Greater Bargains than ever, at the Three Big Doors.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform his customers and the public generally, that notwithstanding the unprecedented sales at the Three Big Doors, during the present season he has still on hand the best and most varied assortment of elegant CLOTHING that can be bought west of the mountains,—public may rest assured that all articles offered at store are manufactured from FRESH GOODS, purchased in the Eastern markets this spring and made in [illegible] by Pittsburgh workmen.

In consequence of the multiplication of slop shops in the city, filled with pawn broker's clothes and themselves, off garments of former owners, from the coasters of the public should be cautious to ascertain the character of the establishments in which they are invited to purchase, before they part with their money. The articles offered at several of the concerns in this city, are the mere offals of New York and Philadelphia slop shops, and sent out here to be palmed off on the Pittsburgh public. Purchasers should be on their guard against these imputations, and they can rely on the fact that no establishment that advertises eastern made Clothing, can give as good an article or as advantageous bargains can be had at the "Three Big Doors."

The public will please remember that all the subscriber's garments are made in this city, by competent workmen, and not gathered up like the goods now offered by the "birds of passage" from the shreds and patches of eastern slop shops. It will always be his endeavor to sustain the reputation that the "Three Big Doors" have obtained for furnishing a superior style of CLOTHING in every respect, and at prices below those of any other establishment.

He would again return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed on his establishment, and believing that they have found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would accept his invitation to call those who wish to purchase anything of every description at the lowest prices to call

Look at This.

THE attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being from the Eastern Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which is a citizen of this city, and has resided here for several years, and is a gentleman of undoubted veracity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

I used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have ever been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, I feel well with my diet,—and maintains a regular appetite. I can sincerely recommend it to all similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Birmingham, March 2, 1840.
