that have or may be at the expense of procuring the above apparatus. And that every individual making such selection is contributing towards a general introduction of an invention admitted by all men who understand the principles of the Steam Engine, to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters You have certainly, in the hundreds of explosions that have already taken place, their almost daily occurrence, and the thousands of lives that have already been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a Safety guard Boat, and in every case to give it the preference. They have went to an additional expense that your lives may be secure. Ought you not therefore to meet them with a corresponding degree of liberality, and by your preference show that you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrifice of human life. They do not charge more than other boats; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and in many cases superior; and as there is one leaving Pittsburgh every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so completely in your own power to avoid those disasters.

All boats marked thus [a] in the List of Arrivals and Departures in another part of this paper, are supplied with the Safety Guard.

THE LITERARY POST.

THEODORE HOOK.

Berners-Street Hoax.—The crown and consummation of all this was the 'Berners-Street Hoax,' in 1809. It is recorded that in walking down that street one day his companion called his attention to the particularly neat and modest appearance of a house, the residence, as appeared from the poor-plate, of some decent shop-keeper's widow. 'I'll lay you a guinea,' said Theodore, 'that in one week that nice, modest dwelling shall be the most famous in all London.' The bet was taken. In the course of four or five days Hook had written and despatched one thousand letters, conveying orders to tradesmen of every sort within the bills of mortality, all to be executed on one particular day, and as nearly as possible at one fixed hour. From wagons of coals, and potatoes (says Gurney) to books, prints, feathers, ices, jellies, cranberry tarts—nothing in any way whatever available to any human being, but was commanded from scores of rival dealers scattered over our 'province of bricks,' from Wapping to Lambeth, from Whitechapel to Paddington. In 1809, Oxford Road was not approachable either from Westminster, or Mayfair, or from the City, otherwise than through a complicated series of lanes. It may be feebly and afar off guessed what the crash and jam and tumult of that day was. Hook had provided himself with a lodging nearly opposite the fated No—, and there, with a couple of trusty allies, he watched the development of the mid day melo-drama.—But some of the dramatic personæ were seldom, if ever, alluded to in the latter times. He had no objections to bodying forth the arrival of the Lord Mayor and his Chaplain, invited to take the death-bed confession of a peculating common councilman; but he would rather have buried in oblivion that precisely the same sort of liberty was taken with the Governor of the Bank, the Chairman of the East India Company, a Lord Chief Justice, a Cabinet Minister,—above all, with the Archbishop of Canterbury, and His Royal Highness the Commander-in-Chief. They all obeyed the summons—every pious and patriotic feeling had been most movingly appealed to we are not sure they all reached Berners-Street; but the Duke of York's military punctuality and crimson liveries brought him to the point of attack before the poor widow's astonishment had risen
