In consequence of the multiplication of slop shops in our city, filled with pawn brokers clothes and the musty, cast off garments of former seasons, from the eastern cities, the public should be cautious to ascertain the character of the establishments in which they are invited to purchase, before they part with their money. The articles offered at several of the concerns in this city, are the mere offals of New York and Philadelphia slop shops, and sent out here to be palmed off on the Pitts-burgh public. Purchasers should be on their guard against these impositions, and they may rely on the fact that no establishment that advertises eastern made Clo thing, can give as good an article or as advantageous bargains as can be had at the "Three Big Doors."

The public will please remember that all the subscriber's garments are made in this city, by competent workmen, and not gathered up like the goods now offered by the "birds of passage" from the shreds and patches of castern slop shops. To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I nave been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can since sely recommend it to all others similarly afficred.
