behalf of one candidate, he verbally "avowed [his] has elevated to the high, but, I hope, not irresponsible office of President of the United States, above or below the rules of honor, truth, and justice, which govern the common men?"

In his second letter, he still keeps up this strain. He ed him success most sincerely." "I still wrote to the General as a friend." "I wished him to be the President of the nation," &c. &c. And after telling us that "HE WROTE TO HIM (the President) AS IF HE WAS REALLY WHAT HE WISHED HIM TO BE" - he concludes by saying, "THE PRAISE WHICH I GAVE HIM IN AD-VANCE WAS NEVER EARNED." Now, we beg our readers to attend to what this SYCOPHANT and HYPOCRIE has the effrontery to declare in his last letter. Not only contradicting in the most positive manner all he has said in his previous letter, in relation to his efforts to contribute to the elevation of the President; but avowing sentiments of hostility previous to that event, wholly at war with the profession of friendship which he admits he has continued to manifest since "My object, in the present communication, is not to notice the falsehoods of the anonymous writer, or to defend a character which, from my youth upwards in purity, may at least compare with that of General Jackson; nor to add proofs in support of specific charges agains him, which have not been denied; but to vindicate myself from what I regard as a most serious impulation—that of having supported, aided, countenanced the election of such a man to the Chief Magistracy of this peaceful, enlightened and virtuous people. WITH THE PERFECT KNOWLEDGE WHICH MY OPPORTUNITIES ENABLED ME TO POSSES, OF HIS NARROW, ILLITERATE MIND-HIS WANT OF ALL MORAL CONTROL OVER HIS VIOLENT, ARBITRARY, AND TYRAHNICAL TEMPER, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN INEXCUSABLE IN ME, AS AN HONEST MAN, TO HAVE CONTRIBUTED 10 BRING SUCH A MISFORTUNE ON MY

a magistracy of any kind." magistracy of any kind.

To show the utter destitution of the principle of this man, we make the following extract from a public letter, on file in the Department of State, which he wrote to induce the removal of a gentleman who had become their charges will doubtless be put forth. We would phonoxious to him, in Forida. The sentiment expres-warn the party against the designs of these secret slansed with regard to the President, will be found in admirable keeping with those which we have given in stands convicted of a most injurious misrepresenta-tion of my judicial conduct, and his letters display a don or my judicial conduct, and mis letters display a defect of the moral sense truly deplorable. I know gards moral and political honesty, and possess the es-TOO WELL THE INDIGNANT FEELINGS OF OUR VEN- teem of the citizens at large. Their standing is such THE PRESIDENT AGAINST ANYTHING DISHONOR- that even our opponents, unscrupilous and vigilant as ERABLE I RESIDEST Additional will not be deemed of they are, have never dared to question the integrity and they are, have never dared to question the integrity and uncient importance to claim his attention.

Of a piece with this shameless want of principle capability of any of the gendemen on the democratic sufficient importance to claim his attention." Or a piece with this shadeless want of principle and consistency, are the various aspects in which his caprice has painted the character of General Jackson. with the democracy, is found assailing and secretly At one time in speaking of the General's imperious nonest and independent man to be tong near num. We are not surprised to hear that there are a few such without finding that he must either advance his opinions, submit in silence, on tark his gentleman. Mr. Anderegg is well known to the one make more than sixty cents per day. They now have been named for the Presidency. And in pursume!!" What a pretension have we here for a miserable copyist, who was employed, as he admits himself, for "a trifling compensation, as translator of the Spanish language!!!" He, however, has the sinuate that some of his ideas are not to be found in public voritings—sometimes too many of them form the State, and as a great number for the public voritings—sometimes too many of them form the State, and as a great number form the public voritings—sometimes too many of them form the State, and as a great number form the public voritings—sometimes too many of them form the public voritings—sometimes too many of them form the State, and as a great number form the purty throughout the State, and as a great number form the State, and as a great number of some selected from the State of New York and have form the State of New York and the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible in good order, and the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible in good order, and the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible in good order, and the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible in good order, and the quantity inexhaustible. This is greater that the quantity inexhaustible in good order, and the are there," &c. &c. And then our wretched scribbter provides against a denial and apprehended conviction of his falsehood, by thus characterizing the pa there are there, and as a great number ler, and some others. He was flogged, it is stated, unfrom a Presbyterian and Seceder churches the party throughout the State, and as a great number ler, and some others. He was flogged, it is stated, unfrom a Presbyterian and Seceder churches

It will not only the skin, but absolutely the flesh peeled off filled that important station for a period of not less than sold a n bargain for each or exchanged for a good

for a good

which follows the filled that important station for a period of not less than sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good

filled that important station for a period of not less than
sold at a bargain for each or exchanged for a good filled that impo of his falsehood, by thus characterizing the pa-

This unfortunate judge has acted, as he now finds. under a false view of the President's character. He flatterers being preferred." renomination as judge of Florida "a matter of course." ET, THE WHOLE TICKET, AND NOTHING and whig practice in meeting the responsibilities The President, nowever, seems to have consul- but THE TICKET, and we hope that no prudent public debts. In Maryland, as in other States, t to his conduct in the junious station—with regard to member of the party will countenance any other feel- whigs are unceasing in their clamors against repud the satisfaction he gave to the people, than to have ing. Accordingly, we find, from the following letter of WM. P. DUVAL, Governor of the Territory, the species of information on which the President relied in the discharge of his duties to a distant people:

WASHINGTON, MONDAY NIGHT, April 22, 1832. Dear Sir: On my return to my lodgings to-night, found your note of this date in relation to my conversations with the Fresident on the subject of the renomination of H. M. Brackenridge, as judge of West Flo-

On my arrival here, I was informed that he had been active in the removal of Benjamin D. Wright, Esq.

I know Mr. Wright to be a man of high standing He was considered as a good office except by the Judge and a fe w others, who were his personal energies. The recommendations of Mr. for office are on file in the Department o State, and will show who urged his pretensions to of-the people generally, and the bar, are highly gratifichoose to assail. Can such bare faced humbug avail which was received with great applause. The meet-Coleraine at that he was not renominated. But little respect is such bare faced humbug avail which was received with great applause. The meet-Coleraine at that he was not renominated. But little respect is entertained for his legal knowledge, independence, or fitness for office, and his impartiality and sincerity are We confidently answer, no! senal with him) he once left the court and business know the Judge, will express the same substantially. I do not believe we have sustained the smallest loss; but I do not believe we have sustained the sinanest tossport prised and gratified with the rapid progress the docthink the Territory will be sentimentally and the public mind in Philadelphia in getting up rows and riots. The Sun another judge for the western district. I am, with respect and esteem, your friend, WM. P. DUVAL. Mr. Brackenridge has been known in the Territory, & ation has been received here by the last mail, details of the Fourier system will be found impracticamuch pleasure by all persons who are friendly to the

FOR PRESIDENT, predilections" for his opponent. Again urging the claims of gratitude, he exclaims: "Is the individual whom our mistaken gratitude Subject to the decision of country.

Subject to the decision of THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The Daily Morning Post PHILLIPS & SMITH, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

PITTSBURGH, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27. DEMOCRATIC TICKET. WILLIAM WILKINS, Pecbles.

JOHN NEGLEY, Butler. ASSEMBLY, JAMES A. GIBSON, Pine, WILLIAM STURGEON, Fuyette, JOHN ANDEREGG, Pitt.

SHERIFF, ELIJAH TROVILLO, City. GEORGE R. RIDDLE, Allegheny COMMISSIONER, JAMES CUNNINGHAM, Mifflin. TREASURER,
ROBERT GLASS, City. DAVID HARTZ, Allegheny

ROBERT DONALDSON, Wilkins. CANAL COMMISSIONERS. JAMES CLARKE, of Indiana, JESSE MILLER, of Perry, WM. B FOSTER, Jr. of Bradford.

DEMOCRATS, BE ON YOUR GUARD!-We understand that, in addition to the dishonest tricks that will, n ever written by me recommending him to the Chief doubt, be resorted to, by our political opponents, to in-doubt, be resorted to, by our political opponents, to in-doubt, be resorted to, by our political opponents, to in-light the democratic candidates, a few persons who a magistracy of any kind." to aid our enemies, and defeat our ticket. On the eve of the election, when there is no time for contradiction, derers and disorganizers, and call on them to mark ev-The letter is dated 23d September ery man who attempts to defeat the nominations of the party, by villifying the candidates. Our ticket is un-"According to the admissions of Mr. ____, he doubtedly one of the best that has ever been nominated slandering the candidates of the party, he must be govmind, he says "everything must conform to his views, whether original conceptions of his own, or adopted from others, &c. &c. "It is impossible for any as an enemy to the success of republican principles.— OPINIONS, SUBMIT IN SILENCE, OR TAKE HIS DEPARTURE." And yet this very independent kentlePer very independent kentleery can have no influence with honest democrats, who citizens as a respectable and intelligent German, a ask 75 cents, or 15 cents per barrel, and 75 cents for Van Buren, with that candor that helmose to an invocvan Buren, with that the buren, with the burent with the buren, with the buren, with the buren, with the bure ture. And yet this very independent genue, in the next breath, pretends that during the long are always willing to sacrifice personal feelings to end that he was "near him." General Jackson had period that he was hear hom, General vacason had sure the success of their principles. The designs of men, who have the best opportunity of knowing his real these men have been brought to light, by their having worth. As it is not expected that worthy members of what I witnessed, he never wrote a single official what I witnessed, he never wrote a single official made application to some honorable members of the our party should be regarded favorably by such oppowhile I was with him, having been prepared by party, to assist them in their plans to injure our candiconscience to surrender, in another part of his letter, assaults of our open enemies or defented by the treach-repudiated by every honost member of the party.

That will be presented to the convention decreased to the convention decreased to the link Parliament will show their relative population and the numbers to be assumpted to and duly respected by her sister patiently listened to and duly respect deferred to the Link Parliament will show their relation and the numbers to the Link Parliament will show their relation and the numbers to be assumption and DEMOCRATS, MARK THE TRAITORS WHO MAY no difficulty in selecting a candidate deserving of the members to the Irish Parliament will show their reladent] is but an indifferent distinguisher of real SLANDERING YOUR CANDIDATES, AND TREAT THEM will carry the state by a majority unprecedented. merit and talents; the most abject and unprincipled AS ALL SUCH CHARACTERS SHOULD BE TREATED.—
flatterers being preferred." Having acted upon The motto of every good democrat who does not want The motto of every good democrat who does not want | Argus furnishes an aptillustration of the difference b this talse idea, it is no wonder that he supposed his renomination as judge of Florida "a matter of course." to see the opposition elected, should be THE TICK- tween whig professions of regard for the "public faith, witness the impotent assaults of the Gazette upon the democratic candidate for Congress. Conscious, as cian, and certain as they feel of his election by a triumphant vote, it is a little surprising that they should that the State was free from debt, and a surprising that they should expend so much gall and malevolence in what they know must be a fruitless undertaking. But such ill natured efforts cost them nothing, and perhaps they dollars and a bankrupt Treasury!" the attorney for the United States in his judicial dismight as well vent their overflowing spleen through this, as any other channel.

We shall not go into a circumstantial defence of the false and ridiculous charge that Mr. Wilkins betrayed his "constituents' interests in 1832." It is only necessary to say that the last witness brought to sustain the charge is no other than Henry Clay-even the identifice.
The frequent disputes which the Judge had with this cal Henry Clay who introduced and carried the comlaw officer were intended to drive him out of office; this promise bill, and therefore was dubbed, by his admiring course certainly operated most injuriously on the pubsatellites, the Great Pacificator. Tell it not to the vosatellites, the Creative and affected the respectability of the court. ters of Allegheny county, that, in order to injure Mr. We learn from the N. Y. Sun that this body met by Bahry Relfact Judge Brackenriage participated treety in the political feuds of the Territory, and was in the habit of Wilkins, the Gazette not only deigns to call in the test adjournment on Friday, Robert Tyler in the chair — Belfiast Banks ical feuds of the Territory, and was in the habit of vinkins, the Gazette not only as a strength of the delegates, Mr. B. Boyle Bray writing articles for a party paper at Pensacola—atunder fictitious signatures, or the editorial dignified." The readers of the Gazette, and all those O'Connor brought forward an able address to the peo- Carlow bead, his brother officers, and those opposed to his political opinions.

As a judge, I do not believe he ever httical opinions. As a judge, I do not believe he ever had the confidence of the bar or the people of Florida. Strong in his partialities and prejudices, he was considered by the respectable members of the bar as often influenced by his political or personal feelings, for grants the suitors in his courts.

Who take an interest in Antimasonic movements, with ple of the Office Strong in the Office Strong in his partialities and prejudices, he was considered by the respectable members of the bar as often influenced by his political or personal feelings, for large strong in the suitors in his courts.

Callan Carricken Carricken posed and carried relating to the future government of this abandonment of this very tariff of 1832. Yet they have the stupid effrontery to use a man who they have a series of resolutions in reply to the Queen of Engagest and their organ to decry Henry Clay, because of the Posed and carried relating to the future government of this abandonment of this very tariff of 1832. Yet they have the stupid effrontery to use a man who they have ratined, that the transfer wishes, by nominating the last few months. When we consider the vast im- of a late date says: "As the companies with their portance of the changes proposed, and the immense opposition they must meet with from those who are wedded to the existing selfish institutions of society, Since the President's determination not to reappoint | we are astonished that so many converts to their utility and excellence have been made. That many of the

that Mr. Bryce, of Virginia, was appointed to succeed | ble or requiring alteration, is more than probable—and inia, was appointed to succeed ble or requiring alteration, is more than procedule and bloody noises was the result of the vice.

This change is halled with

This change is halled with that the system will not be adopted so rapidly and so try. It is high time for the interference of the potream or, at least, of an inauspicious least, for that State to the lead in a matter of this kind, before other some who are friendly to the Treland. The connexion between Great Britain and take the lead in a matter of this kind, before other some three connexions between Great Britain and take the lead in the lead in the lead in the lead in a matter of this kind, before other some three connexions between Great Britain and take the lead in generally, as its more devoted disciples expect, we are Light now Escape.—A soldier of the 85th Light Infanty (stationed on the Canada frontier) snugly encased his bedy conformal in a large emigrant's chest, and efficiently (stationed on the Canada frontier) snugly encased his escape across the 45th parallel, in a steamshall attend to its progress with no little anxiety, and names.

be pleased to see the experiment of a phalanx tried in | MAINE ELECTION.—The Boston Post has return our own neighborhood, or somewhere in this region of from 289 towns, which give the following results.

THE PRESIDENCY .- We ask attention to the letter correctness of its views cannot be successfully combatof "Cassius," which we publish this morning. The ted, and its argument in favor of the claims of Penn-Cumberland, 27 " 4625 2847 sylvania must be admitted by every candid democrat. Lincoln, 35 " It is written in the most conciliating spirit, with a view Hancock, 18 " to the certain success of the party and the arrange- Washington, 15 " 1127 830 ment of the Presidential question in such a manner as Kennebec, will give satisfaction to our friends in all sections of the Oxford, country, and effectually remove all just causes of com- Somerset, plaint. It is unnecessary for us to say that the great Penobscot, body of the democracy of Pennsylvania entertain the Franklin, same sentiments that are so clearly expressed by our Waldo, correspondent, and we believe that if the opinions of Aroostook, Piscataquis, 20 the other states could be correctly ascertained, they would admit that attention to his suggestions would remove much just cause of complaint and place the suc cess of the party beyond a doubt. POLITICAL HONESTY .- A German paper in Philadelphia is in the habit of publishing two editions on each publication day, one of which contains matter pleasing to its friends at home, and the other such as will be agreeable to persons in other parts of the state, who entertain different political sentiments. Whatever doubt may be entertained of the political honesty of such conduct, the publisher evinces a very accommodating disposition. Col. Johnson.—The Missouri Reporter has au hority for saying that Col. Johnson is not and will not e a candidate for the Vice Presidency.

The Advocate of yesterday contained the bost review of the position of the genuine blue noses that profess to belong to the party, are making secret efforts has yet been published by the union men; it shows up a year from this date. N. B. Craig and his tail of spurious antimasons in their true light, and demonstrates that their conduct is go their cupidity, they will betray and sell the political principles to which they profess to be attached.

LOVES HIS COMFORT .- A Post Office clerk in Bo on refused to examine the eastern mail (which came in late at night on the 21st) for the editors who wanted election news from Maine, and gave as a reason for his conduct that the result was "well enough known" already. He's an accommodating gentleman and ought to be promoted our large and respectable German population. In its all sublunary things the present year. very smart efforts it lags in the name of Mr. John Anmen, who have the best opportunity of knowing his real will come to terms. nents as the American, we are not surprised that Mr. Anderegg should be subjected to its abuse.

The democrats of Montgomery, at their late two years SHUNK, Esq., for the next democratic candidate for pers which he prepared as an amanuansis, under the General's dictation, by saying, "Some are drawn from his conversation, and some from rude and illiterate all efforts that require the cloak of secrecy should be that will be presented to the convention there will be

> tion; and there, as elsewhere, their professions have other object than to give new life to public credit, that paper, that when the whigs assumed the cont twelve years of their management, its energies crushed by a debt of upwards of sixteen millions of

It adds the equally significant fact, that in regard to the taxation which was imposed to meet the interest on this whig debt, the collection of which devolved on the county officers, "all the counties under the control Armagh of Democratic boards of Commissioners have taken the Athlone steps pointed out by the law, whilst the only counties Rallina in the State which are wholly delinquent, are the strong Ballinasloe holds of Whiggery!" THE IRISH REPEAL CONVENTION-THIRD DAY .- Bandon Bridge regainst the suitors in his courts.

Without reference to party divisions, I have recent taken every pains to prove unworthy of confidence and land's Speech. Mr. Tyler then, before adjourning the Clonmel Westrout respectable authority, that trust, as a witness against one whose conduct they now Convention, delivered a brief but eloquent address, Clonakilty any thing with the intelligent yeomanry of Allegheny? ing then adjourned, having given several rounds of Cork City cheers for old Ireland and O'Connell. questioned by those who destrinow him. His abstraction of mind from the business before him has been of the Fourier Convention.—The sessions of this Another Outrage.—The Southern Shield records Downpatrick tion of mind from the business before him has been ofton of mind from the business beautiful him has been ofton of mind from the business beautiful him has been ofton of mind from the business beautiful him has been ofton of mind from the business beautiful him has been ofton of mind from the business beautiful him has been ofton of mind from the business beautiful him has been ofton of mind from the business the second and I have heard from respectable members tive through the lectures and the letters of the leading court, that in his absence of mind, (which is not advocates of the cause. The attendance from a discount of the court of the cour tance was not large, but the meetings of the Conven- said to have been committed by two ruffians, who went Dungannon These opinions I have expressed to General Jackson tion were well attended by great numbers of our citi- to the old man's house, by means of a small boat, on the These opinions I have expressed as created a decreated accounty, Are Ennis Enniscorthy special conversations since my arrival in this city; zens, who seemed to take a lively interest in the pro-Ennisorm the control of the control

The N. York firemen are emulating those of engines were returning from the fire on Thursday evening, when passing Chatham Square, No 26 engine company and No. 26 Hose company commenced a As we have already stated, the plan is based on in forwarding the views of its own citizens, but should company and No. 26 Hose company commenced a shameful fight, which continued with great violence for a short time, and terminated in the capture of the enashort time of the enashort time, and terminated in the capture of the enashort time of the enashor time of the enashort time of the enashor time of the en Powder Mills, on the Brandywine, in Delaware, were quarters; in addition to the lashing he received from blown up on Thursday. The superintendent, Michael O'Connell, Buckingham, the lecturer, came down on Burrill, was killed, his body being blown about three him in the following epistle: hundred yards.

3394 1925 873 152 2740 737 384 1096

492 277 --808 512 376 289 " 26557 18829 5430 3100 Plurality against Anderson, 802. The 119 towns and plantations to be heard from gavelast year 6783 for Fairfield, 3209 for Robinson, and 648 scattering; plurality for Fairfield, 2926. An dence of the country?"

defeated. TREASURY Notes .- The Madisonian of Thursday . states officially, "that but few of the Treasury notes that became due on the 1st of July last are presented for redemption, the holders probably not being aware to what extent the interest on them has ceased. All such notes were called in for redemption by the Secretary of Treasury on the 28th of June last; consequently, those which arrived at maturity before the 31st of August lass, ceased bearing interest from that day, and "our candidate before the National Convention." those which become due after, cease bearing interest derson has therefore 2024 yet to lose before he can be

904

400

27

766

2325 3753 778 588

2334 883 341 116

2000 1873 505 51

617 445 359

1207

28 "

Toe Smith has a few missionaries, who are now company them to the holy precincts of Nauvoo.

DREGG, a democratic candidate for the Legislature, ANOTHER STRIKE.—Inc Coopers on the Drangy and to urge upon the citizens of our own and other and attempts to give point to its joke by alluding in a wine have struck for wages. The prices have been states, reasons that should induce them to give a present the country was are informed, that good workmen could and attempts to give point to its joke by anduning in a so low, we are informed, that good workmen could ference to Mr. Buchanan over other individuals that

HORRIBLE DEATH .- The Caddo Gazette states

IRISH PARLIAMENT. The foll swing schedule of the differt places to return

we l	signed to each, according to Mr. O'Connoll's plan:—
ore	i	Popu. E	Counties.	غ be-
h,''	Antrim	316,969 6		248,801 6
	Armagh		Londonderry	12,012 5
	Carlow	81,988 3		112,558
the	Cavan	227,933 5		107,481
lia-	Clare	258,322 6		366,328
no	Cork	713,716 12	Meath	176,826
in	Donegal		Monaghan	195,536
		352,018 7		145,851
the	Dublin		Roscommon	249,613
ays		149,763 5		171,765
trol	Galway		Tipperary	402,563
nts,	1	263,126 6	Tyrone	304,468
	77.11	108.424 4	Waterford	148,233
p i na	Kilkenny	169,945 5	Westmeath	136,872
10		144,225 4	Wexford	182,713
are	Leitrim	141,524 4	Wicklow	121,557
s 01				17

3,975 1 Galway 4,383 1 Gort 3.627 Arklow 9,470 2 Kells 11,406 2 Kilrush 4.494 1 Kinsuls 5,510 1 Kilkennny 4,615 1 Killarne 4,067 1 Limerick 3.775 1 Lisburn 9.917 2 Londonderry 10,130 2 4,275 1 Longford 53,287 4 Loughrea 3,433 1 Mallw 6.268 1 3,758 1 Mountmeiltel 9,114 2 Mitchelstown 3.545 1 3.408 1 Monaghan 6,111 1 Mullingar 8,706 2 Navan 9.626 2 Nass 6 372 1 New Ross 4,766 1 Newtownard 25,134 2 Newry 3.807 1 Parsonstown 5,752 1 Rathkeale 107,016 6 Roscommon 6.966 1 Roscres. 4,327 1 Sligo 4,784 1 Skibbereen 6.527 1 Strabane 204,155 8 Tipperary 10.078 2 Tralec 3,515 1 Trim 17,365 2 Tuam 7 711 2 Tullamore 5,955 1 Waterford

6,116 1 Westport 6,976 2 Wexf rd Fermoy 6,976 2 Wexford Fethard, Co. Tip. 3,405 1 Youghal Total members for cities and towns,

Ireland. The connexion between Great Britain and Liteland, by means of the power, authority, and prerotto endeavor to bring that about by polatical expedients

HARD CIDER 'COONERY. - The hard cider campaign, telligent and respectable men are daily abandoning the would the community of that city require it. telligent and respectable men are daily abandoning the hard ciderparty. But there are other benefits arising of credit may be attached to this denial, I beg to assure from that campaign. One of our exchanges says: them that all the facts stated in my work on America

Even their songs are forgotten, and the Washingtoni-ans are doing their best to reform the bad habits, with ting in the shop, and the junior partner being taken in been in America six weeks he was attacked by Mr. at the first floor window.

FOR THE POST. HON. JAMES BUCHANAN AND THE PRESI-DENCY. "Resolved. That the Democratic party of Pennsyl"vania will assert the high claims of the State, and of the same doubt as before.

"vania will assert the high claims of the State, and of the same doubt as before.

I um, s islative resolves of 14th April, 1843. To the Citizens of Vennsylvania: Was the above resolution meant as mere empty vapering, or as the basis of firm and consistent action? Something intended to keep the word of promise to the verned solely by a desire for office, and that to gratify bringing the faithful into the sanctuary; and when they their cupidity, they will betray and sell the political cannot regarded whole families to join them. they are satisfied with a part. Near Danville, Ill., three of from the juxtaposition of the words, mean any thing of these reverend gentlemen recently induced as many nothing; or an assertion of claims that were to be made with the dignity that became the State, and persevered females to leave their obviously better halves and accandidate? Was it a mere artful device, calculated to give a false impression as to the patriotism and consis-Not rederned. Bills of the Globe Bank in New tency of the democratic members who adopted it; or York are not received at the Suffolk Bank in Boston. was it intended to be followed up by a promptitude of FATHER MILLER is on his legs again; he favored the were alike concerned in its adoption? Such thoughts TAIRER MILLER IS on his legs again; no lavored the permetting its miserable attempts of coarse wit, against on Monday week. The old gentleman is yet house on Monday week. The old gentleman is yet house on Monday week. The old gentleman is yet discerning public, than for men to be lofty in their words and laggard in their actions. Presuming that thereso and laggard in their actions. Presuming that thereso and laggard in their actions. In its sill sublunary things the present year. shall proceed to set forth some of the grounds on which Another Strike.—The Coopers on the Brandy- the claims of the Pennsylvinia candidate are based, the same broad principles of action, and united by The Census of Chicago, Illinois, has just been canvassed. I do not mean, in the remotest degree, to A county, 100 of which is in of 1840 showed the number of inhabitants to be 4853.

Consequently there has a page an increase of 2798 in Consequently there has been an increase of 2728, in eminently calculated for the office, in which he has spring crops, and the balance is good for full grainheretofore exhibited a capability exceeding the anticipations of his most partial friends. In the first place ry or for sheep, and lies very well. There is on its it may be remarked, that New York can claim no special right to the preference in the selection of a Presidence log barn and a good coal bank, easily accessible; that a man was whipped to death a few flays since on dent, for various reasons. No less than four Vice in good order, and the quantity inexhaustible. This in Mr. Van Baren that state has seen her favorite gency and Intelligence office, or of the subscriber on statesman, the President of the United States for one the premises. term of four years. If, therefore, New York ever had sep 27 states. Pennsylvania has, in this respect, deferred to Na new and improved plan, for the year of our New York, as she has, in other instances, to Virginia, Lord 1844; being Bissextile, or Leap Year, and content to waive every consideration, for the purpose dian of Pittsburgh, lat. 40 deg. 26 min. 25 sec. N. of promoting the united and harmonious action of the democratic party. We may next observe, that as New York has no claims that ought now to be regarded, so Mr. Van Buren himself has performed no services to the country, that have not been fully compensated by the bestowal upon him of the various high offices to which he has already been promoted by the suffrages to which he has already been promoted by the suffrages to the country and forman English Almanacs, by the gross or dozen. of the American people. It is submitted (with the fullest confidence as to what must be the reply of every 5 Barrels considerate and disinterested citizen) whether the enjoyment of the Vice Presidency for one term, and the Presidency for another, is not a remuneration adequate in all respects to the important services performed by Mr. Van Buren? and that without derogating, in the slightest degree, from his high standing, personal or political. If, then, the state of New York has no pe culiar claims over other States, and if Mr. Van Buren's claims to the gratitude of the country have been duly acknowledged and fully compensated, the next question that presents itself, is, as to the policy of tendering him a nomination for a second term And may it not be reasonably questioned, whether it is consistent with sound policy to give to the state of New York a preference in the nomination, when other states are manifesting extreme jealousy in the pertinacity with which she persists in again presenting a candidate for public consideration? Are there not already intimations thrown out reflecting upon the endeavors of that state to forestall public opinion? Is it not more than intimated that there has been an unscemly haste in the acts of her late Convention, in nominating delegates to attend the National Convention, to he held at Baltimore that the best made, most fashionable cut, tastiest trimon the 4th of May next? Why, it is asked by many, med, and cheapest article, (if not the lowest priced,) make the selection so long before the time of action?—

can be had only at the What is the policy that induces that state six months beforehand, to anticipate public opinion, and to force on its own citizens, under the penalty of being deemed reits own citizens, under the penalty of being deemed remight induce them to reject? Does it not appear to the ticle. York was playing a game of policy, and striving to establishment can give, when they are informed that force other States into her measures? Is there not rea- we will make to order every description of garments in son to suppose that she dreads the result, if matters are a superior style, and according to the latest fashions, left to their ordinary course, and that she is therefore as low as the same article can be bought in this city. solicitous so to contrive events as to put down all opposition to be own political designs? We do not allege

Any article in our line made and trimmed, in such haste to settle her own course of proceedings, warranted lesser states, and those who have no expectation of sep 26. bringing a candidate into the field, will naturally conceive that there is some lurking dread, lest, if every 127 fail into the ranks, or else lose their votes in the Con- heavy and fine Broad Cloths, fashionable colors for 173 vention. Independent, however, of such opinions, it is winter, sack frock coats, extra superfine blue and woo clear that there has been a desire manifested through- dyed black, English and French broad cloths. All of Total Representatives, 300 out the Union, that a State which has already had a which will be made to order in the most superior which president, and to whom the Presidency has, as it were, style, at very low prices.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

The population is taken from the returns of 1831.

POWDER MILL EAPLOSION. Two of Dupost's Poor Bennett appears to be catching it from all

BUCKINGHAM'S LETTER TO THE TIMES. To the Editor of the London Times: Sir,-In a letter published in your paper of Wednesfraught with so many evils to the country, is not without its benefits. It has opened the eyes of the people; York, the writer denies the truth of some statements of and aroused to a more correct and faithful discharge of mine respecting the general character of his paper, and and aroused to a more correct and faithful discharge of their duty to their country and themselves, and democracy has risen in her glory upon the ruins made by known in London as he is in New York, I should not the abominable conduct of the whigs. The most in-

"Florida cord wood," 'gold spoons," 'the standing respecting Mr. Bennett are perfectly true; and no one army of 200,000 men' and the fifty other horrid imaginations of the hard cider campaigners have vanished with the slops of the beverage they got drunk on.— Washingtoni- newspaper ever published in England in the worst of what new scenes of vice will they think it necessary to pulment themselves. When next they solicit they are themselves, when next they solicit they are themselves. plunge themselves, when next they solicit the confinewspaper press of America, in the second chapter of the second series of his Diary, in which Mr. Bennett's A COMMERCIAL PROBLEM.—Question: How can a junior partner be taken into a house over the senior partner's head? Answert By the senior partner sitting in the shool and the junior partner being taken in Bennett, and a copy of the paper was sent to Captain Marryatt, written in the margin-"Send twenty dollars and it shall be stopped." I place before the English public these opinions and issertions of others, in corroboration of my own; be cause mere assertion against assertion, unsupported by corroborative testimony, would leave the question in your obedient servant,

J. S. BUCKINGHAM. Regent's Park, Sept. 1. The President returned to Washington last

Port of Pittsburgh.

Reported by Sheble and Mitchell, General Stews

Boat Agents, Water street.

4 FEET WATER IN THE CHANNEL. ARRIVED.

Daily Beaver Packets. North Queen, WcClain, Cin. *Eveline, Bailey, St. Louis. Allegheny Belle, Hanna, Cin.

Massachusetts, Clark. Louisville. DEPARTED. *Daily Beaver Packets. Lodi, Tomlinson, S. Louis. *Bridgewater, Clark, Wheeling

Dresden, Smith, Zanesville. Old) Mail, Ward, St. Louis. Zanesville, Duvol, Parkerslaurg. All bonts marked thus (*) in the above list, are provided with Evans' Safety Guard to prevent the explosion of steam boilers. A Good Farm for Sale or Exchange.

Tennessee, and other states; and whilst she could, at all times, have presented soldiers, statesmen and patriots.

Independence. Calculated by Sanford C. Hill, Esq., worthy of those high official distinctions, she has been to could mean, or clock time for the house adjacent states without any essential difference.
Published and sold by L. LOOMIS, Agent, No. 89,

> 5 Barrels Western Reserve. Dairy Butter just received and for sale by HAILMAN, JENNINGS &Co

T ET all those in want of a first rate Over Coat. FASHIONABLE HEAD QUARTERS.

creants to the party, a set of delegates, that their more finished according to the latest mode. We will be mature deliberation, and a change of circumstances, pleased to show them to any gentleman wanting the arunitiated in such matters, as though the State of New City customers will perceive the advantage that this that there is any good ground for these suggestions; when it suits the customer to furnish his own materials: but when the most populous state in the Union, seems every pains will be taken, and a handsome fit always

The Fashions! The Pashions!! thing should be permitted to take its natural course, TUST received at ALGEO & M'GUIRE'S Fashionthe candidate selected with such apparent unanimity, able Head Quarters, a splendid lot of goods for the can only be rendered the Candidate of the People by a fall trade; amongst which will be found superior buckseries of ingenious schemes and political devices, by skin plain and fancy cassimeres, new style woolen velwhich the force of three or four great states may be compelled to waved and plain Beaver Cloths; a few pieces extra