

WEEKLY POST.

PITTSBURGH, TUESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1914.

For business cards, etc., see first page.

A TROTTING MATCH, in harness, came off on Saturday between two aged gentlemen of this city. It was a private affair, and but few persons knew that it was to take place...

FORN, at his Depot on Clair street, has received a first rate lot of Stages - drop in and look at them, and you'll be certain to give them a puff.

CARRETT'S MATTING - The Journeymen Carpenters of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity, hold an annual meeting in the Wm. Penn Engine House, near Blackhawk's Factory, this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

THE WEATHER - Warm once more - entirely too warm for comfort, but the evenings afford us a respite from the heat.

FAIR ABANDON OF FIRE - We have one regularly every four hours. Quiver things for this season of the year.

O. Q. - The new Engine Company had a meeting on Saturday night last, and permanently organized by electing officers. They are getting their machine repaired and painted.

TUCKED UP - A fellow named Bill Andrews, was yesterday brought before his Honor, the Mayor, for disorderly conduct in the case of Mr. Wilhelm, in the 4th Ward. He struggled desperately with the officers, and though he was a little man, they had as much as they could do to haul him along.

DAM No. 1 - We are told that, from present appearance, the Dam will not be retained at all. Reason - can't raise the needed money. Some efforts have been made to procure money for the purpose, but without success.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL. We understand from the Baltimore papers that J. McLean Gardner, who inflicted the wound on the steamer C. A. Washburn, on Tuesday, on board the steamer C. A. Washburn, is generally believed, here laboring under mental derangement previous to, and at the time he committed the act, was on Thursday afternoon, at 10 o'clock, brought before a special session of the Baltimore City Court, under a writ of habeas corpus.

When the examination of this witness began, he testified that he was on the steamer C. A. Washburn, on Tuesday, on board the steamer C. A. Washburn, and that he was on the steamer C. A. Washburn, on Tuesday, on board the steamer C. A. Washburn.

THE CITIZENS OF PITTSBURGH AND VICINITY are respectfully informed that the above mentioned building is to be sold on Monday evening, the 14th inst., for the full amount of the mortgage thereon, and that the proceeds of the sale will be applied to the payment of the same.
