Another Lynx Suit.—Our friends of the Chronicle have got themselves into a diffidence with Miss Rachel Lyon, which she must incline to credit in some other way than by "due course of law."

Democratic Committee of Correspondence met yesterday at the house of H. Cassiday. An Address in relation to the approaching election was adopted, and Committees were appointed for the several wards and townships.

Resolutions were also adopted in favor of reducing the delegate system, and a committee appointed to draft the necessary resolutions to effect the object. The committee will publish the Address to-morrow, and in order that every democrat may have a copy to-day in time to put it in circulation, we publish it this morning.

A Conference was appointed to confer with the German Democratic Committee.

A letter was received from Mr. John Irvin declining to attend the meeting appointed to correspond with Mr. Charles Brenot was elected in his place.

Upon resolutions, which the Albany Argus says was strong in favor of Mr. Van Buren and opposed to the annexation of Texas, and which declared that the democracy of this administration were opposed to the annexation of Texas to the United States.

Upon the administration, were explanatorily applauded by the democracy of the state.

Mr. Taylor, of New York, presented a paper against the action of the convention in that proceeding to choose delegates to the Baltimore convention under the matter to the district—signed by the members from the city of New York, and addressed to the Democratic Republican Young Men's Convention, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Cambreleng then offered the following resolution, which was agreed to:

Resolved, That the delegates to the National Convention be instructed to cast the vote of this state for the nomination of James K. Polk, of Tennessee, for President, and George M. Dallas, of Pennsylvania, for Vice President of the United States.

Mr. Taylor offered the following resolution, which was agreed to:

Resolved, That the delegates to the National Convention be instructed to cast the vote of this state for the nomination of Silas Wright, jr.
